F O R E W O R D

In an effort to present a faithful and true record of the past year in Garfield County High School, we offer this volume to our classmates and friends.

Turn these pages, and as you view each of the rings of this big four-ring circus may you thrill again as you re-live the memory of these events under the Big Top.

CLASS NIGHT PROGRAM

Helen Claudon, Betty Jo Lumsden, Bill Hammerich, and Willie Helm are on the stage as the curtain goes up.

Time - - - 1950

Situation - - -

The four were on their way to participate in a circus at Glenwood when their car broke-down somewhere on the Frying Pan. The girls decide to locate the class of 1940 and put on a circus in the woods. They are all on the stage when a horn honks.

Willie: That must be part of them now.

Betty Jo: Part of them!!! That's Burdge. I bet he went off and left the rest of them. (Burdge comes up left aisle, through auditorium. Slaps everyone on back and greets them.)

Burdge: Mouse, how did you get here?

Betty Jo: We were stranded here last night.

Burdge: Tough luck ol' kid. (Slaps Betty Jo on the back)

Betty Jo: So help me Burdge if you hit me again. I'll sock you one.

Helen: Now don't get rough with Burdge. He always did haul us around in his car.

Burdge: I have the car out here now - - -

Bill H.: Oh no you don't! the rest will be here soon.

(Enter Drake, Cranor, Holloway, Wilma.)

Holloway: This is sure going to be good. Well, that clown suit is certainly becoming, Helen. (Sarcastically)

Helen: Ohhh, I don't know. What have you done for yourself since you left good old G. C. H. S.

Holloway: I have my own laboratory. At present I am experimenting with the medicinal properties of the Yampa Water.

Set and run by Bill Weaver

S E N I O R C L A S S

Wilma: (Dressed in white) And I'm his assistant.

Walter: Is that your car out here? I passed by last night, never dreaming my classmates were stranded here.

Willie: What are you doing up here?

Walter: I run a truck-line between Leadville and Glenwood.

Drake: (Glancing out the door) Here comes the eternal triangle. You know, Ray never has decided which one he prefers.

Holloway: Perhaps the girls haven't decided yet.

(Enter Ruth, Ray, and Gen. General Greeting)

Ruth L.: Well, here we all are.

Walter: (Mockingly) Yep, here we all are.

Gen.: Yeah they tried to ditch me, but they still haven't learned how.

Ray: Somebody told me once, way back in High School, that Solomon had a thousand wives. Wonder why he did it? Two of them cause me enough trouble.

Ruth L.: You didn't believe everything you were told, did you?

Ray: Sure, wasn't I supposed to?

(Everyone laughs; Enter Rose, Mary Edith, and Virginia)

Virginia: Well, we brought the music.

Holloway: Well, let's have some music then.

(Rose plays. Burdge keeps time while she plays)

Burdge: That music makes me want to dance.

(With encouragement he goes into his dance. Enter six girls. Morgan, Lee, and Ranlett.)

Ranlett: You people sure are making a lot of noise. What's the occasion?

Helen: Burdge just did a tap dance, you should have seen it. We didn't think he had it in him.

Lee: Well let's carry on. Only let's have a real show. Morgan will play, won't you Morgan?

Morgan: Aw, let somebody else.

Ranlett: Mary Edith and Virginia used to play the violins. Why not have a duet now?

Morgan: That's better. (Duet - - applause, somebody asks for more)

Mary Edith: O.K. if you'll help us by singing.

(All sing. Enter Bessie)

Bessie: Hi kids, here I am. But why in this unearthly place?

Bill H.: Well, we ran out of gas here and the girls are blaming us for it.

Lee: That's all right, the women always did blame us for everything that happened in the class of 1940.

Willie: Yeah, I'm getting fed up on it too, and for two cents I'd get rid of this job, (points to clown suit) and go on relief.

Bessie: Aw, quit your griping. Let me have the stage. (Gives reading)

Morgan: (The six girls) All right, it's your turn, what do you plan on doing?

(Girls sing)

Betty Jo: Oh for a poet to express our lofty sentiments at this time.

Drake: Why, I wrote a class poem. Do you want to hear it?

(General agreement. Reads poem)

Helen: Yeah, when I look at that car down there, it looks like the sunset for four people I know

Bill H.: Now Helen, it isn't that bad.

Beverly: We've performed. What are you going to do, Thome?

Morgan: I can't do anything.

Mary Beth: On you can play the Narcissus. Remember you used to play it?

Doris: Oh he can play anything. Can't you Morgan?

(Morgan goes over to piano very unwillingly, plays Narcissus)

Morgan: What do you want me to play now?

Set and run by Bill Weaver

S E N I O R C L A S S

(Anyone suggests a song. Morgan plays Narcissus.)

(Steuben enters with frying pan and can of beans.)

Steuben: Come on, you guys, if you're going to eat, you got to work.

(Gang agrees to help. Exits singing, Hail Hail the Gangs all here.)

Jessie: I'm sure this is the place we were to meet.

(Wanders around, then sits down and sings.)

(Enter Helen S. Ruth K. and Nellie, applauding.)

Helen S.: Where's all the gang?

Jessie: That's what I'd like to know. (horn honks)

Ruth K.: That horn sounds like a Chevrolet. It reminds me of Bob Davis.

(Enter Bob, Jones, Donegan, Bosco, Thome, and Dick.)

Bob: Yep, own my own Chevrolet now.

Donegan: You are about to have the honor of hearing us sing.

Nellie: Well we might be able to bear a practice number. (boys sing)

(Enter Edith, Patsy, and Wilma.)

Ruth K.: Now we can have some real music. Edith, you play.

Jones: So you didn't like our singing. (Group: play Edith.) (Edith plays)

Wilma: Hasn't Tidwell arrived yet?

Patsy: He could sure add to the fun.

Tid: Here I am, and I brought my Ballet Dancers with me; we are going to dance right here and now. Mouse will you play for us?

Peters: Is everybody here? (Marie Cowles dashes in.)

Marie: Shattuc? Where are you? Why didn't you tell me where you were going?

(Vickers and Weaver stroll in)

Weaver: We picked her up in town. Don't you want her, Shattuc?

Marie: He'd better.

Vickers: Now let's not have a family row

(Enter Ray Light. With coats etc.)

Ray: You thought I wouldn't hear about this. But things get around at Snowmass.

Bosco: Cold, Light?

Ray: Naw, I came prepared.

(Edith goes over and helps him peel off his coats)

Ray: You know I got pretty cold those four years I spent in Glenwood.

Helen S.: Let's have a speech from our President. The honorable Mr. Bosco.

Bosco: Let someone that can. Weaver you do it. (Crowd, Speech)

Weaver: (Speech)

Patsy: (Looks out of window, interrupts Bill) Oh look, here comes Gen and Jack, and Jack has on his dancing shoes.

Jack: We heard this was a show where everybody had to perform, so we came prepared.

Gen.: Come on, Jack, let's show them some action. (Dance)

(Vickers steps forward with Clarinet. Plays class song through once, class files in.

Second time, every one sings class song.

Set and run by Bill Weaver

Back row: Leonardi, Kuretich, Deckrow, Burdge, Collins, Donegan.
 Third row: J. La Force, Guadnola, Brunner, Strangfield, Vickers.

CLASS HISTORY

Remember the G. C. H. S. Circus Tent in 1936? The blaring circus band ushered into the ring forty-four green performers—untried and a bit timid before their audience. Miss Margaret Foote managed them, and to organize themselves into a troupe, they chose the following officers: Genevieve Cowdin, President; Jack Tidwell, Vice-President; Virginia Reich, Secretary and Treasurer; Mary Beth Latson and Stephen Donegan, Council Representatives.

In 1937, the troupers made a more impressive entrance. They out-acted the new Freshman and were proclaimed victors of the annual struggle. Miss Schiefelbein put them through their pace, with Stephen Donegan, President; Henry Bosco, Vice-President; Genevieve Cowdin, Secretary; Treasurer, Bill Peters; Representative, Shattuc Jones. This year, Jack Tidwell and Burnett Ralston were presented with great fanfare in the Basketball Ring, and James Belluchie and Wayne Burdge won many cheers in the Football Show. The circus crowd gave all the smiles and chuckles to Bessie Heberling, who won first place in the county contest with her humorous reading feature.

How different this same band of performers looked the following year when Mr. Sharp cracked his whip and they filed into the tent! Resplendent in uniforms with the title of Juniors in shining letters, they introduced their President, Henry Bosco; Vice-President, Albert Velasquez; Treasurer, Jack Tidwell; and Representative, Ray Fender. Those outstanding in the vocal arena were Patsy Guadnola and Mary Beth Latson. In the sport arena, a more experienced group showed their ability—Dick Leonardi, Wayne Burdge, James Belluchie, Ray Fender, Bill Weaver, Morgan Thome, Jack Tidwell, Ranlett Deckrow, and

CLASS HISTORY

Leland Watson. Those participating in the annual scholarship team were: Virginia Reich, Frederick Tagge, Bill Vickers, and Leland Watson. A special drama was enacted this year — the class play, entitled "His Ozark Cousin." For the grand finale, the Junior Company staged an elaborate Indian luncheon and promenade.

1940 — and the breath-taking parade of the Senior assemblage! Leading them into the main ring was their Sponsor, Miss Peterreins; President, Henry Bosco; Vice-President, Ruth Leighou; Secretary and Treasurer, Mary Beth Latson. The four-ring show revealed what study in the big tent had achieved. There was another successful play, "Mama's Baby Boy." There were ten Senior musicians in the Circus band and eleven in the orchestra. Members of the Senior troupe who again exhibited athletic ability were: Jack Tidwell, Wayne Burdge, James Belluchie, Dick Leonardi, Bill Weaver, Morgan Thome, Ray Fender, Ranlett Deckrow, Leland Watson, and Lawrence Holloway. Poised and wise were the troupers because of the experience of the last four years. As a crowning glory to the four years of life under the big tent, Dick Leonardi, as President of the Student Body acted as Barker for G. C. H. S. Big Show. At the final performance May 31, stellar performances were made by Virginia Reich, Mary Edith Delaney, Nellie Lyons and Bill Vickers.

FIRST GRADE KINDERBAND OF THE CLASS OF 1940

S E N I O R

UNDER THE BIG TOP

The tents are up, the bands are playing,
 The circus banners in the breeze are swaying,
 Our work is done, four years it took
 And now it ends, we close the book.

Our paths we tread
 Our performance begins
 And now the circus goes ahead
 We each will go to our own tent
 And do the work we represent.

We've swung on the trapeze of Knowledge
 The Coasters of Learning we've ridden about
 We've burst the Ballons of the Unknown
 And conquered our every Doubt.

As the circus ends, the wagons roll,
 We all pack up and join the crowd
 And toward our circus trains we go
 A hint of adventure has entered our soul.
 Some of us have lost and some of us have won

But we've each had our acts of hard work and fun
 And as we pass the circus gates
 We think of all we've done and yawn.
 But wake up, Clowns, don't go to sleep
 It isn't the Sunset, It is Dawn!

THE SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class Play, "Mama's Baby Boy," was given at the Junior High Building on the eight of December, 1939.

The situation was created by a widow and a widower, both of whom were broke, when each tried to marry the other for his money. Their children, both of whom were 18, were very severely instructed to pose as 12 to make their parents look older. Then Mrs. Anglin, the widower's sister, comes to the house and everyone was calling everyone else crazy. Finally after three laugh packed acts, the stock market came to the rescue, and both were rich again. Love then triumphs, and they patch up the quarrel and unite in holy wedlock. Even the children thought they have been hit by Dan Cupid.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Hobgoblin House" was presented by the Junior Class on Friday, April 5.

The plot was centered around a haunted house in the Rockies. A wealthy woman and her two nieces purchased the house for a summer home and much mystery and trouble occurred in Hobgoblin House. A maniac and a gang of criminals made matters more complicated. The comedy was provided by the two negro servants and the English maid. The necessary romance was furnished by the two nieces and their fiancés. The old caretaker added the mystery and Patricia, a wealthy kidnapped girl, solved the mystery of Hobgoblin House.

THE CAST

Dorius Krupp--The squat, gnome-like, crippled old caretaker of Hobgoblin House
 Charles Davies
 Miss Priscilla Carter--A capable aristocratic-looking spinster, owner of Hobgoblin House. Marcella Keegan

CLASS HISTORY

Early in September 1937, a new troupe of performers was introduced to our beloved Alma Mater. As their ring master, the troupers chose the very capable trainer, Miss Margaret Foote, who sponsored their achievements for their first year under the Big Top. From their midst came Leatrice Parkison, Barker; Jeanette Blue, Assistant Barker; Frank Neil, Cashier and Historian; Mary Frost, Representative to the Student Council; Ojay Worrell swung from seclusion to become Treasurer of the Council.

As soon as the troupers became accustomed to the novel proceedings, they were duly initiated with all the pomp and ceremony due such a talented group of Freshmen. They valiantly battled the troupe of the previous year and in the evening everyone enjoyed the ball these novices so willingly sponsored.

On the following September this same troupe returned minus those who found the tumbling too rough. This year, Miss Boyd, an equally capable trainer was chosen as sponsor. From their midst came Wendell Overhults, Barker; Thornton Jackson, Assistant Barker; Leatrice Parkison, Historian; Marcella Keegan, Cashier; and again Mary Frost, Representative to the Student Council; once more Ojay Worrell swung into the position of Secretary of the Council.

This year the stalwarts pitted their talent against those a year younger than they. At the annual Music Carnival, Marcella Keegan was chosen Queen of the Big Top.

Another year under the Big Top has passed and our troupe is back again; stronger and more clever than ever. This year, Miss Margaret Hunt, a recent addition to the faculty, was chosen as Ring Master by the performers. Leatrice Parkison again tumbled into the President's Box; Mary Frost into the box of the Vice President; Rachael Farnum, Secretary; Betty Neislanik, Treasurer and Norman Schultz, Student Council Representative.

Again it is time to take the Big Top on the road. It is with a pang of regret that this troupe of performers will be in our arena under the Big Top only one more year. This time as the star-act in the Four Ring Circus.

S O P H O M O R E

Early in September of 1938 a new litter of cubs was given a den under the Big Top of G. C. H. S. From their very entrance they began intensive training with Miss Bessie Meyer as trainer. The leader of the cubs was Allene Reich and assistant leader was Adele Westhafer; for handling their nickels and dimes, they chose Marie Hoffman; Chester A. Jamson was elected to scribble all their affairs. To growl their ideas to the Circus Company, they chose Lester Garver.

Very soon the cubs bouted the elephants and proved themselves equal but not superior to the older techniques of the elephants.

Some time after their battle, they went into Winter Quarters for higher training and then displayed their tricks in front of the Circus Company. After much tedious training they were dismissed for summer hibernation.

Again, the next September, the now almost full-grown cubs, returned, ready to display their talents and ready for more difficult work. They chose as their trainer, Miss Mary Lee Gorsuch and as ring-leader of the bears they selected Bob Keating; Edmund Prehm as keeper of the nickels and dimes; Adele Westhafer to scribble their goings on; they chose Allene Reich and Adele Westhafer to perform for them in front of the Circus Company.

They pitted their strength against the monkeys and were victorious.

During this year, more and more of these bears took to playing musical instruments and proving themselves mentally and physically able to under-go the hard life of a Circus.

FROSH-SOPH STRUGGLE

What's a circus without a side show? The monkeys and the Bears put on a "Honey" for interested spectators on Friday, September 8.

The two groups of actors met at the ball field after school and, under the supervision of the "G" Club, proceeded to test the strength of respective group.

There were 7 races scheduled which included:

Sack race for boys (2).

Tug O'War (girls and boys) 2.

Girls' jumping race 1

Cane race for boys 1

Girls' relay race

In the final count, the Bears proved the victors by a score of 4-3. The Monkeys promise a different story for next year.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 5, 1939, forty-nine excited monkeys scampered into Ring number one under the Big Top of the four-ring circus at G. C. H. S.

On their fourth day in the tent, the boys dressed in girls clothes, and the girls dressed in boys clothes. On the same day, the monkeys encountered the trained bears of the second-ring and the annual Freshman-Sophomore struggle was started. The monkeys lost by a mere tail, but they soon grinned away their gloom, and went to work with a smile.

That night, the monkeys, performing bears, trapeze artists of the third ring, and the lions of the fourth ring came forth for the skirt and sweater dance given by the Mother's Club.

After this week of hectic enjoyment the monkeys settled down to work in the four ring circus of G. C. H. S.

As a leader, the clowns chose Jimmie Jarvis, with Marion Crutcher as his assistant; Afton Dunsdon was chosen to count and record the pennies of the monkeys; as a representative to the Student Council, the monkeys sent Mary Elizabeth Shutte, who proved herself worthy of the honor. The entire body of circus performers chose Warren Gardner, a monkey from the first ring, as Treasurer of the Student Council.

A few monkeys left during the year, but several others from other circuses filled in the gap.

As the time drew near for the circus to fold up for the summer, the monkeys began to plan for a picnic as a farewell party among themselves. They finished up their year with good grades marked down on their circus cards, and then gave their farewell outing and said so-long to G. C. H. S. as the curtain closed on the First Act of the four-ring circus at G. C. H. S.

FUTURE HOMEMAKER'S CLUB

Miss Hunt, sponsor of this girls' organization, has made this year one of interest and practical help to the members. The art of meal preparation and balanced diets has been studied by these vitamin lasses. Additional work included various handicrafts such as knitting, crocheting, etc.

December 16, the Club was hostess to lady members of the faculty at a beautifully appointed turkey dinner which the girls, themselves, planned, prepared and served, using the Christmas motif.

Initiation services were held on February 5 for those girls having sufficient points to become Junior Homemakers. The occasion was further celebrated by a tea. During the month of April, initiation services were held for girls acquiring the rank of Future Homemaker. Pins were given in recognition of this rank.

This year the local Club was affiliated with the State Future Homemakers.

BOYS' ATHLETIC CLUB

The Athletic Club is made up of boys who take no active part in athletics as well as those who go out for the various sports. "Skip" has created a healthy interest in sports through the operation of the Club. During the year all position, plays, etc. are thoroughly explained so the individual may be an intelligent spectator as well as a participant. Sportsmanship is a foremost factor of the club.

The Yampah is the Garfield County High School year book, edited, printed, and bound by the students as a student project. The Publicity Club, sponsored by Miss Schiefelbein, has charge of gathering and preparing the news; while the printing class and bookbinding class do the printing and the binding of the book. The Photo Club provides the material for the snap shot department.

"The Yampah" was first published in 1925, by a staff with Miss Margaret Foote as Editor. The book was printed by the Glenwood Post. A glance in the book shows Mr. W. D. Blaine, Superintendent and Mr. Moorehead in charge of Mathematics and Athletics; Mr. F. E. Latson, Manual Training instructor. The 1926 book was headed by Andrew Dickson. Two new instructors were added to the force that year, Miss Peterreins and Mr. Sharp. The 1927 Yampah marked the first publication of the book by the school Printing Department, under the supervision of Mr. Latson, who has been in charge of the printing of it ever since. This 1927 edition was headed by Gladys Dickson as Editor; Mr. Moorhead was Principal, and a new commercial teacher, Miss Boyd, was added to the teaching force.

There have been annuals at G. C. H. S. before the 1925 edition, under such names as Grizzly, 1915; Columbine, 1916; La Cima, 1920, (by the way Betty Jo's aunt was editor of La Cima).

The Yampah has always been self-supporting. No outside advertising is ever solicited.

The Demon, one of the three publications of Garfield County High School, is largely a printing-class project as it is edited and printed in the school printshop. It is a small sheet printed on both sides and carries interesting items of school and personal news. It is quite popular with the students and is eagerly awaited by them each Friday afternoon. This is the second year of publication.

The Staff is as follows and much credit is due them for their fine work.

T H E "G" B O O K

The members of the student council revised the "G" Handbook this year. About every five years the student council undertakes this project of revising the book. The last time it was revised was under the Presidency of Leah Vaira, in 1936. This year, under the direction of Dick Leonardi, the new "G" Book proved to be a record-breaking achievement.

The handbook is given to all students enrolling at G. C. H. S. for the first time. The book this year, is bright red with a black "G" in the center. The book contains general information concerning the activities, rules, contests and athletics of the school, the Yampah, the courses offered, society, three floor plans of the constitution and preamble of the school. It explains in full, the required subject for grades. Fire drills, assemblies, and report cards are also explained. Several pages are about the Student Council and Student body officers and their duties. School songs are printed in the book to enable new students to enter into the "pep" meetings of the student body.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The purpose of the student council is to assist in keeping law and order and to introduce new methods of government in the school. The members consist of a president, selected from the Senior class; a vice president, selected from the Junior class; a secretary, selected from the Sophomore class; and a treasurer selected from the Freshman class. The students desiring these offices turn in their names to Mr. Igo. These are posted and are voted upon by the student body at large. The class representatives are elected by the same method from their respective classes.

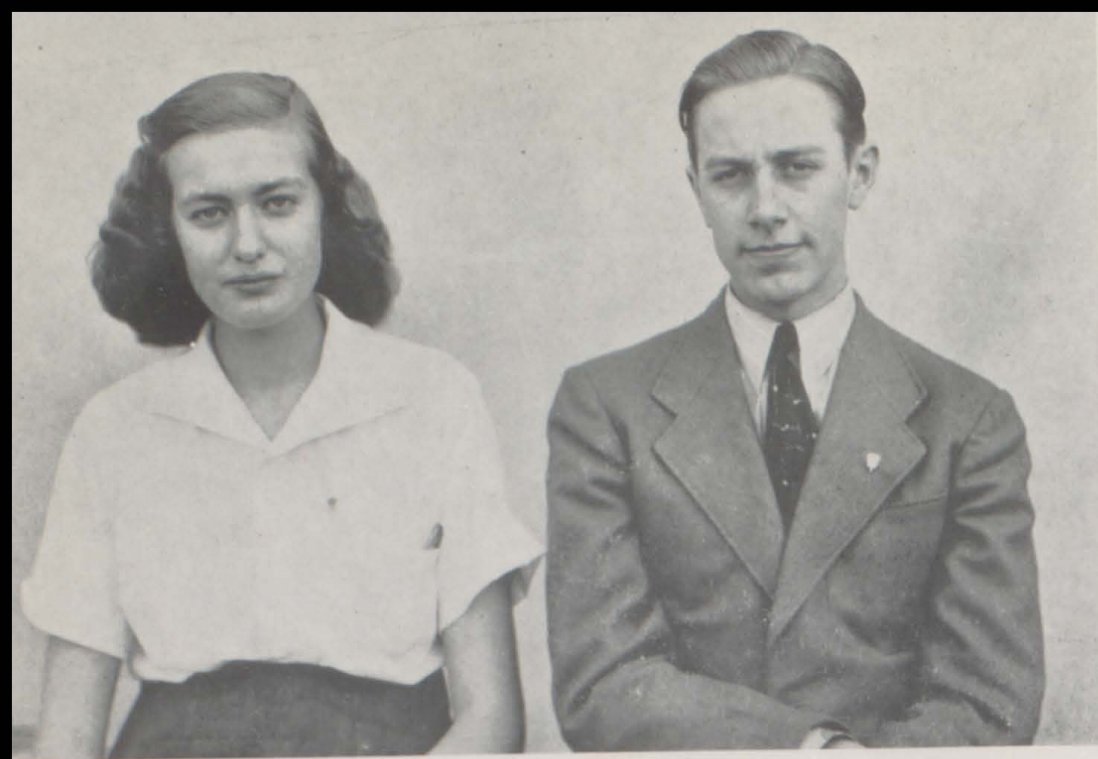

The council meets each Monday to discuss new ideas and work on the projects to be completed. One of the projects, this year, was the "Demon Handbook," which was given to the students this year.

During "Teacher's Convention," in the fall, the Student Council attends a meeting of the Student Councils of the Western Slope, at Grand Junction, where government, recreation, and entertainment for the schools are discussed.

H O N O R S O C I E T Y

Every spring, a meeting of the faculty is called for the purpose of electing members from the Senior Class to membership in the National Honor Society. This society has been formed in the High Schools throughout the United States.

The students are selected on a basis of four points: Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. To be eligible for this society, one must have attended this High School for at least two years, have credits in the field of mathematics, science, language, English, and history. Not more than fifteen per cent of the upper one-third of the class can be selected.

April 4, 1940, Virginia Reich and Bill Vickers were elected to membership in this society, the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a Senior. Dick Leonardi, student body President, presented them with their pins. Mr Igo read the oath which they repeated. The oath is as follows:

"I pledge myself to uphold the high purposes of this society to which I have been elected, striving in every way by word and by deed to make its ideals the ideals of my school."

B A N D

Oom-pah-pah, oom-pah-pah. There goes the tuba accompanied by the blare of the cornets and the squall of trombones. The High School band goes to town. Those flashy red uniforms with the snappy red caps and with white visors; ah, and look at those charming twirlers, stepping in unison with the twirling of their batons. The Maestro speaks to the high stepping, lovely drum Major and the band is called to a halt. Hark! Would you listen to that snappy March! The whole town listens and sways with the beat!

The band practiced three mornings a week. Early in the Spring, after school and before 8:00 in the morning, they marched. In April they participated in the State Band Tournament in Grand Junction and brought home a grand award of a II rating in playing at the Concert and a II rating in sight-reading and a I rating in marching. In May, they participated in the National Regional, which was held in Grand Junction.

O R C H E S T R A

Come on and hear, come on and hear, the G. C. H. S. orchestra! You'll never regret it when you hear those Gypsy violins speaking of dark-eyed, rosy cheeked, gypsy girls; the romantic waltzes telling of moonlight on the rippling waters; the Gondolas and Venetian gondoliers singing love songs by the light of the silvery moon.

The orchestra practised two mornings each week from 8 A. M. to 9 A. M. They competed in the Western Slope Music Tournament in April at Grand Junction where they received a rating of II.

The orchestra, supervised by Mr. Brockway, has assisted at many school affairs. During the year they presented a joint concert with the Glee Club in April, and played at the Senior Class Play, the Junior Class Play and Commencement and Baccalaureate exercises.

DECLAMATION TEAM

The County Oratorical Contest, was held at the Junior High Auditorium, March 30, 1940. Carbondale, New Castle, Silt, Rifle and Grand Valley sent representatives. Stephen Donegan placed second, Maxine Tisdale, second, and Enid Hawkins placed first in their respective divisions.

On March 20, 1940, at G. C. H. S. an elimination contest was held to select the people who would represent the High School in the Garfield County Oratorical Contest on March 30, 1940.

Those participating in the orations were: Bill Vickers, Warren Gardner, Harry Lee Smith and Stephen Donegan. Stephen was selected from this group. The Dramatic readings were given by Maxine Tisdale, Irva Sly and Mary Beth Latson. From this group Maxine was selected. Enid Hawkins, the only entry for the humorous reading, represented Glenwood at the contest.

The Western Slope Music Contest was held at Glenwood, March 28. Glenwood was represented by a string quintet, clarinet quartet, trombone quartet, cornet quartet, girls' sextette and girls' trio, in addition to various vocal and instrumental solo entries.

First division awards were made to the string quartet, clarinet quartet, and the girls' sextette; in the second division, awards were made to the girls' trio, Patsy Guadnola and Shannon Gallagher, piano solos, Patsy Guadnola, vocal solo, Louise MacTavish, twirling, Norman Schultz, clarinet, Dolores Schauster, cornet, Shattuc Jones, trombone; third division awards were made to the trombone quartet, and the cornet quartet. Mr. Brockway and Miss McCullah supervised the G. C. H. S. students.

May 9-11, the Glee Club, sextette, string quartet, clarinet quartet and Band participated in The National Music Tournament held in Grand Junction. In this contest the Glee Club made a rating I as did the clarinet quartet. The band a rating II in marching, while the sextette and string quartet each made rating III.

G. C. H. S. can well be proud of her showing in music for the past year.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and development. It begins with the first settlers who came to the continent in search of a better life. They found a land of vast opportunities, but also of challenges. The early years were marked by conflict and struggle, but the spirit of freedom and democracy prevailed. The American Revolution was a turning point in the nation's history, leading to the birth of a new republic. The years following the Revolution were a period of rapid expansion and growth. The United States emerged as a major power on the world stage. The Civil War was a defining moment in the nation's history, leading to the abolition of slavery and the strengthening of the Union. The late 19th and early 20th centuries were a period of industrialization and progress. The United States became a world leader in science, technology, and industry. The 20th century has been a period of great change and challenge. The United States has played a leading role in the world, promoting democracy and freedom. The future of the United States is bright and full of promise.

COMMERCIAL CLUB LUNCHEON

The Commercial Club held a Luncheon-meeting at Leullen's Cupboard on Monday, March 18 during the noon hour, with Miss Boyd as hostess. The guest, Miss Cannon, Supervisor of Child's Welfare work, spoke about her wide field of work. Those attending the luncheon were: Beverly and Maxine Tisdale, Patsy Guadnola, Bessie Young, Eulalia Mock, Nellie Lyons, Frieda Hammerich, Betty Doose Wyatt, Helen Wickman, Lucille Phillips and Miss Boyd.

HARD TIME DANCE

The last of the Mothers' Club Dances was held Saturday, April 6 at the Garfield County High School.

The couples came dressed in rags and tags, and calico patches.

About 20 couples attended. Music was furnished by a nickelodeon recently purchased by the Mothers' Club.

NICKELODEON DANCES

A social hour was spent in dancing in the G. C. H. S. Auditorium April 2. The music was furnished by the nickelodeon. Admission was 5 cents per person. This money was used to help pay for the nickelodeon. 25 couples were present.

The last dance of the year was held in the G. C. H. S. Auditorium on May 3. Music was furnished by the nickelodeon.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

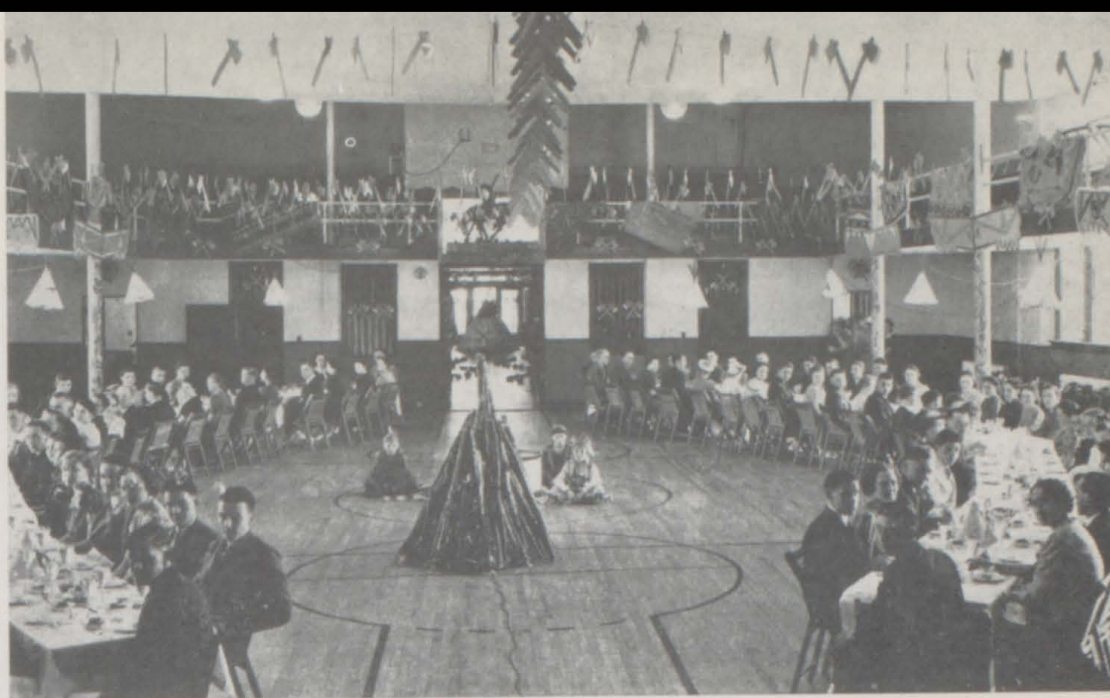

A majestic grand march, led by Henry Bosco and Marcella Keegan, opened this second formal dance of the year.

The theme of the prom was American Indian. Tomahawks, totem poles, tents and rugs were in profusion around the gymnasium.

Dance programs were in the form of Indian Chiefs.

Reeves four-piece orchestra furnished the music for dancing.

JUNIOR-SENIOR LUNCHEON

This annual Junior-Senior affair was one of the lovely social occasions of the school year.

Juniors, Seniors, Board Members and Faculty were guests.

A big, artificial bon-fire was made in the auditorium and many other Indian decorations were hung. The Junior Mothers served the dinner.

A welcome to the Senior Class was given by Henry Bosco, President of the Junior Class. The welcome was returned by Austin Heuschkel, President of the Senior Class.

The program was as follows:

Solo		"Indian Love Call"
	Patsy Guadnola
Solo		"Wishing"
	Miss McCullah
Specialty		"Indian Dance"
	Six Grade School Children
Quintet		"Three Little Fishes"
	Jimmy Keegan, Eddie Horan, Billy Crutcher, Morris Buckmaster, and Gerald Buckles

MASQUERADE DANCE

This dance, given November 3, was the second Mothers' Club dance of the year. Music was furnished by an orchestra composed of members of the High School Band and Orchestra. There were many interesting and original costumes and the judges had a hard time picking the winners. Prizes were awarded to Patty Lumsden, Leonard Rule, Helen von Rosenberg, Ojay Worrell, Marcella Keegan, Bobby Gallagher, Mara Jo Hunn, and Bill Weaver.

SKIRT AND SWEATER DANCE

On September 7th, the Mother's Club held an informal dance with skirts and sweaters for theme.

The Freshman grand march opened the dance. Music was furnished by the Reeves Orchestra. Everyone who attended enjoyed himself. Refreshments were served by the Freshman mothers.

LEAP YEAR DANCE

On January 20, the Fair Damsels escorted their Dashing Young Heroes to a leap year dance held at the Garfield County High School.

The girls, acting as "perfect" little Gentlemen", helped the boys put on and take off their overcoats, galoshes, opened doors for them, paid the way, traded dances and did all the little acts of kindnesses the boys usually do. Or do they?

After the dance, the girls took the boys downtown to treat them and then escorted them home.

Reeves Orchestra furnished the music for the dance.

CARNIVAL DANCE

To the tune of "Scatterbrain," the couples of G. C. H. S. swung into another Mother's Club Dance March 9, at the Garfield County High School.

Horns were given to everybody; balloons were thrown down from the balcony, and a mad scramble ensued. Much fun was had by all who attended.

Music was furnished by a Nickelodeon which the School later purchases. About 50 couples were present.

SECTIONAL EVIDENCE

CHAPTER IV. DALLAS

The first of the four cases mentioned in the title of this chapter is that of the State of Texas vs. the State of Texas, which was decided by the Supreme Court of the United States in 1846. The case arose out of a dispute between the two states over the boundary between them. The Supreme Court held that the boundary should be determined by the course of the river, and that the State of Texas was entitled to the land on the west side of the river.

The second case is that of the State of Texas vs. the State of Louisiana, which was decided by the Supreme Court of the United States in 1849. The case arose out of a dispute between the two states over the boundary between them. The Supreme Court held that the boundary should be determined by the course of the river, and that the State of Louisiana was entitled to the land on the east side of the river.

The third case is that of the State of Texas vs. the State of Arkansas, which was decided by the Supreme Court of the United States in 1850. The case arose out of a dispute between the two states over the boundary between them. The Supreme Court held that the boundary should be determined by the course of the river, and that the State of Arkansas was entitled to the land on the west side of the river.

The "G" club is an activity composed of members of the athletic organizations. The members have been awarded letters for their display of school spirit and fine sportsmanship in the different fields of sports. Wayne Burdge, Jack Tidwell, and James Belluchie have qualified for this club for three consecutive years.

Early in the year the "G" club sponsored the Frosh-Sophomore struggle as they have done for several years. In middle of April they held their annual initiation in which the new members were duly received.

The athletic organizations have promises of new and industrious members to this club and it is certain that this "G" club will continue to hold its head high in G. C. H. S. Mr. Wilbur Bolitho is the club sponsor.

RIFLE 6 GLENWOOD SPRINGS 6

In their opening grid tilt the Demons and Rifle Bears played a 6 to 6 tie. Both teams launched drives that threatened the other goal, but were able to score but once. Belluchie and Cranor stood out for the Demons.

HAYDEN 20 GLENWOOD SPRINGS 0

In the conference opener the Demons met a fast, hard charging, hard tackling team from Hayden which showed plenty of power in turning back the Demons. This Hayden team rolled over the other conference teams to win the championship.

CRAIG 20 GLENWOOD SPRINGS 0

Craig, boasting the biggest football team in the league, put down the Demons 20-0 before a large night crowd in Glenwood Springs. The forward wall of the Demons looked better than it had at any time; holding the Craig team time after time. Peters, Burdge, and the Demon ends, Dick and Leo Leonardi, played bang-up football. Watson and Tate looked good in the backfield.

MEEKER 46 GLENWOOD SPRINGS 6

An air-minded team flew into Glenwood Friday afternoon to play the Demons in a league game that night. The Cowboys threw the ball to all corners of the field and gathered them in for touchdowns. The Demons held their own with Meeker on the ground, but they could not cope with the air attack.

OAK CREEK 7 GLENWOOD SPRINGS 6

The Demons lost a heart-breaker to the Oak Creek Miners 7-6. The Demons completely dominated the play and out-gained their rivals 3 yards to 1, but they couldn't score the winning points. The entire team played heads-up ball.

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS 32 GLENWOOD SPRINGS 7

Journeying to Steamboat the Demons met a smart, alert sailor team that hog-tied the Demons 32-7. Leo Leonardi showed to advantage with his pass receiving and Burdge looked best in the Demon backfield.

FRUITA 24 GLENWOOD SPRINGS 6

In a non-conference game played in Fruita on Wednesday, October 27, the Fruita Wildcats clawed the Demons 24-6. The middle of the line played well. Gallagher, the dependable center, Broughton and Kuretich, the guards, stood out.

GYPSUM 6 GLENWOOD SPRINGS 12

The Gypsum Pirates and the Demons played on the local grounds in a Friday game which saw the Demons win 12-6. The game was of great value to the home squad, giving opportunity for 30 boys to get game experience. The Gypsum team made a very good showing.

RIFLE 0 GLENWOOD SPRINGS 0

In the traditional Armistic Day game, the Demons and Bears battled to a scoreless tie. The two teams were evenly matched, both threatened to score on several occasions. The contest was full of thrills, and bitterly fought from whistle to whistle. Every Demon man played good hard football and their tackling was a feature of the game.

PALISADE 13 GLENWOOD SPRINGS 0

In the final game of the year, the Palisade Bulldogs turned back the Demons 13-0. It was the last game for the following letter-men: Belluchie "C", Weaver, Burdge, Peters, Dick Leonardi, Thome, Watson, and Deckrow.

Tony Kuretich, 2. Sophomore Guard (150 lbs.)

Tony's ability to get into the opposing team's backfield was outstanding as was his stubborn resistance to interference. He will be welcomed back for two more years.

Dick Leonardi, 3, 4. Senior End (165 lbs.)

Playing his first year on the main string, Dick showed remarkable ability for getting into the game and fighting for every inch. Although not a flashy player he could be depended on for a strong steady game. He will be missed in the line-up for 1940.

Leland Watson, 4. Senior Wing Back (155 lbs.)

This was Lee's first year of football. His kicking and tackling will be missed next year.

Morgan Thome, 3, 4. Senior Guard (145 lbs.)

Playing his first year on the main string Morgan showed up well and could always be found in the thick of every play. He will be missed next year.

Leo Leonardi, 3. Junior End (120 lbs.)

Leo has been called G. C. H. S. diminutive end; he is rather stickyfingered when it comes to snagging passes out of the air. Turning in an All-American performance this season, he will be welcomed back next year.

Clarence Oberly, 2. Sophomore Blocking Back (165 lbs.)

Clarence was out for his first year and from all appearances, he will probably make the main squad when he comes back to school next year.

Merle Broughton, 2, 3. Junior Guard (145 lbs.)

Although Merle hurt his elbow late in the season he had always been in the thickest end of the fight. He will be an asset to the 1940 squad.

This sophomore boy was out for his first year and will be welcomed back next year.

James Belluchie, 2, 3, 4. Senior Tail Back (145 lbs.)

James has been outstanding during his three years at G. C. H. S. He was a strong defense man and will be greatly missed in the next year squad. At the end of the season he was elected Honorary Captain.

Chester Stull, 2. Sophomore Tail Back (140 lbs.)

Playing his first year of football, Chester displayed remarkable ability at running and throwing long passes. You'll probably see him on the main string next year.

Bob Gallagher, 2, 3. Junior Center (165 lbs.)

Bob's ball snapping and tackling this season was outstanding. He helped the Demons out of many a tight place. He will be back next year.

Jack Tate, 1, 2. Sophomore Blocking Back (155 lbs.)

Jack could always be found in the thick of the fray. His spectacular blocking paved the way for many long runs. He will be welcomed back for two more years.

Bill Peters, 3, 4. Senior Tackle(175 lbs.)

Bill was one of the chief cogs in Glenwood's wheel of football. His ability to break up plays will long be remembered. His absence will be hard to fill.

Wayne Burdge, 1, 2, 3, 4. Senior Tackle (190 lbs.)

Wayne's huge mass of brawn stopped many hard opponent's plays. He did always fight and was usually the chief worry of the opposing team. His blocking is a thing of history and will be greatly missed next year.

Ranlett Deckrow, 3, 4. Senior Guard (185 lbs.)

Ranlett's job was to make holes for the backfield-a difficult job which he executed well. We are sorry to loose him next year.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS 21, 38—NEW CASTLE 14, 25.

As a warm-up for the regular league season, the Demons played four games, playing a two game series with New Castle, winning both games 21 — 14 and 38 — 25. L. Leonardi connected for 24 points in the second game.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS 33, 48—GYPSUM 11, 28.

The Red and White cagers played two games with the Gypsum Pirates, winning both games 33 — 11 and 48 — 28. These being practice games, both schools used many men to get a line on material for the league campaign.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS 21, 15—PALISADE 19, 33.

The Demons opened their league schedule with a 21 — 19 victory over the Bulldogs at Palisade. Both teams played typical early-season ball. The Demons used but six men and out-fought a larger Palisade team. Tidwell's work on the back-boards was very effective.

A month later, in Glenwood, a much improved Bulldog team beat back the Demons 33 — 19. Harmon, forward for Palisade, led the scorers with 24 tallies. The Demons shots would not fall.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS 6, 15—GRAND JUNCTION 50, 40.

The Demons traveled to the Junction on January 5 to take a shellacing from the Tigers 50 — 6 in an uninteresting and lopsided game. The Tigers showed a well balanced team going on through the season undefeated, winning the championship of Western Colorado.

In the game played on February 9 in Glenwood, the Demons played much better ball, the game being extremely fast and much more interesting than the score would indicate.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS 23, 26—RIFLE 21, 38.

The Demons won their second conference game, turning back the Bears 23 to 21 in a fast and spectacular game played in Glenwood. Worrell was the star of the game with 5 field goals and 2 free throws.

In the return game at Rifle, the Bears were "hot" and the Demons were "off" and the Bears took a well-earned victory 38 — 26. Harp and Jacobson stood out for Rifle. Tidwell led the scorers with 14 points, R. Leonardi played strong defensive ball for the Demons.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS 22, 26—FRUITVALE 33, 17.

The Demons split their league games with Fruitvale, losing the first game 33 — 22 and winning the second game 26 — 17. In the first game, Weaver, Tidwell, and Tare played well for the Demons.

On February 23, the second game was played in Glenwood and the Demons were "clicking" from the start leading 16 — 7 at the half. Stars were hard to distinguish as the whole team played real ball.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS 14, 34, 25—FRUITA 17, 28, 30.

The Demons and the Wildcats broke even in league games and had to play a third contest to see which team would go to the meet in Delta. The game was played on a neutral floor, in Grand Valley, and Fruitva won 30 — 25. The first quarter was fast and close, ending 8 — 8: the half found Fruitva ahead 16 — 12 and the Demons could not close the gap before the playing time ended.

De Beque Tournament March 16

Glenwood Springs 22 — Appleton 9.

Glenwood Springs 48 — Clifton 12.

Glenwood Springs 31 — Fruitvale 14.

The Demons won the annual De Beque Tournament held March 16 by defeating Appleton, Clifton, and Fruitvale. The Red and White team played steady ball throughout and climaxed their play against Fruitvale in the Championship game. Tidwell and L. Leonardi were named on the all tournament team.

Dick Leonardi, 3, 4.

Senior

Guard

The older of the Leonardi brothers played his first year on the main string. His work as guard was always consistent and dependable. His speedy floor work "got him places". He turned in a good game every time.

Jack Tidwell, 2, 3, 4.

Senior

Center

Playing his third year of basketball, Jack was outstanding in every game. His ability at clearing the backboard will be long remembered. He was selected as one of the best players at the DeBeque Tournament. He was Honorary Captain of the team.

Wayne Burdge, 3, 4.

Senior

Forward

Despite his bulk, Wayne was always in the thick of it all. He could play a guard position as well as forward.

Bill Weaver, 4.

Senior

Forward

Playing his first year at basketball, Bill showed up well every time he got into the game. His speedy floor work was well worth watching.

Jack Tate, 2. Sophomore Guard

Playing his first year on the main string, Jack proved to be a valuable man, playing a steady, dependable game. He was the only underclassman on the main team.

Ojay Worrell, 2, 3. Junior Forward

Ojay is the south-paw of the Demon team. He is an excellent man on offense. He helped the Demons out of many a tight spot. His consistent playing was a joy to the beholder.

Leo Leonardi, 2, 3. Junior Forward

Although the smallest man on the team, he was the opponents' biggest worry. He was one of the fastest men on the team, and one of the Demons best scorers. He was selected as one of the ten best players at the De Beque Tournament.

Tommy Mitchell, 3. Junior Center

Playing his first year at basketball, Tommy showed great promise. His guarding bears close watching.

Guard

Bill's superior height made him a fine guard. When the Demons were in a tight place, Bill could be depended upon to help them out.

Paul Ballard, 2.

Sophomore

Forward

Another outstanding underclassman this year was Paul, who will be welcomed back for two years. It will be remembered that Paul received Honorable Mention at the Carbondale Tournament.

Clarence Oberly, 2.

Sophomore

Guard

Clarence showed remarkable ability at the game. He will be back for two more years.

Robert Schneider, 2.

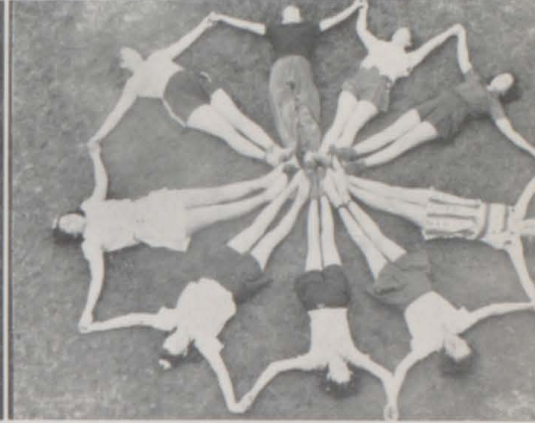

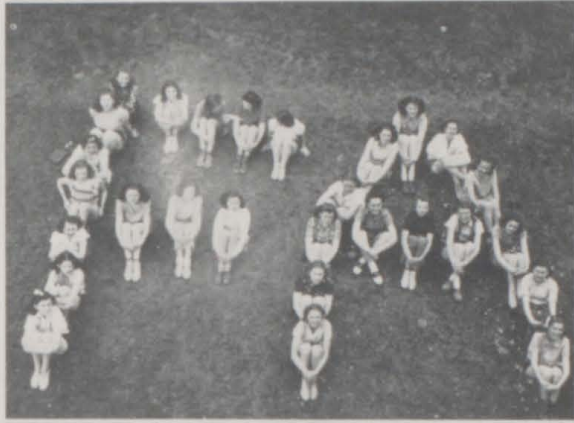

Sophomore

Forward

Bud is the outstanding prospect uncovered this year. His guarding ability will be something big during the next two years.

J O K E S

In behalf of the chemistry class of 1940 we wish to take this opportunity to express our gratitude and admiration to that noble professor of the Science department. We hereby dedicate this poem to Mr. Walter V. Sharp.

I have a Chemistry teacher,
I shall not pass
He maketh me
To show my ignorance
Before the whole class
He giveth me more than
I can learn
He lowerth my grades
Yea, tho I walk
Thru the valley of knowledge
I do not learn.
He annointeth my head with problems
My eyes runneth over
Surely atoms and molecules shall follow
me
All the days of my life
And I shall dwell in chemisty Lab. forever.

Miss Peterreins says it's, "54-40 or fight"

Bill Weaver insisits it's "75-70 or flunk!"

Miss Boyd: "Now, Bill, spell needle."

Bill Hammerich: "N-e-i-d-l-e."

Miss Body: "Wrong there is no "i" in needle."

Bill Hammerich: "Well, tain't a good needle then."

Betty Jo: Do you know how to catch a rabbit?
Jack M.: No.

Betty Jo: Go behind a bush and make a noise like a carrot.

Shattuc in Publicity Club, wonders which form should be used: "It ain't him, or it ain't e."
For his benefit it ain't either.

Jack Tidwell was asked to write a brief account of a baseball game. After five minutes of deep thought. (if you can believe it) he wrote: "Rain, no game."

Helen von: "How many times have you failed your chemistry quizz?"

Marcella. "Tomorrow will make the 4th time."

Ojay: "Do you want me to tell you what the score of the game will be before it starts?"

Leo: "Yeah what will it be?"

Ojay: "Nothing to nothing before it starts."

Dick L., Captain of football team, to Wendell O.

"Would you like to join our football club?"

Wendell, "Well, really, I don't know anything about the game. I couldn't do anything except referee."

It happened at the Armistice Day football game, Morris B. came up to coach Bolitho.

"The referee for today's game is at the gate with two friends. Shall I pass them in?" inquired Morris.

"A referee with TWO friends", gasped Skip when he could get his breath, "Show them in."

Merle B. (Golfer) "The traps on this course are very annoying."

Lea P. (Trying to putt) "Yes, Will you please close yours"

"I don't mind," said Professor Igo, "If I see a student fidget toward the end of the hour. I don't mind seeing him take out his watch and look at it. But, when he takes out his watch, stares at it, puts it to his ear, and then shakes it—it gets me down."

John Guild; "Electricity is within the reach of all."

Bob Keating: "Perhaps you haven't tried finding the switch in the dark."

In asserably the other day the following conversation was heard.

Henry Bosco: "You're so thin you look like you have been thru a famine."

Bessie Heberling: "Oh Yeah? Well, you look to me like the guy that caused it."

Boy Scout Gene Coulter (distractedly)

I've told you to keep away from here, Cub. Now see what you've done—knocked down the cook book and lost the page and I haven't any idea what I am cooking."

Miss Hunt, "Now, class describe a gum drop."

Mary Beth Latson, "A marshmallow in technicolor.

Smart Sayings by Bright People:

Ray L.: Steuben is one of those witty guys. You know, half witty.

Jack Tate: I feel like a million dollars that's already been spent.

Bill V: Geneology is tracing your family tree back to the nuts.

Must be a picnic! Most of them are Sophomores.

Miss Peterreins at work. Peace-Ray Light must be absent.

Freshmen initiation. They put on a pretty good show.

There's Merle and Marian again. You wouldn't think Lea even knew him.

This was taken away-back-when Barnett Kalston, Joe Boyce, Ranlett Deckrow, Kathryn and Helen Von Rosenberg.

Girls Gym, Maxine Duffy looks very determined.

Ojay Worrell-Romeo of Romeo's and the lamp-post.

Alpha and Norman smiling for a candid shot.

Clarence Oberly and Playmates--figure for yourself.

It must be the clocks of 41 away-way back.

Doris Neil and Henry Bosco. Quite a man, that Henry.

Anna Maude, again, this is positively the last time.

Must be a football game, but why not keep your eyes on the game?

The All-American Girl, Lea Parkison

Student Body President and Helen, taken unawares!

Helen looks as if some one is going to get snowballed.

"Come with me in my little Birch Canoe" so the song goes, but where would one sit with Abe and Morris taking all the room?

The Gentleman in white is LaVern Tweedy.

Jack Mangnall without the dark eyes.

Lord Fountleroy and girl friend. That's right--Jerry Igo and Ruth Sly.

Patty and Iola at Aspen.

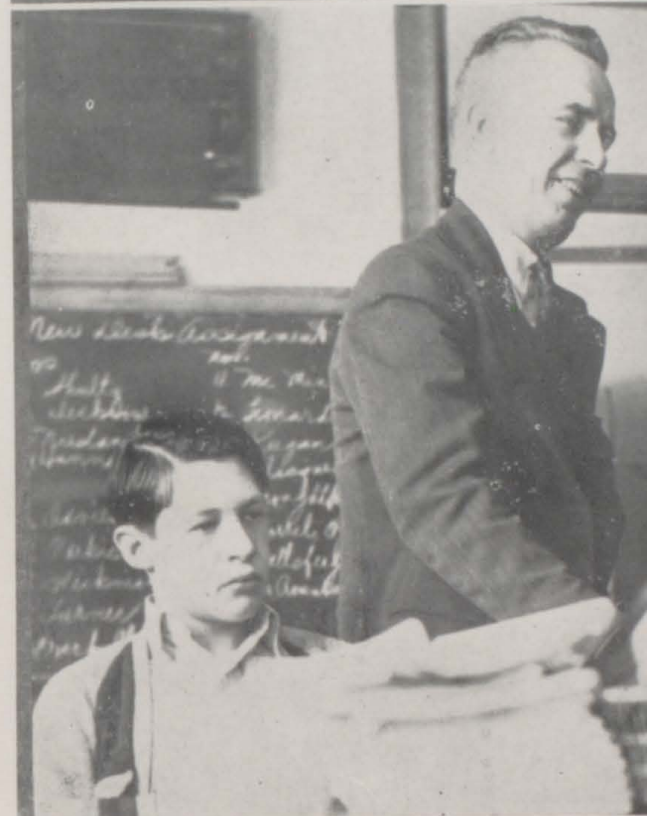

From one extreme to the other. Don looks down in the dumps and Mr. Sharp seems very happy.

Ruth Pretti: A-No.-1 Basketball player.

Iola and Warren at the Masquerade.

Ruth Sly--cute little trick.

Leo Leonardi and trophy that the Demons won at DeBeque.

G C. H. S. Demons vs. Gypsum.

Never was a subject like Chemistry. Such pictures bring back many headaches.

Freshman Day. Left to right in front row. Bob Hubbard, Leonard Rule, Warren Gardner, Jimmy Mangnall led by Enid Hawkins.

That's Charles Benson with the Demon on his coat.

Did you ever see Bosco without his hat?

Adele looks all tuckered out.

Mouse seems good and happy over the whole thing.

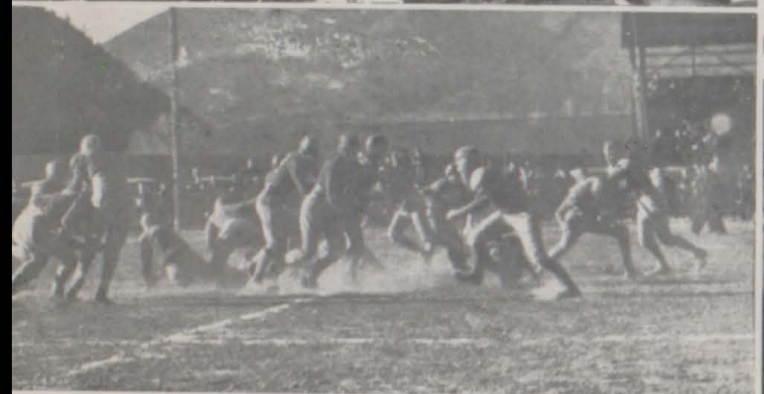

The Industrious Publicity Club.

No wonder the photographer chose Kathryn Von for a subject. Wouldn't you?

Same game or another one?
