

Beidler, Ohio.

July 29 09.

My Own Darling.

It was so hot in my room last night dearie that I decided to wait until morning before writing my note to you.

I don't know what I am going to write about except to tell you that I love you with all my heart and soul. I'll never "run out" of something to say dear for I can always say that.

You said, dear, in your last letter that you should have been in bed and then next day I didn't hear from you at all. I hope dear you haven't been sick for honey love I wouldn't have you get sick for anything in the world.

Yes dear it is going to be all the same when we are married "what's yours is mine and what's mine is my own", and then you can say that too

I suppose the "blow out" you spoke of is all over now. How did it "come off", all "Humkey Dorey" no doubt.

I am anxious to hear about life in Denver which you told me you would tell me about. I am expecting that letter today.

You ask dear if I'll be glad to see you. Why dearie I'll be so glad to see you when you get off at the Union Station that I'll have to grab on to me to keep me from jumping over the station for joy. There will be two glad hearts in Columbus on that day won't there dear? Oh but I am anxious for you to come back. If you don't hurry and come soon I'll forget what you look like but I'll never never forget to love you with all my might.

I had a letter from Mrs Shattuck yesterday in which she told me that they were going to move up on Maynard Ave and they wanted to know if I would come up here to board. I guess I'll not go for it makes it too far to go. I don't know where I had better go now. I wonder if I could board with H.B. Do you think it would be worth while to ask? I wish we could be married this fall and then we both could manage to find some place to eat couldn't we love.

I must go now darling and don't forget that I always love you most dearly with all my heart and soul.

Good Bye Sweetheart, dear.

I am forever and ever

Your true loving Harry.

The name of the family with whom I am boarding is:
