My Own Darling Love:

Here I am honey with two of your letters to answer. I missed hearing from you about two days and yesterday I got two. - one from Rife and one from Glenwood. I'll answer your letter from Rife first.

Your train out there must have an awful time being late. I suppose it is on account of the mountains.

Are you thinking, dear, of having your papa operate on you? If I thought you could be cured of the heastly Torture I would want you to have him perform the operation at once but of course that can't be told until afterwards. I try to find out what you can anyway dear. I don't want to have to think that you'll suffer that way all your life.

So you are going to have me send for a ring are you? I am afraid dear that you can't get any thing satisfactory that way. I would rather buy from a dealer whom I know is reliable. Let us wait until fall and then we can figure out our expenses for next year.

I received the money O.K. dear, and I want to give you a thousand kisses and ten times as many kisses for the same. I don't suppose I'll be able to get the pin before I go to Columbus but I'll get it sure the first time I go there and I suppose that will be when my dearie returns.

what's the difference, dear, whether it is customary to give presents that way or not. We know each other well enough by this time to throw aside formality. I appreciate it this way just as much dear as any other way so what's the difference. You bet dear I'll think of the girl who gave it to me when I put it on and I'll think of her with a heart full of love too. I was 25 this birthday dear. How old are you dear. 23?

As you know by this time I didn't get to your Grandmas last Saturday but I believe I'll go next Saturday a week from today.

'Hush' In about 5 weeks I'll see my dears again. Oh but I'll be glad to have you back dear.

I love you so dearly that I'll never want you to be away from me this long again and I don't think you ever will be either for when we are married I am going to go with you whenever you want to go and if I don't have time to go when you want to why then you'll have to stay at home too. So there!

Dearie I love you with all my heart and soul you are so dear to me.

Well honey bun I must be going now for it will be late when I get to work. I'll answer the rest of your dear letter tomorrow when I'll have lots of time. I am going to write you a long long letter then.

Good bye my darling.

I am forever and ever your own loving and true Harry.
