YEARS AGO, on the high seas, Captain Kidd plundered riches from sea-going ships for his pleasure and wealth. He enriched himself with jewels and gold and felt that everything was his own, but today our hope and pride is the jewel of learning, Therefore, we, the students of G. C. H. S., now in the happiest years of our lives, wish to record in our 1936 Yampah the little events and happenings of our high-school lives, so that in later years we may with pleasure turn the leaves of our year book and bring back more clearly fond memories that will never be quite forgotten.

IN ORDER to show our appreciation, we, the student body of Garfield County High School, dedicate this 1936 Yampah to Miss Mabel A. Peterriens, who has worked faithfully and continually for the betterment of ideals and standards in our school.

Walter V. Sharp

ALSO, to Mr. Walter V. Sharp do we wish to dedicate this year book, who, in his years of teaching here, has aroused more interest in science, has stood behind our school activities, and has done much to better the spirit of our school, because of his own friendly ways.

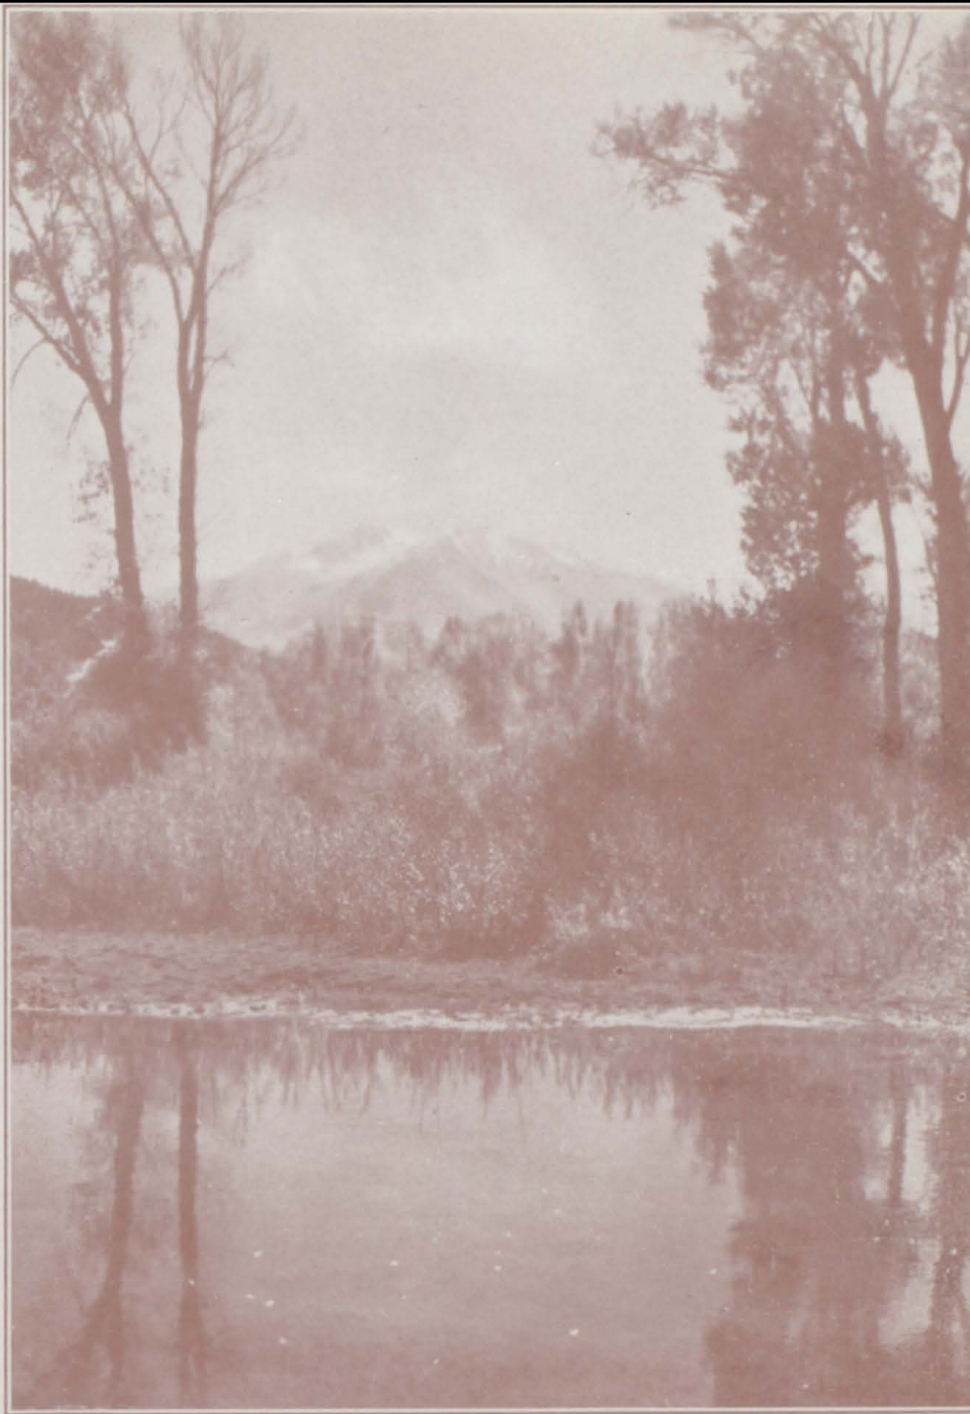

We were schooner-rigged and rakish, with a long and lissome hull,

And we flew the pretty colors of the cross-bones and the skull;

We'd a big black Jolly Roger flapping grimly at the fore,

And we sailed the Spanish Water in the happy days of yore.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

FOR A SCHOOL to have the high standards that our high school strives toward, the financial affairs must be conducted by interested and competent citizens. Fortunate indeed are we to have the Board of Education of Garfield County High School, which has conducted our school with untiring efforts to make it one of the best in the state.

THE AMERICAN High School is noted for its democratic spirit. The secondary schools throw their doors open to all the children of all the people and urge them to enter. There is no thought of educating the chosen few, but the ambition of these schools is to enroll all the children of high school age. Formerly the general purpose of the high school was to prepare students for college, consequently the curriculum of the secondary school was rather definite and relatively restricted in content.

The present most generally recognized aim of the high school is to train boys and girls to become useful members of the communities in which they are to live, in other words to promote good citizenship in the broadest sense of the term. The present trend is toward many pre-vocational courses. They emphasize the manual arts, commercial, domestic arts, music, agriculture or other similar courses. Their chief aim is not to graduate skilled mechanics, cooks, or farmers, but rather to develop the minds of the boys and girls taking these courses with sufficient knowledge and skill to serve as an introduction to these pursuits. This means that many people must readjust their thinking in order to make them conform to the present day aim of education, whose watchword is preparation for efficient living and community service.

FOR THE members of the graduating class, I wish you all happiness and success. Remember that your learning is never finished, that you must always progress. Never stand still mentally. It is said, "the only difference between a rut and a grave is their difference in dimension."

I hope that you will look back with pleasure on your high school days and upon the friendships made while here.

To the underclassmen the most important goal to attain, while in high school is the formation of good habits.

One of the most important and worthwhile habits to form is that of respecting authority. By this is meant, the ability to take and carry out orders from others thoroughly and with a good grace. An individual who has never learned to accept authority can never hope to exert authority over others when the chance comes for him to do so.

There are many other worthwhile habits which can be formed while in high school: dependability, honesty, consideration for the rights of others, co-operation, sportsmanship.

The information that you receive in your class room may be soon forgotten but the good habits formed, while in school, will remain with you always.

Joann Alexander	Secretary and Treasurer
Stanley Jackson	Student Council Representative

“LAND HO!”, shouts the captain.

The crew of '36, having traversed the boundless Sea of Knowledge, have neared the rugged coast of Treasure Island. The adventure-loving pirates have discovered hidden treasures—great heaps of coin and quadrilaterals built of bars of gold. As time rolls on, may the memories of the success of the four years' cruise ever remain in the hearts of the seafaring crew as well as in the Mariner's Log of 1936.

SENIOR CLASS NIGHT

THE TRADITIONAL class night program was altered this year, and an innovation was ushered in by the Class of 1936. On May 15, the members, under the direction of Miss Mabel Peterreins, presented a play entitled, "Pirates' Gold."

Following is a summary of the three acts:

Act I. The Dumbbell and Schoolbell, portrayed by Edith Waldridge and Frances Alton, are discussing the Guggenstein Expedition in which the Seniors are preparing to take part. The Seniors, singing a song of welcome, appear on the stage and an enrollment of the class is taken. The class poem and history are read before the class departs for the destination of Mars.

Act II. The scene is the deck of a pirate ship. The pirates, on stage, hear news of a group of scientists whose airplane has been wrecked. The scientists, who are stranded on the island, prove to be the members of the Senior Class. After a brief combat with the pirates, the Seniors take possession of an overflowing treasure chest, and, at this point, a very clever giftorian presents gifts to several members of the class. Following are the gifts:

1. Jo Benedeck, since you are acclaimed the "beautiful blonde" of the class of '36, I wish you to take this bottle of peroxide to keep the luster in your hair.
2. Ray Thurston, because your temper has been so often ruffled over school affairs, I am giving you this bottle of soothing syrup.
3. Joann Alexander, since you have not been blessed with the gift of naturally curly hair, take this curling iron as a substitute.
4. Richard Gardner, for fear you might wear your handkerchief out chewing the rag with teachers, I am giving you this chewing gum to use instead. It is at least more palatable.
5. Ed Kirwan, because you have a weakness for oversleeping, and because you have been late to printing and to basketball games, I want you to take this alarm clock. It whispers, calls, then shouts!
6. Dorothy Latson, since you are always laying the law down for the class, I shall give you this rolling pin, a strong weapon to maintain law and order in your home when you are married.
7. Byron Mangnall, for the last four years, you have had a constant desire to become tall. I bestow upon you a pair of stilts; thereby, your wish being granted.
8. Edith Waldridge, your million dollar smile has been an inspiration to this class. Take this mirror and see yourself as others see you.
9. Joe Keough, I sincerely hope this wave set will enable you to develop the newly acquired wave in your hair.
10. Norman Lake, for some time you have been deprived of a horn for your car. Realizing that you have been unable to honk at pretty girls, I wish you to take this horn as a substitute.
11. Andy Wright, "Popeye" eats spinach to conquer his foes. Do likewise with this can of spinach so that you may conquer new worlds.

Set by Catherine Roberts

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

12. Betty Kircher, because the sweets you so often took to school were unmercifully taken away by teachers, or devoured by classmates, I wish you to have this bag of candy.

13. Bob Ullman, realizing that you have a strong desire "to get out in a hurry," I present you with a diploma.

14. Pansy Lake, because you have for so long desired a car for your personal use, I wish you to take this as a gift.

Act III. The scene represents the laboratory of the scientist, Rukah, on the Planet of Mars. A messenger announces the arrival of the Senior Class on the planet. The class urges Rukah, a wizard of science, to foretell their future. The prophecy of the class is unfolded:

George Galligan: A second Will Rogers--America's good will ambassador. How well we remember George's sense of humor in High School.

Frances Alton: The Goddess of Fortune has ruled her destiny. She is now queen of Movieland--a successor to Greta Garbo.

Evan Dunsdon: A jazz orchestra leader of international fame. Play, Evan, play!

Lovena Moody: Lovena has obtained an outstanding place in the world of business. She is now employed as secretary to the Prince of Wales.

Neva Mae Garber: Sponsors a bureau of advice to the lovelorn. Her letters have consoled the hearts of many. How unlike the reserved Neva Mae of '36!

Eva Porter: A humorous reader! A star of radioland! Her readings have restored joy to the American people. Yes, always the gay and garrulous Eva.

Don Neil: And here is a loyal and staunch soldier--one who is ready to fight for his native land!

Katrina Hammerich: The most widely celebrated musician of today. We shall always remember her music in our assembly of G. C. H. S.

Louise Henderson: What a busy life she leads! A newspaper reporter, who trails news from coast to coast. Her talkativeness was a high school trait!

Reno Pretti: Who is this I see? A dairy man in the metropolis of New York City! (Eva Porter--running up to Reno)

Oh, yes, Reno! Remember your adolescent idea in Social Science! You thought it was possible for a penthouse dairy to be located on the roof of a large church in New York. And now you've made your dream a reality.

John Edgerton: And who is this promising young man? A soda squirt in Carbon-dale. It is the selfsame Johnny of our high school days!

Margaret Brown: A clarinet player! An interpreter of rhythm! How little did Margaret realize her clarinet would bring her to the Footlights of Fame!

THE CLASS OF 1936

IN THE FALL of 1932, a full-rigged schooner set out on a four years' journey in the Sea of Knowledge. The ship was destined for Treasure Island, where the members of the crew would seek a hidden treasure. The crew membered forty-eight. Mr. W. V. Sharp was chosen Steersman; Bill Morgan, Captain; Lona Watson, Assistant Captain; Joann Alexander, Quartermaster; and Bob Smith, Representative to the Marines' Council.

Class of 1936 as Freshmen

Young, De Boy, Alton, Mr. Sharp, Sponsor, Roberts, Lake, Mangnall, Latson, Rist, Menhennett, Van Horn, Hammerick, Waldrige, Henderson, Benedeck, Porter, Brown, Reid, Alexander, Vaira, Watson.

An important occurrence during this cruise was a combat between the Freshmen and their elder mates, the Sophmores. This mutiny ended in a defeat for the freshmen who offered a valiant fight.

Dorothy Latson, Leah Vaira, Josephine Benedeck, and Richard Gardner won membership to the Scroll Club because of their literary ability. Three members of the Freshmen crew participated in the annual Declamation Contest. These were Eva Porter, Dorothy Latson, and Bill Morgan. Several members of the crew displayed exceptional scholastic ability. These were Josephine Benedeck, Leah Vaira, and Dorothy Latson.

The year of 1933 found the crew organized under the title of Sophomores. Miss Eleanor Noonan served as Steersman; Bill Morgan, Captain; Josephine Benedeck, Assistant Captain; Joann Alexander, Quartermaster; and Bob Smith, Representative to the Mariners' Council.

In 1934, the seafaring crew continued the cruise. Mr. W. V. Sharp was selected Steersman; Morris Hoopingartner, Captain; Bob Ullman, Assistant Captain; Byron Mangnall, Quartermaster; and Bill Morgan, Representative.

Set by Sterling Phillips

THE CLASS OF 1936

The Junior Class Play, "I Will, I Won't," was capably directed by Miss Burghart.

A Silver Dollar Prom and Luncheon was presented by the shipmates in honor of the Seniors. This formal affair was given in a delightful manner.

In the year 1935, the marines continued the voyage in the Sea of Knowledge. Miss Mabel Peterreins was selected Steersman; Bill Morgan, Captain; Richard Gardner, Assistant Captain; Joann Alexander, Quartermaster. and Stanley Jackson.

Senior class as Freshmen.

Galligan, Nestell, Kirwan, Lake, Turner.

Hass, Edgerton, Thurston, Clark, Adams, Phillips.

Keough, Summers, Nickol, Morgan, Pretty, Valesquez, Jackson.

Gardner, Hoopingartner, Ullman, Pretty, Smith, Mangnall.

Representative to the Marines' Council.. Leah Vaira was at the head of the Marines' Council.

Many shipmates were outstanding in football, basketball and track. Dramatic talent was displayed in the Senior Class Play entitled, "Regatta". This comedy was ably directed by the sponsor, Miss Peterreins.

Two members of the crew, Pansy Lake and Stanley Jackson, were winners of the Yampah Contest, and were entitled to full-page pictures in the 1936 Yampah, the Marines' Log.

Four mariners were elected to the National Honor Society. The students were: Frances Alton, Josephine Benedeck, Dorothy Latson and Leah Vaira.

At the close of the fourth year, the schooner sighted a remote pinnacle of a mountain on Treasure Island. As the ship neared the island, the crew realized that Knowledge, Success, and Happiness had been acquired during the cruise. But the pirates, who were ever eager to explore the Great Unknown, also realized that new treasures awaited them, as a high-pitched voice greeted them with - "Pieces of Eight! Pieces of Eight!"

SENIOR CLASS WILL

Stanley Jackson: Acclaimed the world's foremost artist. His skill in painting and drawing was outstanding in high school.

Frances DeBoy: And here is Dona Frances. How successful she has been in establishing beauty saloons. It is needless to add that the majority of her customers are counts, lieutenants, and ambassadors.

Bill Morgan: Our chivalrous President of '36 is as stellar as Fred Astaire.

Catherine Roberts: An instructor on "The Art of Playing Hookey". Catherine was very well versed on that subject in High School. And now she is up to her old tricks again.

Charles Strangfield: The prominent editor of the Denver Post. He worked up from paper boy and has now reached the zenith.

Leah Vaira:

Morris Hoopingarner: This romantic couple are co-stars of the air! Just listen to their love songs of yore!

Sterling Phillips: A contented fisherman on the Frying Pan. He now sponsors "Open House of Welcome" for overworked students of G. C. H. S.

Following the prophecy, the testator read the Last Will and Testament, and a farewell song closed the play.

WE, THE Honorable Class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-Six, being sound in mind and strong in memory, and in good bodily health, recognizing the uncertainty of graduation and the certainty of a vacation, wishing to make a suitable and proper disposition of what property we may own, or have interest in, do hereby of our own free will and accord, make and publish this our Last Will and Testament.

The Senior Class, as individuals, devise and bequeath as follows:

Evan Dunsdon bequeaths his gum to Frances Powell.

Morris leaves for the radio world to revive Joe Penner.

Dorothy Latson leaves her bracelets and earrings for the trophy case.

Bill Morgan wills his tap dancing ability to Emma Tessdri. May she use it to a good advantage

Eva Porter bequeaths her dancing ability to Betty Jane Webber.

Leah leaves Jess to anyone who wants him.

Ray Thurston gives his disposition to anyone who might want it.

Norman Lake leaves for parts unknown.

Set by Harvey Pretty

SENIOR CLASS WILL

Louise Henderson leaves with Eva. Both look for new worlds to conquer.
Frances Alton gives her "freshmens" dates to Barbara Juhan.
Andy Wright leaves his football ability to next year's team.
Betty Kirchen bequeaths her chemistry book to her sister. She didn't use it.
Frances De Boy leaves, glad to get out
Edward Kirwan leaves his car to the Courtesy Patrol. They will get it anyway.
Reno Pretti leaves his voice to Doris Gates, hoping she'll use part of it.
Pansy gives her job at the show to Fabian Blossom.
Lovena Moody wills her shorthand ability to Nelwyn Allen.
Bob Ullman bequeaths his dancing ability to Francis Blotiaux.
Sterling Phillips leaves for the jungle to conduct amateur contests.
George Galligan gives his wisecracks to Alice Randall.
Stanley Jackson leaves his ability to argue to Amelia Cullet.
Edith Waldridge wills her ease to Paul Nestell.
Margaret Brown leaves the memory of her smile but takes her smile with her.
Charles Strangfield bequeaths his Denver Post route to Jeanne Parkison.
Catherine Roberts gives six inches in height to June Kirk.
Joe Keough leaves his physique to Eddie Lake.
Richard Gardner bequeaths his way with the women to Moon Hart.
John Edgerton wills his bashfulness to Harvey Pretty.
Ted Mangnall leaves his place on the basketball team to Jimmie Keegan.
Katrina Hammerich leaves for college to continue her career.
Neva May Garber wills to the library her catalogue, hoping the students will use it.

We respectfully ask that Bobby Smith be, by the court, appointed executor of this, our last Will and Testament, because of his regard for us.

In Witness Whereof, we have herunto set our hands and seals this fifteenth day of May, A. D. 1936, at Glenwood Springs, Colorado.

The above and foregoing last Will and Testament of the class of 1936 was signed by them in our presence and their signatures were attested by each of us in their presence and in the presence of each other, at Glenwood Springs, Colorado, on the fifteenth day of May, A. D. 1936.

I W i l l ! I W o n ' t !

THE JUNIOR CLASS presented their annual class play entitled, "I Will! I Won't!", on Friday, April 5, 1935.

The clever plot was concerned with the substitution of Joan Stevens, a cousin of Lucille Owen, in a fashionable school while Lucille went on a lark. Joan, through an accident, was forced to stay at the school for at least a month. The inability of those attending school to see any difference in the appearance of the two girls provided much merriment.

PIRATES' GOLD

Our crew set sail for an Island,
Under a silver-blue sky,
The full-rigged Schooner sailed sublimely,
With a star to steer her by.

Far away on a four years' journey,
Our ship sailed on and on,
Assisted by faithful steersmen,
Guiding it from eve till dawn.

Our clipper has sighted the Island,
Brimming with treasures untold,
The adventurous-loving pirates are
Clamoring for hidden gold.

Gold of friendship, we pirates discovered,
Of Knowledge, Success, and Fame,
A treasure chest overflowing,
With goals for us to attain.

The twilight envelopes our school days,
The delights and joys of old
Will forever rekindle our memories
While searching for Pirates' Gold.

A-HOY MATES! ship ahoy! ship ahoy! Again the compass is set due east, headed for the last journey to the land rich with gold and spices. What new will be in store for the gory crew? The old salts of a three-year cruise will be willing sailors, even those that are forced to walk the plank from the treasure ship. Struggles many will be had, but the winners will set forth again. The losers only will be delayed. Yo-ho mates! Yo-ho! Yo-ho!

THE CLASS OF 1937

IN SEPTEMBER of the year 1933, thirty-five students entered Garfield County High School to obtain a high school education. We were, "Green Frosh" and so needed a capable leader. For this leadership we chose Miss Foote as sponsor; Chriss Fagan as president; Cecil Gellinger as vice-president; Ruth Beltz as secretary and treasurer; and Jess Dore and Jean Paine as student council representatives. Next we tested our ability as athletes by defeating the "Sophs" in a one-sided battle at the annual struggle. We also tried basketball and the boys came out third place in the Interclass Tournament. Chriss Fagan became a member of the "G" Club for winning his football letter. Annabelle Moore represented the class as cheer leader, and Gertrude Stout, Edward Hart, Jean Paine, Alice Randall, Amelia Cullet, and Annabelle Moore placed their names on the honor roll during the year.

In the second year forty-four full-fledged Sophomores returned to high school and, during the year four more new members joined. The officers chosen were: Miss Thomas, sponsor; Cecil Gellinger, president; Jack Hubbard, vice-president; Bobby Smith, secretary; Gertrude Stout, treasurer; and Alice Randall and Jess Dore, student council representatives.

Many Sophomores were greeted by Mr. Bolitho, and Chriss Fagan, Jess Dore, Henry Hart, Harold Williams, and Ralph Brunner won letters. Also six members represented the class on the basketball squad. The boys' interclass basketball tournament was hard-fought but the Sophs, took third again.

THE CLASS OF 1937

Scholastic honors were held by Jean Paine, Alice Randall, Edward Hart, Clem Hayes, Gertrude Stout, and Amelia Cullet.

When fall came again, we light-hearted Juniors came back to go through an interesting, busy, and successful year. Each one was looking forward to the school dances, the play, the Junior Prom, and sports and musical activities. Mr.

Pretty, Dore, Gellinger, Combs, Adams, Phillips
Cox, Skinner, Light, Randall, Webber, Pilkinton
Rovedo, Nelson, Beltz, Mr. Sharp, Sponsor, Paine, Poweil, Hubbard

Sharp was chosen sponsor; Bobby Smith, president; Frances Powell, vice-president; Ruth Beltz, secretary and treasurer; and Jean Paine and Jese Dore, student council representatives.

The football and basketball squad were almost entirely made up of Juniors and those who won letters were: Harvey Pretty, Jess Dore, Henry Hart, and Ralph Brunner.

The Class Play was presented to an appreciative audience on April 3, and proved very successful. It was entitled "Speak for Yourself, Joan" and was presented under the excellent direction of Miss Burghart.

After the play, preparations were pushed forward for the Pirates' Promenade and Luncheon. The gymnasium was attractively decorated with ships' anchors and life savers in various colors. This motif, carried out in the luncheon also, produced an unusually beautiful atmosphere at both events, which were held on May 16.

Our class brought this busy and successful year to a happy close, and soon we shall all be eager to return for our last grand and glorious year in G. C. H. S.

SPEAK FOR YOURSELF, JOAN

ON FRIDAY, April 3, the Junior Class presented a romantic comedy in three acts entitled, "Speak for Yourself, Joan." This play was a huge success and was outstanding in many ways.

The members of the cast toiled with great zeal and the play was ably directed by Miss Clara Burghart. Mr. Sharp, the Junior sponsor, had entire charge of business matters and directed the stage managers.

The business staff, which was instrumental in making the play a success, included, Harvey Pretty, stage manager; Amelia Cullet, prompter; Edward Hart, business manager; and Bob Smith, property manager.

The cast was as follows: Alice May Randall, as Joan Adams, was a pretty young lady with secret sorrow. But it wasn't a secret for long.

Harold Williams was Thomas Dunlap, who thought that he was in love with a show girl, Pearl Dorsey. He recovered from that delusion just in time.

Robert Smith and Louis Rovedo, as Terry Benton and Dick Leslie, become engaged to two vivacious girls, Irene Todd and Alice Fuller. Love didn't run smoothly, however.

Betty Jane Webber, as Bella, a colored maid, was considered one of the family. Her comical actions and remarks kept the audience laughing throughout the play.

Nelwyn Allen, as Pearl Dorsey, was a show girl who by her clever acting won the heart and the money of Thomas Dunlap, a well-to-do young man. When the money was gone, her affection died.

Blanche Sours, as Mrs. Dunlap, tried to marry her son to Flora Smith, who would in time control her fathers' business, a pants factory. But Thomas didn't want to go into the pants business.

Frances Powell, as Alice Fuller, and Ruth Beltz, as Irene Todd, had their broken hearts healed at last by the men they loved, Dick Leslie and Tarry Benton. They just couldn't see the April Fool joke.

Jean Paine was Laura Hamilton, Joan's partner in business. Her April Fool joke almost got her into trouble, but saved many another situation.

HEAVE HO, my lads, for the second year's voyage in G. C. H. S.!

These old salts have an air of knowing the ropes on treasure voyages and have successfully weathered the storms of their second year of high school life.

Why, already they consider themselves model seamen and have found valuable treasures, which one can find only with diligent effort and an untiring spirit of adventure.

Since they have spent many happy hours on this voyage, they are looking forward eagerly to their next year's voyage.

Set By John Edgerton

THE CLASS OF 1938

IN THE FALL of the year 1934 fifty-one brave and daring pirates set sail upon their first voyage on the G. C. H. S. For their first experience in seafaring they chose the following crew to pilot them: Captain, Miss Foote; First Mate, Jeanne Parkison; Second Mate, Melba Porter; and Third Mate, Ray Crowley. To charter the course Ralph Voegely and Bob Thompson were elected as student council

Yandell, Fitch, Burch, Bershenyi, Baker, G Neil Zemlock, Thomson, Frost, Hammerich, Farnum, Henry
Doose, Hoopingartner, Cullet, Davis, Hart, Jackson
Wickman, Phillips, Bacca, Sponsor Miss Foote, Casteel, Strangfield, Prendergast representatives.

Smooth sailing was enjoyed for sometime but one day a bloody battle was staged with a rival crew, "The Sophomores", but 1938 emerged victorious and sailed gaily on toward Treasure Island. The first social success was "The Get-Acquainted Dance"; and although afterwards many stormy seas were encountered, the fighting spirit of these pirates never waned.

Several of the pirates excelled in athletics, for Monte Fitch and Ralph Voegely won their laurels in football.

The class showed its scholastic ability by being represented on the honor roll. Those who most often appeared were Julia Frost, Emma Toller, Kathleen Hammerich, Phyllis Davis, and Bob Thompson.

Doris Vaira and Bob Thompson were chosen as representatives in the Beauty and Popularity Contest.

After nine months at sea, land was sighted and the ship was anchored in the harbor for a three-months' furlough.

THE CLASS OF 1938

Ship ahoy! Ship ahoy! All hands aft! The furlough over, forty-seven lusty pirates returned to G. C. H. S. to be advanced to the position of "Sophomores." Once again the sails were set and the crew set forth upon their second journey in G. C. H. S.

Since no voyage can be successful without leaders, the following officers were

Cannel, Wright, J. Crowley, Tweedy, Voegely, Spillman
R. Crowley, DeJohn, Johnston, Parkison, Spahr
Cowdin, Burke, Williams, Coulter, Maltzberger, Anderson
Vaira, Kirk, Mechau, Sponsor Miss Foote, Dore, Porter, Walz

chosen for the next voyage: Captain, Miss Foote; First Mate, Melba Porter; Second Mate, Merlin Anderson; and Third Mate, Cope Wright. Those elected to chart the course were Doris Vaira and Bob Thompson, who was later succeeded by Merlin Anderson.

A fierce battle was waged with a second pirate band, "The Freshman." Once again "the Class of '38" emerged victorious and sought new seas to conquer.

Marjorie Dore and Merlin Anderson represented the class in the Yampah salesmanship contest. Other honors added to the treasure chest were those which several of the members won in athletics. Monte Fitch and Ralph Voegely, football enthusiasts, and Carl Burch, a track star, won recognition for their work by being admitted to the "G" Club. Again the class was well-represented in scholastic and musical honors. Those who most often made the honor roll were: Kathleen Hammerich, Julia Frost, Phyllis Davis, and Monte Fitch.

Many stormy winds blew, but these old salts knew the ropes and weathered all the storms like true sailors. After nine months of successful treasure hunting the bark again sought harbor and all departed for a three-months' furlough with the hope of being shipmates again for a third year.

With the hoisting of the sails, clanging of the bells, and slipping of the hawsers, fifty-five novice pirates launched their ship for the first of four years which they are to spend seeking intellectual treasures on the G. C. H. S. sea of knowledge. They are full of ambition and know that it will mean hard work, but they are willing to work for the honors which will be bestowed upon them at the completion of their four-year journey.

THE CLASS OF 1939

On September 3, 1935, the class of '39 began to endure hardships, share pleasures, and experience a determined struggle for intellectual knowledge.

Miss Trumbo was chosen captain of the green "Frosh" Pirates, and the mates chosen, were Tom McDermott, first mate; Eugene Hubbard, second mate; and Eddie Lake, third mate. Jimmy Keegan was chosen purser and the members of the Seamen's Council from our class were Eddie Horan and Barbara Jean Juhan. Barbara Jean served as treasurer and Eddie Horan as freshman representative.

The Grand March at the Get-Acquainted Dance proved to be different and entertaining--very different to judge from the usual experiences which befell us novice pirates.

Rough seas were encountered during the Freshman-Sophomore Struggle, and although we "Frosh" were defeated, we put up a good battle.

We proved we had pep and had already a great interest in sports at G. C. H. S., when we gathered a huge pile of boxes, and several old tires for the rally before the Glenwood-Fruita football game.

Tommy McDermott and Verna Ruth Porter represented our class in the Yampah salesmanship contest.

Several of our member were outstanding in scholastic, athletic, musical, and dramatic ability. Those who most often made the honor roll were Betty McDonald and Barbara Jean Juhan. Other honors obtained by members of our class were the awards given our athletes. Tommy Romero, Cecil Romero, and Eddie Lake earned their "letters" in football, an honor seldom won by freshmen. Other football enthusiasts were Bernard Galligan, Morris Buckmaster, Robert Christie, Jimmy Keegan, and Billy Crutcher. A few of the freshman exhibited basketball ability, also. These members were Jimmy Keegan, Tommy Romero,

Set By Ray Thurston

THE CLASS OF 1939

Christie, Galligan, Elder, T. Romero, Strangfield, Boyce
Hughes, Jolley, Stubbings, J. Jentzen, Blotieux, Horan
Morgan, Cantrell, Blossom, Baker, LaForce, Brodak, Woods
Keegan, G. Jentzen, Gates, Sponsor Miss Trumbo, Porter, Alley, McDermott

Cecil Romero, Eddie Lake, and Bernard Galligan.

The freshmen displayed their musical ability and talent in the Glee Clubs, Orchestra, and Band. Then, too, the Frosh had decided dramatic ability, which they displayed in several assembly programs. The great success of their program on the Wednesday before the holiday vacation was due to the outstanding talent of several of their number and the untiring efforts of Miss Trumbo. A few of the characters which were cleverly portrayed by the freshmen were: Shirley Temple, by Barbara Jean Juhan; Betty Boop, by Clarice Alley; Fred Astaire, by Jimmy Keegan; Popeye the Sailor, by Bill Crutcher; Joe Penner by Gene Hubbard; Spanky, by Tommy McDermott; and Alfalfa by Larry Stubbings. "Mrs. Ruggles and Her Children," a selection from "The Birds' Christmas Carol," was dramatized. Santa Claus, portrayed by Eddie Lake, gave an all day sucker to the young and, by this time, weary actors.

Soon nine months of more or less smooth sailing had passed, and after a jolly get-together, the 1939 pirates left for a rest, so that they might return more eager to sail for new treasures in their sophomore year.

FROSH-SOPH STRUGGLE

THE ANNUAL Freshman-Sophomore struggle, which is held annually for the purpose of initiating the Freshmen into G. C. H. S., was held on Friday, September 27, on the high school athletic field.

The "G" Club, which was in charge of the struggle this year as in previous years, told each class to prepare teams for a sack race, a hair-raising event open to boys only, relay races, and a tug-o-war.

The first heat of the sack race was won by the Sophomores, making the score 2-0. The Freshman girls pulled the Sophomores easily in the tug-o-war, resulting in a score of 2-1. The second heat of the sack race made the score 3-2 in favor of the Frosh. The Sophomore boys and girls both won the relay races, making the score 4-3. In the last heat of the sack race the Freshmen fought very hard and made a draw out of it, but the Sophomores still won with a score of 5-4.

Even though the Sophomores won, the Freshmen really gave them a race for their victory, and we hope they will have better luck next year.

THE BACHELORS' CLUB

THE BACHELORS' CLUB, with eight charter members, was organized in 1935, under the sponsorship of Miss Trumbo. The members are selected from the freshman class. To become better home members is the objective of the club. The boys devote part of their time to the study of mannerisms and social custom. They have learned to prepare many different food dishes.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

THE STUDENT Council of G. C. H. S. was organized, for the purpose of promoting self-government among the students. It consists of the officers of the student body, a representative elected by each class, whose duty it is to voice the will and opinion of his classmates, an athletic representative, an assembly representative, and a music representative, who are elected by the other members of the student council from the school at large. The Student Council is to co-operate with the faculty in making and enforcing laws concerning the school.

In the fall of this year six of the members journeyed to Grand Junction to attend a meeting of student council members from neighboring towns.

The personnel of the Student Council for 1935-1936 was:

President	Leah Vaira
Vice-President	Jean Paine
Secretary	Bob Thomson
Treasurer	Barbara Juhan
Senior Representative	Stanley Jackson
Junior Representative	Jack Hubbard

THE HONOR SOCIETY

THE SCHOLARSHIP, leadership, service, and character of four members of the senior class won for them a membership in the National Honor Society.

The members, Josephine Benedeck, Dorothy Latson, Leah Vaira and Frances Alton were chosen by the faculty from the upper one-third of the senior class.

Vaira, Benedeck, Alton, Latson

Those who are admitted to the Honor Society must have completed by the end of senior year at least 11 units in English, Language other than English, Mathematics, Science, History and Social Science. Only fifteen percent of the upper one-third of the senior class may be elected into the Society and no one who hasn't been in G.C.H.S. for two years is eligible.

On February 25, Mr. Moorhead, superintendent of the school, announced the members to the student body at a special assembly and presented each one with a pin after she had repeated the following pledge after him:

"I pledge myself to uphold the high purposes of this Society to which I have been elected, striving in every way by word and deed to make its ideals the ideals of my school."

SCHOLASTIC CONTEST

THE WESTERN State Scholastic Contest was held at G. C. H. S. on May 6. Previous to this year the contest had been held in Gunnison. Since 1929 Glenwood has not taken part in the contest but this year many students tried out for the scholarship, which is awarded to the individual who scores the highest in the state. The scholarship is for four years at Western State College. The students who win first in any one subject are awarded a gold medal.

Jolley, Hayes, Farnum,
Latson, Stout, Randall, Paine, Frost, Beesley, Zancanella, Vaira, Benedeck, Alton, Toller, Deckrow.

The contest was conducted in different centers throughout the state, Glenwood being one of them. The following schools sent representatives to Glenwood to participate in the contest: Grand Valley, New Castle, Silt, Appleton, Carbondale, Marble, Fruitvale, Rifle, and Glenwood.

This contest was new to the G. C. H. S. students, but many won places.

Many officials accompanied the participants to Glenwood. Mr. Ruland of Gunnison came here to supervise the contest.

MUSIC CONTEST TEAM

IN APRIL of 1935, the solo contests, which have always before been held at Grand Junction, were held at Rifle. The contestants from Garfield County High School are to be praised highly for their excellent work. Those receiving a rating of excellent in the solos were: Leah Vaira, saxophone; Lona Watson, saxophone; Bob Borden, French horn; Harold Borden, flute; and Glenn Kramer, marimba-

Watson, Viara, Beltz, Allen

phone. Those receiving a rating of good were Dorothy Latson, violin, and Clifford Ould, cornet. Several other contestants represented G. C. H. S. very ably on various instruments.

Also in the spring of 1935, G. C. H. S. had the honor of having a woodwind ensemble chosen to go to the Music contest at Price, Utah.

The ensemble, composed of Leah Vaira, Ruth Beltz, Harold Borden, Harry McMillan, Clifford Ould, and Bob Borden, received a rating of superior, the highest honor and only superior of all the woodwind ensembles which took part. Harold Borden received a rating of highly superior in the flute solos, for which he is to be commended. He was also chosen a member of the all-tournament band.

The annual Western Slope Music Tournament was held at Grand Junction on April 24, 25, and 26. These are the numbers presented by the musical organizations.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

THE ANNUAL County Oratorical Contest was held on March 30, 1935, at the Junior High School Auditorium. Our school was well represented in the contest and each of the representatives of our high school won places. Preliminaries were held at the high school building to see which of the students who went out for the contest would be the final three to represent us in the County Contest and she deserved commendation for her good work.

Eva Porter, Dorothy Latson, and Edward Hart were chosen to give their readings to represent G. C. H. S.

Eva won first place in the humorous reading section, her reading being "Trimming her Husband." This was the third time Eva had taken a place in the Declamation Contests.

Dorothy Latson should be praised for her dramatization of "Heights Regained," for she won second place in the dramatic reading section. This is the second time that Dorothy has placed in the contest.

"Youth Aflame," an oration, was presented by Edward Hart, who won third place in the oratorical contest. This was the second time that Edward had taken part in the Declamation Contest.

COMMERCIAL CONTEST

GARFIELD COUNTY High School was well represented at the annual County Contest held in Rifle, May 4, 1935. The representation of our school amassed a total of 40 $\frac{2}{3}$ points to defeat all other rival schools in the county.

This commercial contest is an annual event, and offers unusual opportunities to those studying commercial subjects.

I MUST GO down to the seas again, to the lonely sea and the sky,

THE JUNIOR CLASS entertained the Seniors, faculty, and members of the Board of Education at a luncheon on the afternoon of Saturday, May 18. The auditorium was attractively decorated with Silver Dollars and small silver picks and shovels. The tables were arranged in the shape of an S and were covered with red checked table cloths. The place cards were miniature mine lamps.

Morris Hoopingarner gave a welcoming toast to the guests and the response was given by Ray Voegely, Senior Class President. The other toasts of the afternoon were given by Leah Vaira and Harry McMillan.

THE SILVER DOLLAR PROMENADE, held on the eighteenth day of May in honor of the seniors, proved to be one of the most original and delightful proms ever given.

The gymnasium was decorated with a profusion of silver dollars, and colored lights, which revolved and played on the dollars, gave a beautiful effect with their many-colored reflections. The dance programs were silver dollars with clever, appropriate names for the dances.

The grand march began promptly at nine o'clock and was led by Morris Hoopingarner, president of the Junior class, and Frances Alton. They were followed by Ray Voegely, president of the Senior class, and Lena Mae Nelson. Effective formations, such as a pick, a shovel, and a dollar sign, were formed.

THE "GET ACQUAINTED DANCE" at the high school gymnasium, on Friday evening, September 20, was sponsored by the Mothers' Club. The affair was given in honor of the Freshman who exhibited cleverness and sportsmanship in the grand march. The line of Freshman taking part in the march was led by Verna Ruth Porter and Tommy McDermott. They made it interesting and different, as they skipped backwards, hopped, and ran.

Music was furnished by the Reeves Orchestra and refreshments were served.

THE HALLOWEEN MASQUERADE is an annual event eagerly awaited by G. C. H. S. students.

In various costumes, the guests of the Mother's Club assembled this year November 1, at the Junior High School.

The grand march was staged at nine o'clock and was a huge success. Prizes for the cleverest costumes were awarded to Fabian Mae Blossom and Gene Hubbard, who were each dressed as typical cave dwellers or Robinson Crusoe. Josephine Benedeck was costumed in a beautiful gown of the gay nineties and Gerald Buckler appeared as a handsome Russian. These two won prizes for the most beautiful costumes.

During the dance, the Photography Club took photographs of those who wished to remember all their beauty and splendor on this wonderful night.

Delicious refreshments, appropriate for a Halloween festivity, were served during the evening.

THE THANKSGIVING DANCE for the student body and alumni of G. C. H. S., who were the guests of the Mother's Club was given on November 23. The dance was held at the Junior High Auditorium and the music was furnished by George Winter's Orchestra.

THE CHRISTMAS DANCE, given annually by the Mothers' Club, was staged at the Junior High School building on December 27. The hall and gymnasium were attractively decorated with Christmas ornaments and lights. On the stage were three trees, one decorated with green lights, one decorated with red, and the other with blue.

Mrs. Jess Dore was the chairman of the refreshment committee and Mrs. Walter Parkison of the decorations committee. Leonard Reeves' orchestra furnished the music.

THE LEAP YEAR DANCE, a novelty in school dances, as it comes once in every four years, was held in the Junior High Auditorium, February 8. The dance programs were small red hearts and the girls managed the dances for their escorts. The dance was given by the Mothers' Club and music was furnished by George Winters' orchestra.

THE MOTHERS' CLUB DANCE, in honor of the Class of '36, was given Friday, Mar. 27; after a grand march clever programs, in the form of tiny chicks, were given out and during the dance prizes were given to the students who were lucky in the spot dances. Delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the guests. Mrs. Earl Lake served as chairman of this dance, at which every one had a very enjoyable time.

DEMOMS 19 - MEEKER 0

at Meeker

The Demon outplayed the Cowboys from the start of the game and crossed the Meeker stripe three times to score and made the conversion point.

Dore and Hart made the touchdowns.

DEMOMS 42 - OAK CREEK 9

at Glenwood

In the first quarter of this grid contest it looked as though the giant Oak Creek Squad was pushing the Demons from the field. However, the Demons pepped up in the second quarter after Romero booted a field goal. From then on the game was a pushover but the Oak Creek boys never gave up fighting and, as the final whistle blew, Glenwood led 42-9.

DEMONS 6 - HAYDEN 32

at Glenwood

The Hayden team, fast and tricky, came out of the hills to hand the Demons a nice shellacking, and did so. They took the lead at the beginning of the game and kept it.

DEMON 0 - RIFLE 40

at Rifle

The Rifle Bears outwitted the Demons throughout the whole game and took the non-conference game 40-0. Although the team lost, it never gave up its fight till the final gun.

DEMONS 25 - PALISADE 0

at Glenwood

The Demons took the Palisade game in fine stride and it appeared as though the boys were hitting the comeback trail after the crushing Rifle defeat. Every man on the squad played a fine game no matter what their position.

DEMONS 6 - RIFLE 6

at Glenwood

A large crowd assembled in the ball park on Armistice Day to see the annual classic between Rifle and Glenwood and not a one of that crowd didn't get his money's worth.

Rifle put on a strong offensive from the start and intercepted a pass in the first ten minutes of play to score. The conversion was no good.

The Demon bottled them up in their territory until the last quarter, and then Dore pushed across a counter to tie up the game. The conversion point was no good. The whistle blew a few minutes later.

FINISHED SECOND

Last year the Demon squad finished the football season in third place and this year climbed up to the second berth. With good playing and good luck during the 1936 season, we may get the championship. We all hope so.

Gardner - Senior - Guard. He was small, but he stopped the largest of them.

Thurston - Senior - Tackle. They don't come too big for Ray.

Pretty - Junior - Quarterback. He carried the burden of quarterback well.

Top: Gardner, Thurston, Pretty
Side: Galligan, Hart, Lake, Fitch

Galligan - Senior - Tackle. He was one of the fastest tackles in this conference.

Hart - Junior - End. Hart was one of the Demons' outstanding offense men.

Lake - Freshman - Tackle. Another "Frosh" who showed he was not green.

Fitch - Sophomore - Guard. Fitch turned in a nice performance this year.

Wright-Senior-Halfback. Wright held his halfback position like a true Demon.
Phillips - Senior - Guard. His interference netted the Demons many yards.
Neil - Senior - End. Neil was one of our outstanding defense men.

Top: Wright, Phillips, Neil

Side: Dore, Brunner, Romero, Hoopingartner

Dore - Junior - Halfback - Captain. The Demons leading ground-gainer.
Romero - Freshman - Fullback. Here was a freshman who proved he could take it.
Brunner - Junior - Center. Brunner was one of the opponents' chief worries.
Hoopingartner - Senior - End. A pass-snatcher who could really bear down.

Dore--Forward. Although Jess was unable to finish the season because of sickness, his ball rustling and fight were outstanding.

Hart--Guard. Hart filled his position with the ability of a real Demon and hit the hoop well all season.

Voegely--Forward. Always eager to get into the fray-- shows promises of becoming a likely forward.

Burch--Center. Could always be depended upon to put up a good game.

Ullman--Guard. Bob was small but his fight broke up many of our opponent's offense drives.

Romero--Guard. Tom found it plenty hard going for a freshman but he fought to a fine finish.

Kirwan--Center . Ed gave his best all year and found that a good loser is a winner.

Magnall--Forward. Ted was the smallest man on the Demon squad, but our opponents' biggest worry.

Wright--Forward. Andy was a very enthusiastic, and energetic player. He fought every second of the game.

Neil--Guard. Don was with us only one semester, and the Demons surely missed him later in the season .

THE HOOP-SHY Demons opened their current basketball season at Grand Junction on Friday and at Fruitvale on Saturday, December 13 and 14. The Grand Junction Tigers felt the lash of the Demons when they were trounced by a score of 31-9. But Fruitvale proved that they could take it when they turned loose with a crack-up game and handed the Demons their first defeat, 15-20.

The Demons played out of luck again against the tall De Beque quintet. G. C. H. S. was downed by a score of 30-18.

New Castle won the first conference game of the season. Although the Demons had the lead up to the last few minutes of play, a few long shots clinched the game for the Tigers at 25-22.

Fruitvale journeyed to Glenwood to hand the home boys another licking, but the Demons upset the dope by dumping the Vikings 24-17.

The Aspen Miners could not hold the Demons in their offensive drive and were left on the short end of a 28-6 score.

Rifle, the strongest team in the conference, had to put up a big fight to keep the Demons down. The final score was 31-22 in favor of Rifle.

Aspen tried to upset the dope by springing a defeat on their visitors, the Demons, but met disappointment there, for the final tally was 27-21.

Again New Castle walloped the Demons in the most crucial game of the season by a small margin of 27-22. This game meant that Glenwood would not participate in the slope tournament for the first time in eleven years.

The most exciting game of the season, one which kept the crowd on its feet for the entire evening, was the Rifle game. Glenwood was nosed out by a two-point margin, 25-23.

Gypsum could not keep the Demons from taking them into camp with a 31-16 licking.

Eagle was just not up to standard when they let the Demons find the hoop again and again to hit and to soar to another victory, 31-7.

In one evening Glenwood played two of the fastest games that Glenwood had seen in many moons. Red Cliff proved too much for the B squad and the A squad just managed to take the Red Cliff lead in order to win 21-20. The second game of the evening was with Grand Junction. The Demons, already tired from the last quarter of the previous game, fought gamely and skillfully, but lost to the Tigers. The close score was 21-18.

Carbondale felt the crushing power of the Demons in a 24-21 defeat.

Carbondale had full revenge when they took the Demons into camp with a score of 20-12. Three of the Demons, Dore, Pretty, and Dunsdon, were out of the game, thus wrecking the Demons' scoring power.

THE TRACK season for 1935, although not very outstanding, was as a whole not entirely unsuccessful.

Since the heavy track stars had graduated, it was necessary to train several new men, and bad weather played an important role in every meet.

However, this year many future track stars were discovered.

Dore, Heuschkel, Hildebrand, Fagan
Neil, Phillips, Turner
Hart, Voegely, Hoopingartner, Burch

There were three meets during the season. In the county meet, G. C. H. S. came out second, but didn't succeed quite so well in the other meets. The highlights of the county meet was the fact that G. C. H. S. took all the honors in the high hurdles, with Ray Voegely running first, Dore, second, and Burch third. Glenwood also took second in the relay.

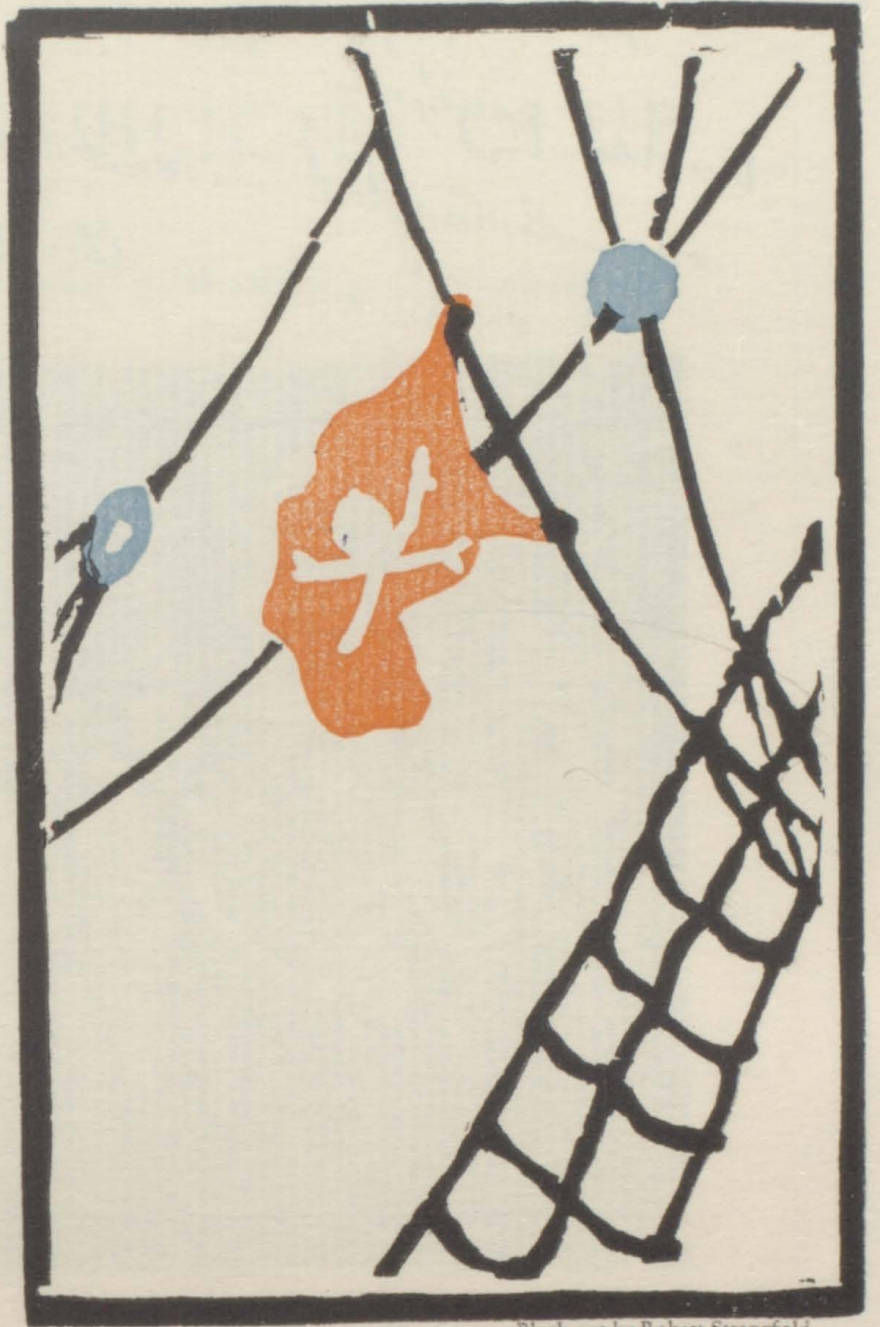

In the Dedeque meet, Burch was the only Glenwood man to get a first place. He received a first in the high hurdles, and Dore tied for first in the pole vault.

The season closing with the Grand Junction meet, and Glenwood, scoring only two points, found their opponents to be superior teams.

Almost all the members of the track team will be back next year to help bring G. C. H. S. to the front in track.
