We of G. C. H. S. have become war-conscious this year, realizing the cause our United Nations are fighting for. We love the freedom and the unending opportunities afforded us. And so, as A-1 patrons of these Liberties, we of the Yampah staff, have composed this year's annual to echo the theme of our Armed Forces. We hope that when our country has become victorious, you may recollect the fight for that Victory as you thumb through the pages of your '43 YAMPAH.

Yours for Victory,

The Editors

Mr. John G. Phillips

Mr. C. F. Kimminou

Mr. Harry Crutchfield

The task of the five members of the school board in these strenuous days of world chaos has been far from easy. Our school is especially fortunate in these trying times to have as its guiding spirit, people of understanding and intelligence, who realize that the school is the very core and hope of the present complicated civilization. The greatest confidence is felt in their ability to direct successfully the affairs of G. C. H. S.

Class Poems

We've climbed the steps of knowledge
 Slowly, one by one
 We think we've come a long way
 But we've really just begun.

It's goodbye to dear old school days,
 Farewell to dear old chums
 It's been grand, this road to knowledge
 It's been grand, and so much fun!

With heavy hearts, our paths must part,
 Each leads down a different lane
 Our chins are up, our courage high
 Our only goal—"Success and Fame."

No one knows what the future holds
 Happiness, tears, poverty, wealth
 But our memories of high school will always remain
 Treasures more precious than fame or wealth.

—Dot Cowles

Each with a goal, a career in mind,
 We began our high school in September '39.
 It's been a joyful trek to the twelfth from the eighth.
 With Old Mother Learning we've kept our faith.
 Never, never, for one small moment did we forget
 That knowledge came first, that standards must be met.

Now, four years always to be cherished
 In loving memory, after all else has perished.
 The tingle, the thrill, the pulsating hearts!
 Striving ever anon to improve our charts!
 Football, basketball, dances and excitement,
 Class plays and concerts, but always enlightenment.

We say goodbye, now that we are done,
 One step we've taken, one victory we've won.
 Friends we must leave, ties we must sever,
 But, Oh God, "onward, upward, now and forever!"

—Mabel Keener

Now we bid our high school days goodbye
 With a sad heart and a tearful eye,
 Happy memories of days gone by
 Thoughts of pranks played on the sly.

We weren't the dullest students in school,
 We tried—at times—to live up to rules.
 Some were studious and ambitious
 Others studied so's not to be conspicuous.

We read the sign on your books
 "Open all nite—I never close,"
 We know it was put there just for looks
 If it fooled the teacher, goodness knows!

Our high school days are over
 Sad thoughts of leaving school
 Rush in where happy memories hover,
 To blot out all thought of any rule.

All that is left is happy memories
 Of our school days filled with joys
 So it's farewell to high school days
 From the Senior girls and boys.

Once In A Lifetime

Laurie	Dorothy Cowles
Jeff Ross, filling station proprietor	Jerry Igo
Emily, his wife	Afton Dunsdon
Konrad, their adopted son	Warren Gardner
Stella, the Ross lazy maid	Marion Crutcher
Halsted Dinsmore, novelist	Harry Lee Smith
Rodney, the town character	Robert Hubbard
The Daya	Iola May Wood
The Daro	Vernon Phillips
Zara, their oldest daughter	Marjorie Mae Meadows
Katinka, another daughter	Catherine Cole
Carmena, another daughter	Lela Schleicher
Stan, Zara's sweetheart	Leonard Rule
Gypises	Senior Girls

The play, Once In A Lifetime, was based on a plot concerning Centuria, the sunken city, which supposedly reappears every hundred years. Konrad, Ross's adopted son who is part gypsy, has a dream in which many gypsies appear to him. He falls in love with Zara, who is scheming to take his money. Then Centuria sinks, with all the gypsies, and Konrad finds that his money is returned by Stella, Ross's maid. She had found it in the possession of Rodney, a moronic character. Somehow, disillusioned by it all, Konrad finally finds strength and comfort, and, with Laurie, goes hand in hand down the trail.

Reunion In 1953

Scene: Pool and bath house. Hubbard, Gardner, Igo, Smithy, sing.

Springtime is lovely in Glenwood, and the nicest part of it is that the old gang always gathers around the pool.

Gardner: Remember when the Navy had the pool and we couldn't gather here?

Hubbard: Yeah, but those Navy fellows sure did a good job back in the forties!

Smithy: Will we ever grow up to a time when springtime doesn't mean a swim in the pool?

Gardner: It was ten years ago, gang, that we had class night. I wonder how many will remember this reunion we planned.

Igo: They won't remember that. (Enter Wood, Crutcher)

Marion: Who says we won't remember it?

Wood: I bet your coming here was just accidental! (Enter Ted Schlecher, Chappell Ruggero, and Lela Schleicher.)

Ruggero: I picked up all the gang as I crossed the bridge. Here they are! Didn't I, hear you boys sing? That's what reminded me that this was reunion night.

Wood: Well, sing, we couldn't shut you up in forty-three

Chappell: Where's your accordion Lela? You, play and then we'll sing (Lela plays)

Ted: Well fellows I guess its us now!

Smithy: You all know that new song that just came out, Time Goes By.

Jerry: We don't know that modern stuff, we're business men. The only one I know is I Love Coffee I Love Tea (Boys sing; enter Leonard, Cole, Donegan)

Anna Mae: Is this an impromptu program? I brought Catherine.

Cole: I can play

Gang: Well play then—what are you waiting for? (Iola starts to dance. Smithy joins her and they dance; boys leave; Schutte enters)

Schutte: Am I late? Gosh, I tried to make it on time.

Wood: On time? You were never on time in your life.

Schutte: But I had to bring my drum!

Donegan: Well, as long as you've got your drum, give with some noise.

Crutcher: What have all you been doing for the last ten years? I joined the WAVES, but the WAVES didn't agree with me. (Enter Lumsden, Gallagher)

Shannon: You joined the WAVES, well I married a WAVE.

Pat: I did, too.

Lela: United you stand—Divided you fall! (Enter Keener, Terrell)

Terrell: WAVES, WAACS, I Married a Sailor, why I run the Navy.

Keener: Oh Virginia, that's putting it a little strong, although you did do a good job in the U. S. O. (Enter Pretty, Meadows)

Both: Has the bell rung yet?

Ruggero: Oh, Miss Peterreins isn't taking roll today.

Pretty: Well, Marjorie Mae wasn't dressed when I stopped for her. And she wasn't ready today, either.

Marjorie Mae: Do we have to get an excuse from Mr. Igo?

Pretty: Probably yellow, too. (Enter Downing, Baumli, Hubbard)

Senior Class

Downing: The gang's here—at least part of them. We just came down Lookout. We heard a bunch of boys singing! Where are they?

Schutte: Did you call THAT singing?

Marjorie Mae: Come on gang, we'll show them some REAL singing.

Girls sing one song, and then Duplice stands out and says, "Oh, but we know a better song than that, let's sing it for them. (They sing, Enter Jarvis, LaForce, Man Brock, Cook, Petrocco)

LaForce: Who is master of ceremonies?

Mann: How about you Walt? You could handle them from Sophomores to Seniors.

LaForce struts, then, Where is our class poem? (Baumli reads her poem. Crowd approves.)

Keener: I wrote a poem, too, want to hear it?

Brock: I suppose we'll have to let her read her poem. I guess we can endure another one. Keener reads her poem.)

LaForce: Now that's what I call a good poem. Wonder if Miss Schiefelbein would think so?

Cook: I overheard two of our songsters practicing a specialty for tonight. Shall I call them? (Steps to the door and yells for Marion and Smithy)

LaForce: Now don't tell me you've become vocalists? (They sing; enter Robison, Phillips.)

Jarvis: The Frying Pan arrives to fry.

Robison: We just couldn't come, fishing was so good.

Phillips: It will take a lot of fish if we're going to have fish fry tonight.

Jarvis: Now if you'd told me I'd have brought some real fish from Red Stone

Robison: Do you mean to tell me they actually have fish at Red Stone?

LaForce: Let's not celebrate by having an argument, what we need is music. Iola, why don't you and Ted play a duet on your cornets?

Wood: O K. Come on, Ted. (They play duet)

Lila: Oh, I just found our class history.

Crowd: Well, read it. (Lila reads Class History.)

Petrocco: Let's give 15 big RAH'S for Glenwood High. (Enter Dunsdon Rule)

Dunsdon: That sounds like one of our Rallys we used to have at good old G. C. H. S.

Rule claps hands, and Dunsdon turns to him and says: You didn't think they were yelling for the football team, did you?

Rule: Weren't you? This has been a wonderful evening, but like all wonderful evenings, it must come to an end.

Carpenter: But not until we sing our class song!

Cowles: And don't forget "Farewell to Thee." (They sing)

Did you see the fifty-nine Frosh entering G. C. H. S. September 3, 1940? At the end of that first week, they became triumphantly a part of it all by defeating the Sophomores in the annual Freshman-Sophomore Struggle.

They presented the Christmas assembly, "The Coming of the Fourth Wise Man," with complete success.

The officers chosen for that year were: Fred Addington, President; Clara Hines, Vice-President; Bill Jackson, Secretary; Mary Ellen Randall, Treasurer; Charles Jackson, Student Council Representative; Fran Deckrow, Student Council Treasurer.

When these students were Sophomores, they again won the Freshman-Sophomore Struggle.

La Rita Cramp, Nova Cowdin and Helen Comrie brought high honors to the class with their places on the Scholastic Team.

Sophomore officers were: Herbert Osburn, President; Paul Simillion, Vice-President; Jean Hampton, Secretary-Treasurer; Fran Deckrow, Student Council Member.

This year, as Juniors, everyone has worked exceptionally hard in making the Prom and Banquet more successful than ever.

The scholastic team was made up of Helen Comrie, La Rita Cramp, Nova Cowdin, Mary Rita Thome, and Lois Johnson.

Because, in one more year these Juniors will be graduating Seniors, they intend to make next year the biggest and best

On the morning of September 8, 1941, a group of students, Freshmen in name, sixty-seven in number, was admitted into the Garfield County High School student body.

It was not long before the students of the upper classes knew these newcomers were present and ready for business or anything else that came their way. Although this was true, even the Frosh admitted that one glance at the upper class men made them shudder.

Alas! Poor Freshmen; their opponents proved to be superior in the Frosh-Soph struggle, defeating them, however, by only one point.

After their defeat the Frosh were entertained at the annual Skirt and Sweater Dance sponsored by the G Club.

During the first year, the Freshman class won its share of honors. LaVerne Buckles and Harriette Clark represented the class on the Scholastic Team and Bonnie Lenke on the Music Team.

The Freshmen chose the following officers: Robert Baillie, President; Conway Clarke, Vice-President; Leta Huntley, Secretary-Treasurer; Verna Lee Weaver, Student Council Member and LaVerne Buckles was chosen for Treasurer of the Student Council.

On September 8, 1942, this class re-entered G. C. H. S. for a second time with the grand and glorious feeling of looking down on the Frosh.

This class, now forty-seven in number, found mighty opponents in the green Frosh in the Frosh-Soph struggle which ended in a tie.

That night they again they attended the Skirt and Sweater Dance.

LaVerne Buckles, Leta Huntley and Ruth Renflee represented the class on the Scholastic Team, and Conway Clarke on the Music Team.

Officers chosen this year were Ted Lough, President; Delia Jantzen, Vice-President; Leta Huntley, Secretary-Treasurer; Virginia Lee Wood, Sophomore Representative, and LaVerne Buckles, Secretary of the Student Council.

Frosh-Soph Struggle

It was Friday, September 11— a calm, peaceful autumn day. At one o'clock the quietness of the afternoon was broken by the beating of a drum; and in marched the Freshmen in all their glory!

It was difficult to recognize the throng as Our Little Frosh. The boys were made up as beautiful blushing maids, while the girls lost their identity and charm in the role of vagabonds.

On they came, amid the wild cheering and laughter of the upper classmen. Then they demonstrated some of their talents in a short program held in the assembly.

Later in the afternoon, everyone met on the football field, where the annual Struggle took place.

In the sack rush, saddle carry, and football race, the Sophs were victorious. The Frosh won both boys' and girls' tug-o-war as well as the second sack rush.

The cane rush was such a mad scramble that the judges could not tell to whom to give the point, so a compromise was made, each team was given one half a point, making the total score three and one-half points each.

So ended another Frosh-Soph Day, with everyone tired but happy.

The skirt-sweater dance in the High School Gym was a final gesture to make full-fledged members of these happy, carefree Freshmen.

On September 7, 1942, fifty-two green Freshmen opened their first year of high school with High Expectations and Big Plans for the future.

The first activity of the class was Initiation. On the day appointed, the boys blossomed forth clad in dresses, and the girls wore boys' clothes. A short time later, the Freshmen evened the score with the Sophomores by tying in events in the class struggle. They greatly enjoyed their first high school dance that evening which the G-Club sponsored.

Numerous Freshmen entered into the musical activities of G. C. H. S. The band had nine Freshmen members in it, the orchestra, four, and the Glee Club had eleven girls enrolled.

During the first semester, two Freshmen, Betty Cowles and Keith Zerbe, honored the Honor Roll. In the second semester, another Freshman, Allen Bowles, joined this rank.

During the Yuletide Season the Freshmen gave a play, The Chimes Ring In, truly appropriate for the occasion. It was directed by their class sponsor, Miss Pursell.

Betty Cowles and Keith Zerbe were selected to represent their class in the scholastic contest.

To guide them through their trying year, the class chose Betty Cowles, as president; Billy Hubel, vice-president; Pat Weaver, secretary; Allen Bowles, treasurer. As council members they chose Bunn Bigum, as treasurer for the student council, and Jimmy Croll as their class representative.

The editorial work in this Yampah comes to you through the courtesy of the Publicity Club, whose brain-children are the Yampah and We, The Students, an edition that appears weekly in The Glenwood Post. Every person in the club has a chance to be Editor of We, The Students, since the position rotates from member to member each month. Yampah assignments are handed out by the sponsor, Miss Schiefelbein.

A covered-dish supper was held in January, each member inviting a guest; at this party, the Ouija-Board was consulted, and gave the girls many amusing but useful journalistic bits of information.

The members, all of whom are girls this year, are;

Mary Carpenter
Frances Deckrow
Shannon Gallagher
Leta Huntley

This club, made up of those students interested in acting, was capably supervised by Miss Pursell. Under her direction, the club studied one-act plays and then presented several in assembly programs. A play, Jerry Breaks a Date, was thoroughly enjoyed by the student body.

In addition to preparing plays, the club studied pantomimes, interpretation of readings, and declamations. They also learned interesting facts about present-day stars of the screen and stage.

Aside from the work in club periods, the members enjoyed a number of parties during their club period.

The Girls' Athletic Club, this year supervised by Miss Teeter, provided a healthful recreation outlet for its members, striving toward the promotion of physical welfare for girls.

Again this year, the members are working for letters by a point system which enables all those who achieve two-hundred points to receive letters. Last year four girls, Marjorie Downing, Grace Greear, Afton Dunsdon, and Helen Pappas were awarded letters. These letters may be attained by active participation in the following sports: tennis, volley ball, basketball, soft ball, track, badminton and tumbling, with extra individual sports including hiking, skiing, skating, and swimming.

The club proved very popular and enjoyed a large membership.

This club is made up of students desiring to learn photography. To remain in the club, a student must make twenty merit points a month. He is able to acquire these points by taking pictures, developing, printing, enlarging, tinting, and making equipment for the use of the club.

There is a contest each month to teach the pupils how many different topics can be acquired from the same general topic.

The club has the duty of taking pictures of athletic events and the Masquerade dance for The Yampah. This year they took pictures of the Junior and Senior Class plays and assisted in taking the Junior-Senior Luncheon and Prom as well as shots of the physical education classes. Their contribution to The Yampah is of inestimable value. The club roll is:

This club, sponsored by Mrs. Hartshorn-Eastlack, is organized for the purpose of teaching sewing to the girls who are unable to take home economics courses during the year. The girls have worked on various projects such as making tea towels, dresses, and embroidery work. This patriotic group organized the Stamp and Bond Drive at Glenwood High School. Other clubs assisted with the sale, and later, the Student Council took over the project. The club members collected and sent old silk and nylon stockings to the defense centers.

The members have a point-chart system; a student must have earned 75 points each semester; they are earned by the students doing work connected with the club, such as selling pencils, war stamps, sewing projects, serving on committees, and holding club offices.

On November 13, the girls sponsored a Tea to which they invited their mothers, the faculty members and wives. About 30 guests attended. A Valentine Party was given in February. In April, a food demonstration, which proved to be of much current interest, under the supervision of Miss Margaret Hunter, County Home Demonstration Agent, was held at the school.

The National Honor Society

To be eligible to membership in The National Honor Society, a student must be in the upper third of the Senior class, no more than fifteen per cent of the class may be selected; the student shall have attended this High School for the last two years; he shall have eleven credits in the fields of mathematics, science, languages, history, and English.

The personnel of the High School faculty selects these students, and bases its decision on these qualifications: scholarship, leadership, service to the school, and character.

On March 24, 1943, Mr. Moorhead, Superintendent of Schools, announced the Lucky Six, and administered the oath, at the same time presenting them with a pin, which made them bona fide members of The National Honor Society. The membership for the year 1943 includes: Warren Gardner, Lela Schleicher, Jerry Igo, Leonard Rule, Mary Elizabeth Shutte, and Lila Leonardi.

Student Council

Back Row: Croll, Gardner, Terrell, Buckles, Bigum
Front Row: Schutte, Abshire, Igo, V. Wood

The purpose of the Student Council is to assist in keeping law and order and to provide a form of student government.

This year the members inaugurated the idea of a letter containing the events and happenings of the school, dutifully collected by the various members. These were mimeographed and sent to the boys in the armed forces.

All the council members attended the Western Slope Conference at Grand Junction in the fall, and reported their observations to the student body at an assembly meeting.

Selected members, with Mr. Igo's assistance, decorated the tree for the holiday season at Christmas time.

Activities of the Council are: to arrange assembly programs; to keep the library in order; to keep the magazine and paper rack well arranged; to sell National Assembly tickets. At noon order is kept by monitors of the council. The group took an active part in the air raid drill, seeing that all the rooms and upstairs halls were empty.

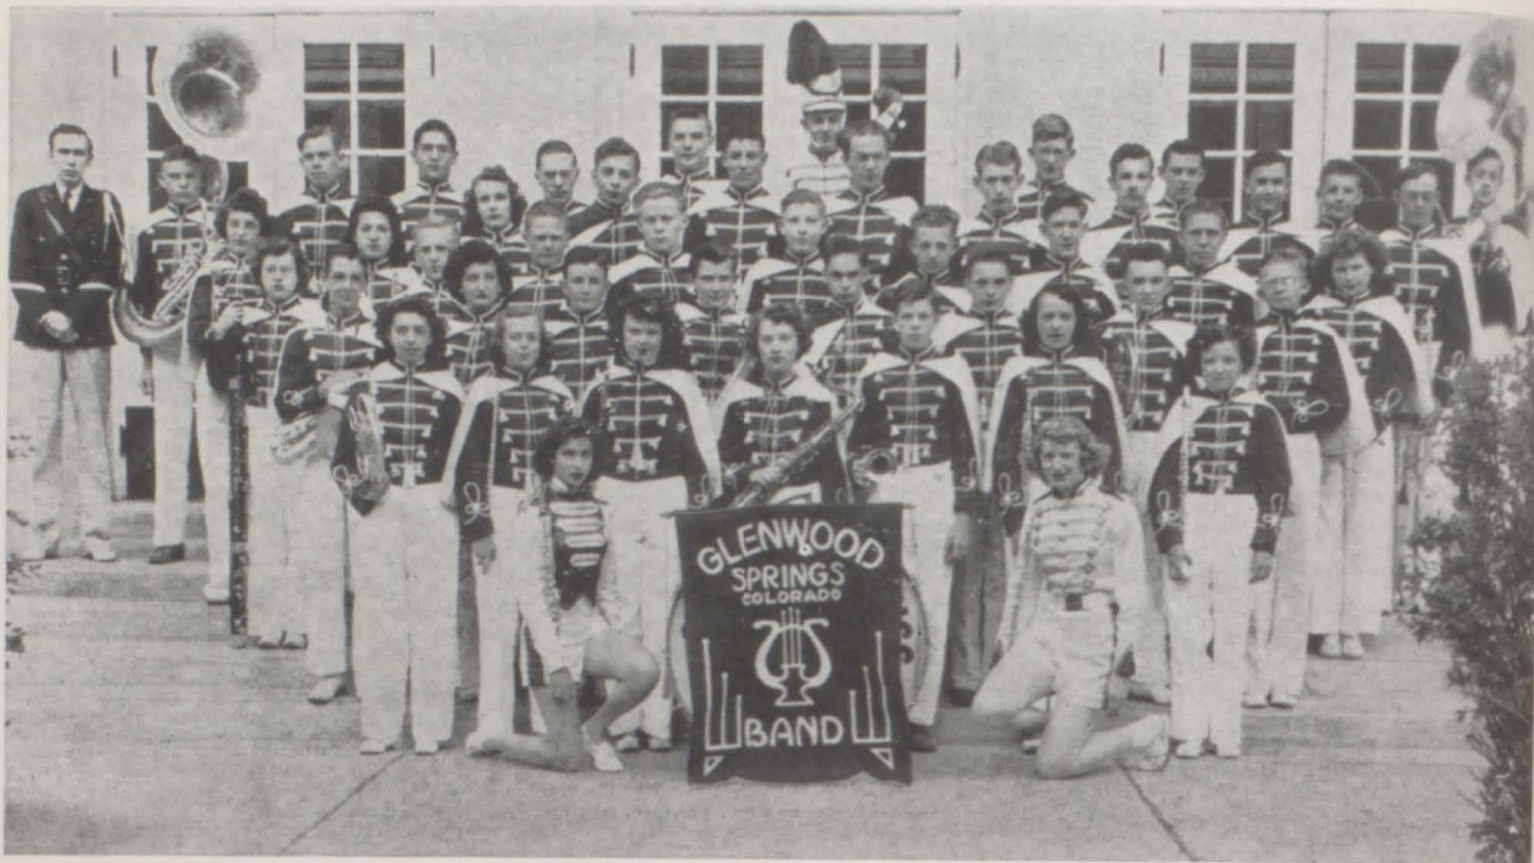

Members are: President, Warren Gardner; Vice-president, James Abshire; Secretary, La Verne Buckles; Treasurer, Mary Elizabeth Schutte; Junior representative, Hal Terrell; Sophomore representative, Virginia Wood; Freshman representative, Jimmy Croll.

The first four officers are elected by the entire student body, the latter, by the respective classes.

Band

On Saturday, May 1, a gala Music Festival was held in Glenwood Springs, instead of the annual contest sponsored by the Western Slope. No ratings were given this year, as the regular features of Band Tournaments were missing. Mr. Raymond Hunt, of Denver, presided as Critic Judge. In connection with band and orchestra numbers, solos made up part of the day's program. Meeker, Minturn, Red Cliff, Rifle, and Glenwood Springs were represented.

Grade school solos started the program at 10:00 A. M., followed by high school solos. Beginning at 2:00 P. M. and lasting throughout the afternoon, the solos were finished. In the evening, the Glenwood glee club, trio, and sextette sang; the Rifle and Red Cliff bands played, as did the Glenwood orchestra. The program was completed by the Glenwood band playing The Star Spangled Banner, directed by Mr. Raymond Hunt.

Six students of the Garfield County High School played or sang solos for the Music Festival, which took place May 1. The soloists were: Catherine Cole, bassoon; Lois Harold, French horn; Jean Hampton, flute; Conway Clarke, cornet. These four soloists were under the direction of Mr. Brockway. Juanita Donegan and Catherine Dawson sang vocal solos and were under the direction of Miss Teeter.

The Girls Trio and Sextette performed at the Festival. The members of the trio include Helen Pappas, Marjorie Mae Meadows and Barbara Brock. The sextette is composed of the trio and Emogene Ellis, Catherine Dawson and Marthanne Quinlan. The Girls Glee Club sang at the Festival. These groups were directed by Miss Teeter and accompanied by Shannon Gallagher.

Junior-Senior Prom

The Junior Promenade, the big social event of the year, was held on May 23, 1942 at the Junior High School. The decorations carried out a local theme. Upon entering the hall leading to the auditorium, one passed a miniature bath house and pool. There was water in the pool, sand for the beach and even tiny, brightly colored tents and umbrellas. On each of the eight pillars there was a huge eight-foot figure of a cowboy, two swimmers, a fisherman, a golfer, a skier, a tennis player, and a hiker. The ceiling was a mass of stars, and among them shone a half-moon. The stage was turned into Maroon Lake where a couple of deer were grazing.

The clever dance programs were cowboy-boots in black and white, with space left for autographs. The Grand March was led by Shannon Gallagher and Leonard Rule. Music was furnished by the Kenneth Hutching's five-piece orchestra. Many alumni attended the prom. Miss O'Brien was Junior class sponsor.

Junior Senior-Lunch

This beautiful annual affair took place at the Junior High Building on Saturday, May 23, 1942. It ranked among the loveliest affairs of the season. The Juniors had as guests the Seniors, the Faculty and their wives, and also the Board of Directors and their wives. The same decorations were used for this as for the Prom.

The menu consisted of ham, potato boats, carrots, asparagus, salad, hot rolls, coffee, milk, and cake a-la-mode.

Grace was said by Mr. Latson; Leonard Rule, who presided as toastmaster, welcomed the Seniors; Gene Coulter gave the response. For entertainment, Helen Pappas sang a vocal solo. Calvin Chappel, a grade school lad, showed his ability in handling a lariat. Iola Mae Wood did a tap dance. This was followed by a tune from Jim Jarvis' bass viol. The Girls Trio then sang several musical selections. Several impromptu numbers, by guests, proved entertaining. The program was concluded by some popular piano pieces played by Dorothy Cowles.

The Sophomore girls served the delicious meal to the Juniors and their guests as is the custom; they were dressed in sports attire.

Skirt and Sweater Dance

All the "vacation weary" young things jived into the gym of the Hi-School, as a climax to the first week of school, to take part in the annual Skirt and Sweater Dance, lead by Shirley Berthoud and Mickey Olsen, which took place at ten o'clock. All these "green ones" looked definitely promising. Everyone was glad to see everyone and the gang; about 50 couples were present!

Masque Ball

President Ghost probably turned over in his grave when he saw the colorful turnout for the Hallowe'en Masque Ball. Every character from our beloved Uncle Sam to Ferdinand the Bull was present. The Grand March, supervised by Miss Peterreins, was held about an hour after the dance began, giving the judges a chance to decide upon whom to award the prizes. Prizes were given, for the most attractive costumes, to Alene Johnson and Billy Huber; for the funniest costumes, to Alyce McGuirk and La Verne Buckles; for the best dressed couple, Marjorie Meadows and Walter LaForce; for the most original, Emogene Ellis and Vernon Phillips; for the best disguises, Leta Huntley and Eloise Bryant. "Cupid", alias Hal Terrell, ran around all evening "shooting" his famous arrows. The crowd danced until the "witching hour" when all walked back into character for another year.

Bootball Hop

After the victorious practice game with Rifle, a nickelodean dance was held in the gym at G. C. H. S. Our Rifle neighbors, as well as the Demons, all turned out. A merry old time was had by all.

Winter Wonderland

With Santa Claus close behind them and the snow on the ground as a gift from Father Christmas, the boys and girls came dressed in their formal best for the annual Christmas Dance. The Mothers' Club sponsored the affair on December 23, 1942, and engaged Armand De Beque's orchestra for the evening. The dance programs were quickly filled and the evening will be a melody in the memory of all.

Gridiron Swing

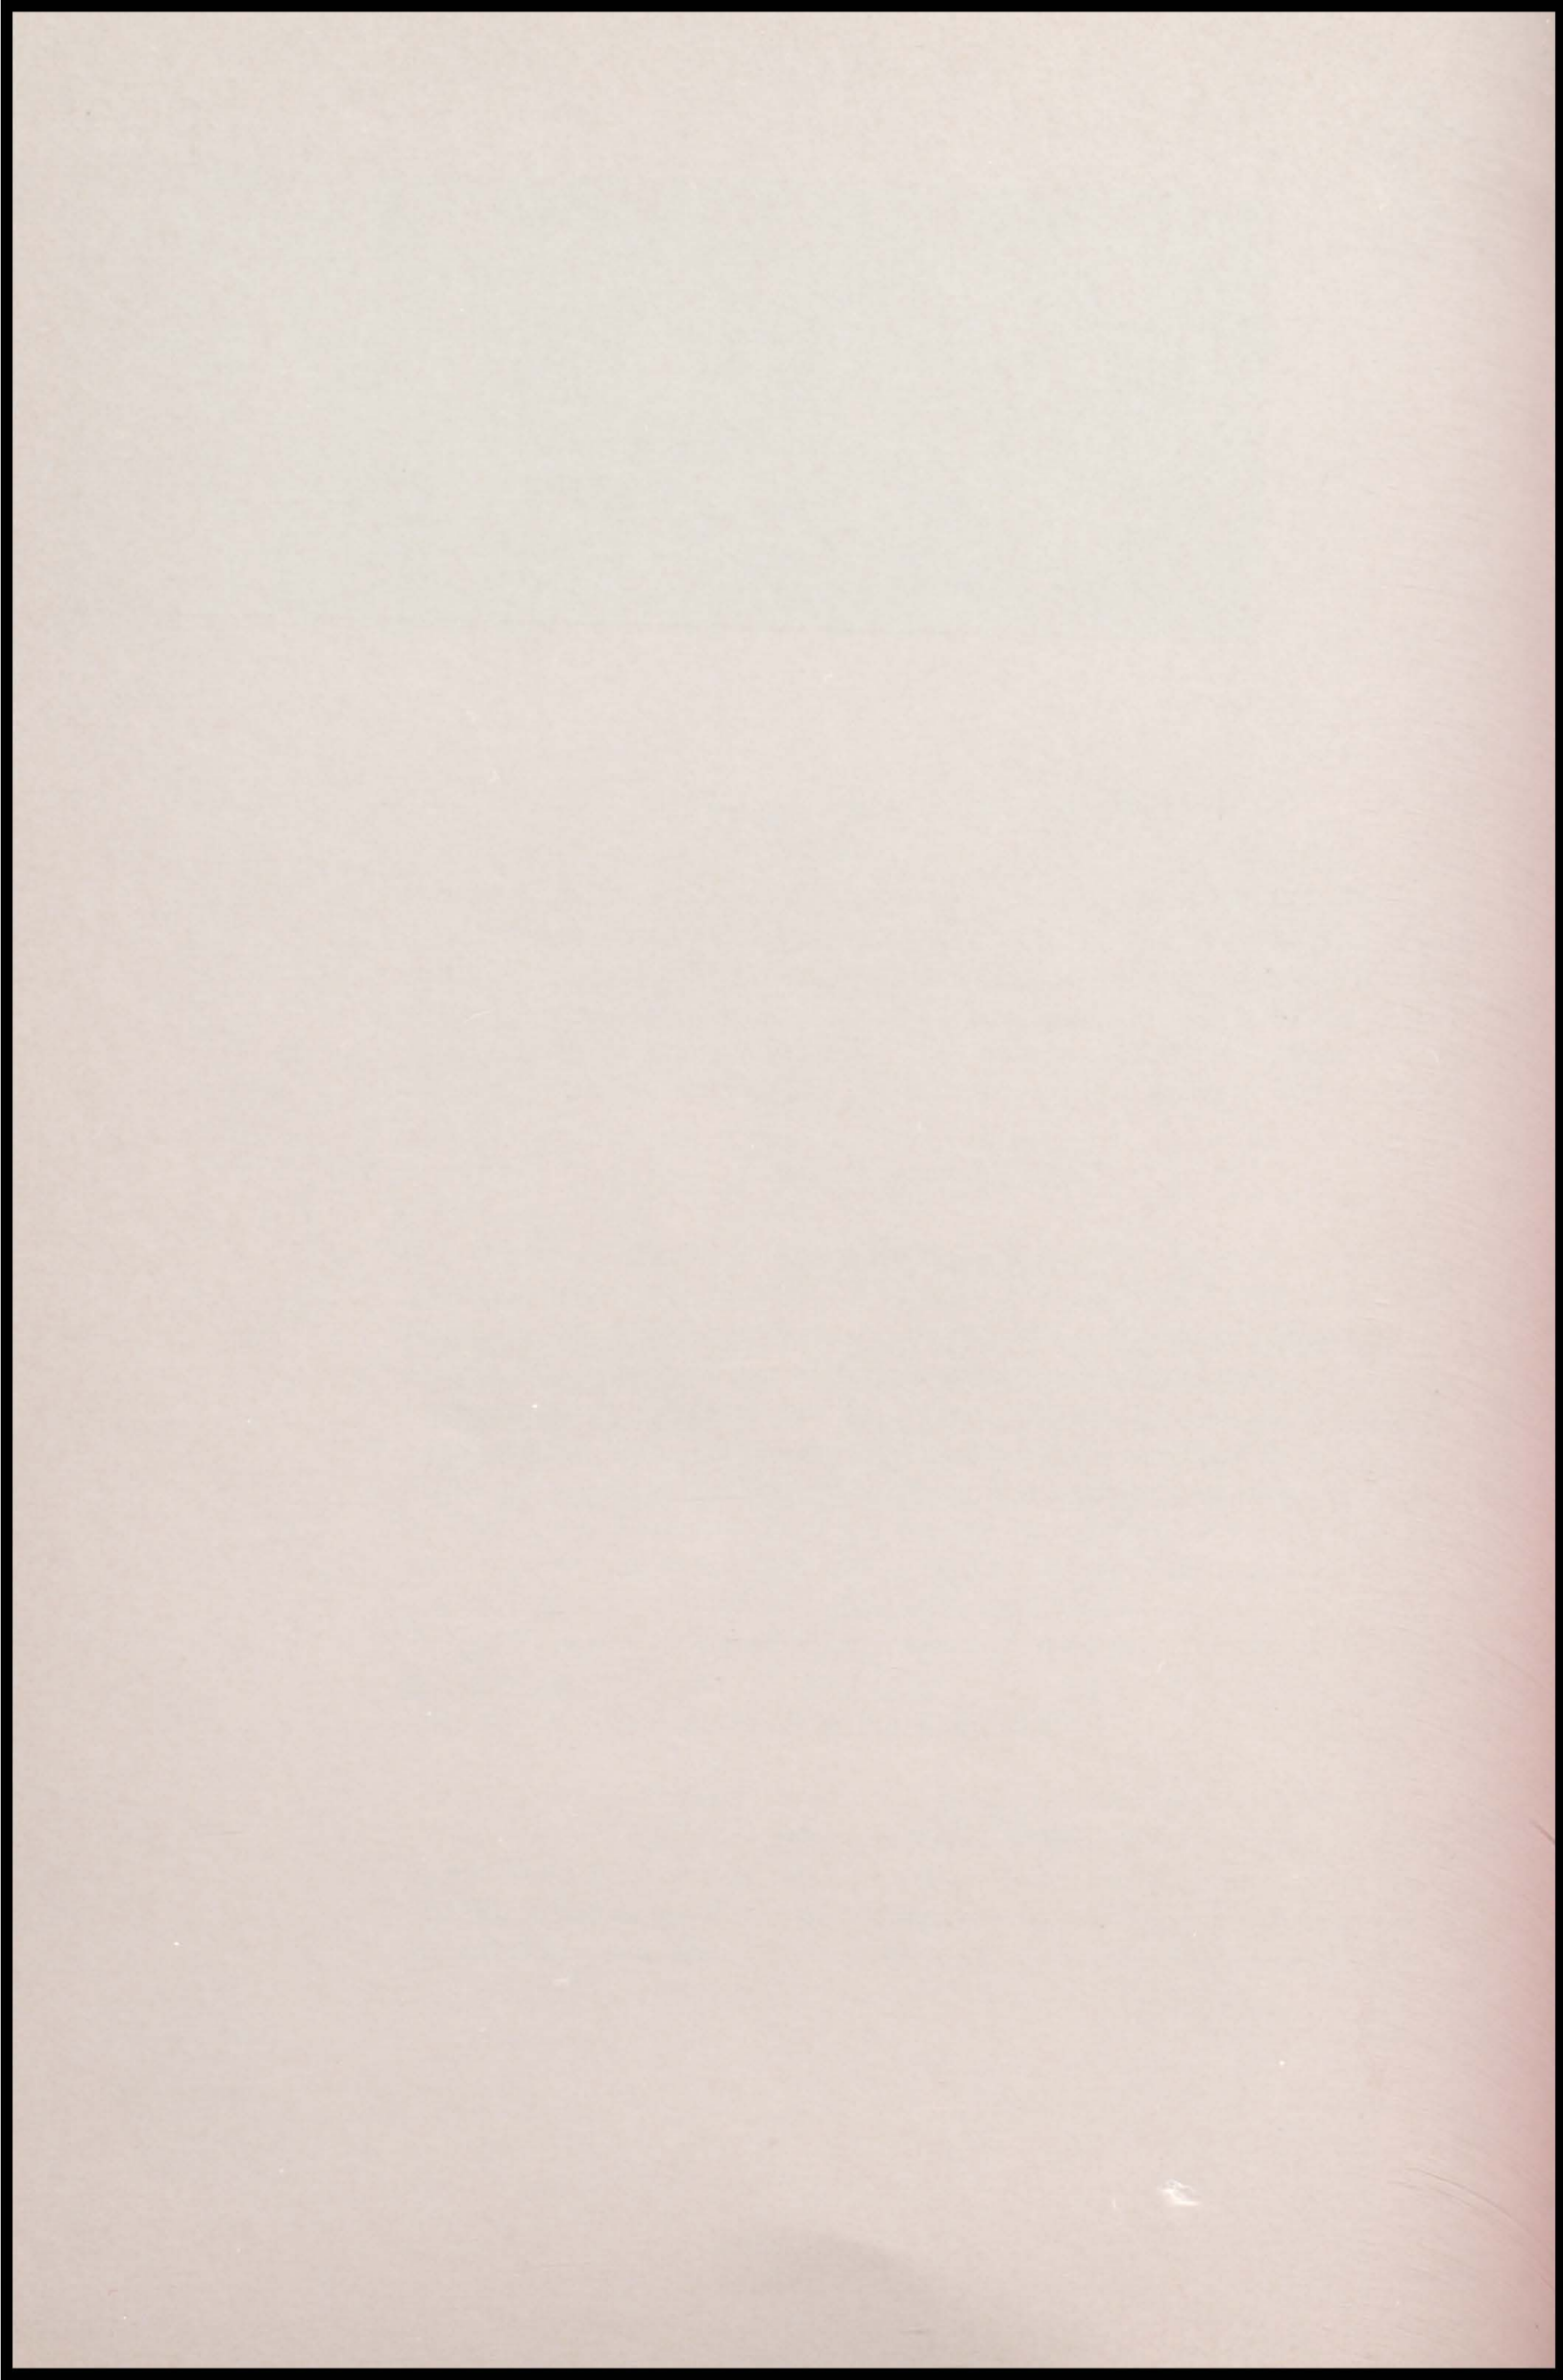

The lights went on again in the high school gym for a dance after the victorious game with Steamboat Springs. From its own little corner, the nickelodean furnished the music until the deadline at midnight. Around 20 couples and a large stag line were present. It's wonderful how a good football game can bring spirit-plus to the toes of the younger set.

Basket Dance

Hospitality was certainly not lacking in the basketball dance after the exciting game with Clifton. This evening, everyone danced with everyone and the Clifton guests seemed to be having as good a time as anyone. Admittance was a ten cent defense stamp per person. The faithful nickelodean played on until the evening reluctantly died out.

Meeker—0 Glenwood—0

In the first game of the season, the Demons played a scoreless tie with Meeker Cowboys on the latter's field. With a new coach and many new players in the line-up the Demons were handicapped not having had a practice game before starting their conference play. The Demon team played good ball and their goal was never threatened but they were unable to shove the ball over their opponent's goal. The Demons were very close to "pay dirt" once on a pass from Rovedo to Abshire, who lateraled to Terrell. "Molly" was forced out of bounds on the five yard line and there the scoring threat ended.

Craig—26 Glenwood—7

Playing on Craig's field for the first time in ten years, the Demons played the Bulldogs on even terms for the first half. Each team made a touch via a pass. Glenwood's score came on the famous Rovedo to Abshire to Terrell play. This time "Mollie" hit "pay dirt". During the second half Craig discovered the Demons weakness on pass defense and scored three touchdowns, twice on passes and once on an intercepted pass. Craig could not gain on ground plays and the Demons did not experience any trouble gaining through Craig's line but they could not cope with the Bulldogs' pass defense. In this game the Demons found that they had a pretty good fullback in Walt LaForce

Rifle—6 Glenwood—26

The Demons played a practice game with the Rifle Bears under the lights for the first home game. The whole team played good ball and their goal line was never in danger. Every member of the squad got into this game. Rifle's score came as a result of an intercepted pass, and a sensational 45 yard run.

Steamboat—6

Glenwood—13

The Demons chalked up their first conference win at home under the lights in a hard-fought game with the Steamboat Sailors. Glenwood started out with a "bang", scoring a touchdown in the first quarter with Rovedo and LaForce carrying the ball on line plunges; Rovedo converted. During the second quarter the Sailors began to get up steam and had the ball on the Demon's four yard line when the gun sounded, ending the first half. After the first half, Steamboat came back with fire in their eyes and scored a touchdown on a forward-lateral pass play that caught the Demons flat-footed. Steamboat failed to convert. The remainder of the quarter looked black for the Demons but they held on the best they could. In the last quarter, however, the Demons got to rolling again and with LaForce and Rovedo tearing off good gains with an occasional reverse by detrocco, the Demons scored. Rovedo failed to convert. With two minutes to go, the Sailors came back fast and began to throw passes in all directions. The threat was ended when Johnnie Petrocco swipeP one of their passes and the game ended with the ball in the Demon's possession.

Oak Creek—20

Glenwood—0

The Demons lost a hard-fought game to Oak Creek, on the Miners' field, by the score of 20—0. The Miners were superior to the Demons that night in every department of the game. Glenwood had several of their key men out with injuries from the week before and as a result, they had to use several freshmen in the lineup. The whole squad played good ball however and they never quit. Two of Oak Creeks scores were the result of a blocked kick on our 20 yard line and an intercepted pass on our 20-yard line.

Hayden—27

Glenwood—6

On Saturday, Nov 7th, the Demons traveled to Hayden to meet the league leading Tigers. Hayden got the jump on the Demons and scored 21 points during the first half. At the beginning of the second half, the Demons came to life and in a series of line plays, marched the length of the field for a touchdown. Hayden came right back with a touchdown of their own which ended the scoring for the remainder of the game. Hayden had a clean, hard charging team with clever open field runners and passers in their backfield. When the Demons settled down, after the disastrous first quarter, they played good defensive ball. LaForce bore the brunt of the Demon's offensive

Glenwood—14

Rifle—0

The Demons ended their 1942 football season by beating Rifle on the Bears' home field by a score of 14—0. All of the scoring was done during the first half. The work of Walt LaForce as fullback was outstanding, scoring both touchdowns on line-plunges. It was the last high school football game for Warren Gardner, Jerry Igo, Walt LaForce, John Petrocco, Vernon Phillips, and Ted Schleicher. These boys will be missed next fall, in both the backfield and in the line.

Warren Gardner (Rabbit) 3, 4 Senior Quarterback

This was Warren's second and last year of football, and he was an outstanding member of the first team. Besides being a fast player, he was not afraid to show off his stuff. The team will miss him next year. He is 5' 11", weighs 140 lbs.

Jerry Igo (Jerry) 3, 4 Senior Left Tackle

Jerry played a steady and consistent game this year and has well earned his letter. He is adaptable to every condition and proved to be a very valuable man on the team. He is 5' 10", weighs 152 pounds.

Walter La Force (Walt) 2,3,4 Senior Fullback-Tackle

Walt was certainly one of the bright spots on the Demon team. His quick openings through the lines were especially effective for gains. Walt has made three letters and was made honorary captain of the team this year. He is 6' 2" tall, weighs 185 pounds.

John Petrocco (Pur-Put) 4 Senior Wingback

Quiet and reserved, Petrocco showed steadiness and dependability during his first and only year with the Demons. A valuable man on offense, he also made tracks when it came to defensive backing-up. His weight could be easily felt. He is 5' 10", weighs 155 pounds.

Vernon Phillips (Mike) 2, 3, 4 Senior Tackle

This is Mike's third year on the Demon football squad. He was the best backer-up on the team, doing exceptional work in smearing up the other team's ground plays. He easily made his letter this season. He is 5' 10" tall, weighs 150 pounds.

Theodore Schleicher (T-Bone) 2, 3, 4 Senior Guard

A steady player and one of the best on the team, T-Bone proved to be a dependable and valuable man. Playing guard on the offense, he also showed his ability at playing tackle on the defense. He is 5' 11", weighs 165 pounds.

James Abshire (Bus) 1, 2, 3 Junior End

This was Ab's third year in football at G. C. H. S. He was always speedy and to be found in the thick of the battle, he will be a valuable man next year. He is 6' 2" tall, weighs 180 pounds.

Eddie Juhan (Ed) 2, 3 Junior Wingback

This was Eddie's second year on the squad. His speed and ability in dodging his opponents helped the team many a time. Eddie also earned his letter this year. He is 5' 6", weighs 125 pounds.

William Mc Donald (Willie) 2, 3 Junior Center

Willie's second year of football proved to be a successful one. Although he lettered as center, he was often used as a guard. His offensive blocking was always dependable and his passing improved noticeably toward the end of the season. Next year, he should be a well-seasoned and a very valuable player. He is 5' 10" tall, weighs 172 pounds.

Hal Terrell (Molly) 1, 2, 3 Junior End

Although a Junior, this was Hal's first year on the main string. He added to the team by being a good receiver and tackler. He 6' 1" tall, weighs 167 pounds.

Robert Simillion (Bob) 2, 3 Junior Guard

This earnest and faithful player showed definite athletic ability this season. Bob is a threat to the most confident of opponents. He will be fighting for a starting berth on next year's squad. He is 5' 7", weighs 130 pounds.

Football

Vernon Duffy (Duff) 1, 2 Sophomore Tackle
Although Vernon had little opportunity to do much on the main team, he is promising material for next season. He can be used both as guard or tackle; his size and weight make him a formidable opponent. He is 5' 10" tall, weighs 140 pounds.

John Gilstrap (Gilder) 2 Sophomore Guard
Lettering during his first year with the Demons was John's good luck. A tough, wiry guard he proved to be, never hesitant in tackling his opponent, no matter what his size or weight might be. John is certain to rate a starting berth on next year's team. He is 5' 8" tall, weighs 140 pounds.

Billy Huber (Chicken) 1 Freshman End
Bill played his first football this year. He was always willing and able to go in the game at any time. By the time he is a Junior he will be one of the top-notch men. He is 5' 7" tall, weighs 130 pounds.

Lawrence Leonardi (Peck) 1 Freshman Tackle
Peck showed great possibility this year. He caught on to the fundamentals of blocking and tackling very readily. He will be a great asset to the team during the next three years. He is 5' 10" tall, weighs 150 pounds.

Ted Lough (Cyclone) 2 Sophomore Tackle
Ted was a steady reserve player and lived up to his name. This was his first year out and he shows great promise for next year. He is 5' 5", weighs 130 pounds.

Keith Zerbe (All American) 1 Freshman Quarterback
Keith was one of the six freshmen boys out for football and has come a long way for his first year. Keith should be ready for a starting berth on next year's team. He is 5' 6", weighs 119 pounds.

Basketball

Due to the difficulty in travel this year, it was decided that the schools in our league, namely, Grand Junction, Fruita, Fruitvale, Palisade, Rifle, and Glenwood, wouldn't play a "round robin" schedule as usual, but would select two teams to represent the league at Delta by a single elimination tournament at Grand Junction the week before the Slope Tournament. This meant that Glenwood had to play a free lance schedule with schools located close to Glenwood. Two games were played with Carbondale, two with New Castle, one with Gypsum, and one with the Alumni, all of which were won. Three games were played with league teams, two with Rifle, which the Demons won 43—16 and 31—12, and one with Grand Junction on the Tigers' floor, which was the Demons first loss 21—28. The Clifton Zephers came to Glenwood with a fast, clean, hard-playing team for the best game of the year, the Demons losing 26—28 in an overtime period. Later the Zephers won Consolation at the Delta Tournament.

On February 26, the Demons traveled to Grand Junction for the Division I Tournament. Glenwood drew Fruita for the first game. The Bulldogs were "hot" on their long shots, dropping them in with regularity from far outside the Demons' zone defense. Fruita led at the half 19—14. During the third quarter, Fruita lost their eye for the basket, and the Demons pulled up to 23—25; but in the last quarter the Bulldogs found the range again, sinking five long baskets winning by the score of 26—36. The Demons played good, hard, fast ball during the game. Terrell rang up 12 points, Rodgers 10 points

Set and run by R. Simillion

Basketball

and Gardner 4 points. Later in the day, Fruita was eliminated by Grand Junction rather easily. Glenwood played Fruitvale that evening in the Consolation game for third place, winning the game 28—17. In this game Abshire and Terrell got 11 points each, Rodgers and Gardner 2 points each, LaForce and Mann 1 point each. Grand Junction won the tournament by defeating Rifle, 57—15.†

Although the Demons did not win their way to the Delta Tournament, it was not felt that the season was unsuccessful. Another place in the tournament bracket might have meant a trip to Delta, as Grand Junction, Fruita, Fruitvale, and Glenwood were pretty evenly matched.

Glenwood, this year, could boast three squads. The "A" squad consisting of Terrell, Rodgers, Mann and Rovedo, forwards; Abshire and Rule, centers; and LaForce, Gardner, and Igo, guards. Much credit is given to the "B" squad, consisting of Petrocco, Phillips, Bob Simillion, Hutchinson, and Bill Jackson, for the competition they gave the "A" squad during the season. Basketball for the Demons looks bright in the future in this year's freshman squad consisting of Velasquez, Squires, Hart, Croll, Huber, Sullivan, Ould, Bigum Zerbe, Leonardi, Romero, Baumli, Van Over, Gilstrap, Ballard, and Chappel.

With Terrell, Rodgers, Abshire, and Rovedo left from the "A" squad; Jackson, Hutchinson, and B. Simillion from the "B" squad and the Frosh, the prospects for a good team next year look encouraging.

James Abshire (Bus) 1, 2, 3 Junior Forward
An effective pivot man, Bus was there when it came to recovery of rebounds, both offensive and defensive; with his size, Ab was A-1 on tip-in and spin shots. He will be a valuable man on next year's team.

Warren Gardner (Rabbit) 2, 3 Senior Guard
Quick and active, Rabbit was a good guard and could stop the tallest man's shot; he could spot an opening to work in the ball, and follow through with a sure pass. His passes to Molly and Bus were the main source of most of this year's buckets. Many a score has been increased with those famous long, accurate set shots. He will be greatly missed on next year's team.

Jerry Igo (Jerry) 2, 3, 4 Senior Guard
This was Jerry's third and last year of basketball. He was a good hustler and a fine ball handler. He was quick to see what had to be done and then he did it; he was a rugged man under the basket,

Walter LaForce (Walt) 4 Senior Guard
This was Walt's first year out for basketball and he earned himself an enviable place on the team. He did exceptionally well at recovering rebounds under the opponent's basket. His height was also an asset to the team, especially in guarding set-up shots. His place will be hard to fill next year.

Basketball

Alfred Mann (Alf) 3, 4 Senior Forward
Holding a place on the first ten, Alf played interchangeably as forward and guard being unusually adept in both positions. His speed and accurate shots proved his effectiveness for these positions. He had the honor of being chosen Honorary Captain of the team this year.

Stanley Rodgers 2, 3 (Wiege) Junior Forward
Stan, although one of the lightest men on the team, made the regular string this year. His fast and clever footwork proved to be valuable to his teammates. His one-handed shots were very effective. With some added meat on his frame he will be a "weighty edition" next year.

Lawrence Rovedo (Spud) 1, 2 Sophomore Forward
Spud played in the front line of our defense, in the forward position, where he was valuable as the "key man" on the fast break towards the basket. On the slow break he and the guard brought the ball up the court. Spud was skillful in both of these maneuvers. We're glad he'll be back for two more years.

Hal Terrell 1, 2, 3 (Molly) Junior Forward
Molly was constantly in the opponent's hair with his ball rustling and his shooting. He possesses both size and speed and was the highest scoring man on the team for the season. With three years experience, Hal should be a valuable man for next year's team.

Boys Inter-Class Basketball

Much interest and enthusiasm was aroused during the early part of March when the classes of High School engaged in inter-class basketball contests. Four teams were organized and class spirits ran high.

The first game saw the Sophomores lined up against a veteran team of Seniors. The under classmen made a valiant effort but were overwhelmed by their big brothers 17-36.

The second game was another victory for an older bunch of boys. The Juniors whitewashed the Freshmen 45-19.

When the victors of games I and II met to determine the real champions, a battle royal was fought; although the Juniors won the game, the Seniors put up a good fight, losing the game by six points. The score, 37-31.

Sophomores and Freshmen mixed in game III, and a fast and furious game ensued. Third place was won by the Sophomores who trounced the Freshmen 32-21.

Girls Physical Education

Physical training is offered to the girls of Garfield County High School in various forms. Callisthenics is presented as soon as the fall term begins and is continued through the year. Routine exercises offer an excellent fundamental basis of physical culture; but for girls who like a few bruises and a lot of fun, such games as basketball, volleyball, and tumbling offer exciting activity.

When the snow and cold drive the girls inside, basketball takes the spotlight. The teams spend extra time training, and the spring intramurals attract a large number of the student body.

In fall and spring, attention is turned to softball and outdoor tumbling. Milder forms of exercise consist of archery and badminton.

Three years' participation in physical training is required but few girls of G. C. H. S. graduate with less than four years in this course.

Boys Physical Education

The boys' physical education program this year consisted of a variety of activities. The first ten or fifteen minutes of each period was taken up with calisthenics and the remainder of each period was devoted to seasonal activities. During the fall months, softball and touch football were played. During the winter season the activities engaged in were: basketball, wrestling, rope climbing, boxing, and work on the mats and on the horizontal bar. During the spring months, most of the time was devoted to softball and soccer. These classes met twice each week for a period of fifty minutes.

G. C. H. S. Gets in the Swim

In keeping with the war-time policy of teaching swimming to high school students, Glenwood Springs has really "got into the swim" by offering a course, mandatory to Juniors and Seniors, of a series of ten swimming lessons.

The Navy Department represented by Captain Hermann, the Red Cross and Captain Guild have made it possible for the school to inaugurate this up-to-the-minute program with swimming instructions given in the Yampah Pool, which ranks second to none as the biggest naturally heated, mineral water, outdoor pool in the United States.

On April 27, Captain Guild met with the Juniors and Seniors to give them initial instructions before the actual swimming lessons were to begin. May 3 saw actual swimming lessons take place with Mrs. Guild, Miss Teeter, Mrs. Eastlack, Mrs. Small, Mrs. Drake, and John Guild assisting Captain Guild at the pool. Lessons for boys and for girls were given on alternate days.

According to his plans, Captain Guild will require each student to meet certain requirements which include the passing of the Franklin Buoyancy Test, rhythmic breathing, prone float, glide, 100 yards in 2 styles, float, skull, dive and swim through burning oil, and some first aid instructions.
