Dedication

We, the Class of '49, dedicate the "Yampah" to our Coach "Nick" Stubler, not so much for his outstanding ability as an athletic director, but for his helpfulness and wise approach to all our problems,

His individual manner of teaching will long be remembered for its outer simplicity and underlying purpose. He taught us all to practice sportsmanship in our everyday lives and to think before we spoke. We could say no more of any teacher.

In Memoriam

She led an unaffected goodness as natural as breathing. Our lives were all richer for having known Barbara Newhouse.

The present school board is one of the most efficient and progressive in recent years. Their work is voluntary, for the members serve without pay. The duties of of the board include setting the broad general policies of the school in such matters as requirements for graduation, selection of teachers, and the spending of funds.

The board is also responsible for the administration of the school and has final authority on all school decisions. These members have shown both their willingness to be of public service and their interest in the youth of today.

GRADUATION '49

by Joyce Johnson

The seniors step
 With stately tread
 'Til someone whistles
 The March of the Dead.
 On the platform
 The speaker drones;
 One of the seniors
 Audibly groans.
 The future's great hope--
 All of them smile,
 And one by one
 Sit musing a while:
 'We were made for mischief,
 We're always in Dutch,

And yet it never
 Bothered us much;
 We worked on our Prom,
 We yelled ourself hoarse
 At basketball games
 --And studied, of course!
 We were taught a great deal,
 There was no doubt;
 Yet each of us learned
 By a different route.
 There was much that was funny,
 Much that was fine,
 In our problem class of '49.

Senior Class History

September 4, 1945, was an exciting day for thirty-seven hopeful freshmen. Highlighting the initiation ceremony was the fashion show given by fifteen boys in feminine attire. The day was topped off by the bitterly contested Frosh-Sophomore struggle, in which the frosh were beaten 12 to 9.

The freshmen were soon taking part in many high school activities. Eleven were enrolled in band; Ernest Donegan and Marcus Nordberg represented the class in athletics. Even though the class took part in many activities, they found time for studies and made an excellent scholastic record.

Under the direction of Mrs. Almgren, the freshmen successfully presented the annual Christmas program.

Officers for the year were Larry Drake, president; Harvey Bellm, vice-president; Kay Wilson, secretary; Joyce Barz, treasurer; Louise Halford, Student Council treasurer; Annette Heuberger, Student Council representative.

Twenty-six of the original class plus four new students enrolled for the sophomore year. Officers elected were Jack Fitzgerald, president; Harry Shetlar, vice-president; Freda Hansen, secretary; Robert Todd, treasurer. Don Vanderhoof was Student Council secretary and Joyce Barz, Council representative. Miss Margaret Egan was class sponsor.

Scholastically, the sophomores still rated high. The class was always well represented on the honor roll, and several participated in the scholastic contests. Four sophomores took part in athletics. Two of these, Marcus Nordberg and Ernest Donegan, earned letters.

The junior year proved very active and successful. The class participated in every phase of school activities and enjoyed immensely their status as upper classmen. Officers for this year were Edward Gibbs, president; Twylla Read, vice-president; Marcus Nordberg, secretary; Jack Fitzgerald, treasurer. Joyce Barz and Joyce Johnson served on the Student Council.

On April 9 the class presented a three-act comedy entitled "Moonlight For Herbert." Through the cooperation of the entire class and Mrs. Ann Guth, the play was a complete success. The annual Junior-Senior prom was presented on May 14. The theme of the prom was the Mardi Gras. Helen Noblitt was elected prom queen and Don Vanderhoof prom king. The auditorium was elaborately decorated, with simulated houses, streamers and balloons providing a carnival atmosphere. On the day following the prom, the Junior-Senior luncheon was held. The class picnic at Ashcroft climaxed the year.

In the senior year, even greater achievements were attained. The number of seniors on the honor roll exceeded that of all other classes. In athletics, eight seniors lettered, three in both basketball and football. Nine of the class were in band; several participated in the music contest and won excellent ratings.

On December 10, under the very able direction of Mrs. Rilla Rader, the seniors presented their class play, "One Mad Night." The play, a farce in three acts, was given before a capacity audience. Later in December, the "Forty-niners" sponsored the Christmas Formal.

Officers for this final year were Don Vanderhoof, president; Annette Heuberger, vice-president; Joyce Johnson, secretary; Twylla Read, treasurer. Marcus Nordberg was Student Council president and Joyce Barz, Senior representative.

Senior Stars

This section of our Yampah is devoted to six outstanding Seniors who were picked by the faculty for their dependability, friendliness, disposition, scholarship, leadership, athletic ability, co-operativeness, participation in extracurricular activities, and special talents.

Joyce Johnson

Ernest Donegan

Marjorie Bukowich

Marcus Nordberg

Sally Lamkin

Edward Gibbs

Senior Stars

Joyce Johnson, always a bundle of energy and enthusiasm, left G.C.H.S. with an outstanding record in her wake. At one time or another this active miss participated in almost every activity at G.C.H.S. She was a very able canteen chairman as well as vice-president of the Student Council her junior year. The following summer she was a delegate to Colorado Girls' State in Denver. Her genuine interest, pleasant personality, and evident ability were responsible for her being elected to represent Colorado in Washington, D.C., at Girls' Nation. Joyce was active in Publicity Club, was a member of the Yampah staff two years, and co-editor of this edition. Her Gaddy Column from We, the Students and an autobiographical sketch won first places in the state National Scholastic Writing Contest, and her poetry also placed. No matter how busy Joyce was, she could always find an extra moment to be of service to her classmates and teachers. A National Honor Society student, this Demonette star will shine wherever she goes.

Ernest "Bud" Donegan's democratic standards and baritone voice both contributed toward making his high school career more memorable. He was a remarkable leader and organizer, especially in Boys' Glee Club. His talent added greatly to the success of the operettas in which he participated. Bud was a star on the football field as well as on the stage. He was one of the few athletes who earned three football letters. During his senior year Bud patrolled the school halls during the noon hour. Few people could have done this task as tactfully and efficiently as he did. For three consecutive years Donegan took part in Solo Contests and played trombone in the band. This well-liked boy will be difficult to replace at G.C.H.S.

Senior Stars

Versatile Marcus Nordberg combined intelligence with a pleasant personality to stand out as an A-1 fellow at G.C.H.S.

That he was chosen Student Council President verifies this fact. Marcus' remarkable ability secured him a letter in basketball his sophomore year, a place on the first team as All-Western Slope Forward his junior year, and as All-Western Slope Forward on the second team his senior year. He was captain of the Demon team his senior year.

His wit and talent made both the Junior and Senior class plays more enjoyable. Still this conscientious lad found time for studies, made the Scholastic Team three years, and placed first in the state in Latin II and second in English III. As a result of this record Marcus was chosen a member of the National Honor Society. G.C.H.S. has shone a little more brightly because of this star.

A sunny disposition highlights the personality of Marjorie Bukowich. This amiable girl has been especially outstanding in the G.C.H.S. Band. This year she served as secretary-treasurer and librarian of the band and played in both the pep and dance bands. These services merited a letter for her. Marjorie added her talents to both the class plays and helped make them a success. Her sensible teamwork made her an essential member of the girls' interclass basketball team, and earned her a cup for being high point girl for the season her junior year. Her giggles and pleasant smile will not easily be forgotten at G.C.H.S.

Senior Stars

In only two years at G.C.H.S. attractive Sally Lamkin gave much service to the school. This industrious star was always eager to make life a little more enjoyable for her classmates. As chairman of the Canteen Committee, Sally greatly helped in furnishing many good times for the students at G.C.H.S. For the entertainment of others, she appeared in both class plays and the operetta her senior year. Sally is a great ski enthusiast. She enjoyed cheering others on to victory almost as well as competing as a member of the Girls' Ski Team. The students of G.C.H.S. will miss this Senior Star.

Modest Ed Gibbs was one of the steadier stars at G.C.H.S. Constant enthusiasm made most of the many undertakings that he promoted successful. He was especially active in Junior League and interclass sports during his four years at G.C.H.S. The fact that Eddy was a very congenial and dependable person might have been responsible for his being elected class president during the important junior year. He has belonged to an exceptional number of clubs; he is well-known for his hot trombone in the G.C.H.S. Dance Band. This constant star will still be shining when some of the brighter stars have grown dim.

History

The fifty-two members of the Junior Class were active this year in many phases of school life. On December 3, they gave a very successful canteen party. The G. C. H. S. Dance Band furnished the music. During the winter, to raise money the class sold red and white "Glenwood" mittens; they also sold pop at one of the home basketball games.

There were three main projects the class undertook: Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Lila Almgren, on April 2 "Ready Made Family" was presented as the class play; the very successful Junior - Senior Prom was given on May 13; and the Junior - Senior Luncheon was held on the day following the Prom.

Many individual class members were prominent in school affairs. Among them were Severen Pedersen and Edna Koenig who held two of the most important offices on the Canteen Committee, that of Chairman and Treasurer. Those members of the Junior Class who made the 1948-49 Honor Roll were Edna Koenig, Tom Igo, Eileen Thurston, and Bertie Cator.

Sophomore Class History

The versatile, talented, and ambitious Class of '51 has made a prominent place for itself in the halls of G.C.H.S.

Scholastically, the sophomores did well. Tina Almgren, Shirley Verdieck, Berta Lee Smith, and Gordon Duffy have well represented their class on the six weeks honor rolls.

In the field of music the class showed promising talent. Nineteen sophomores, the largest number represented by any class this year, went out for band. Seven of these belonged to the high school dance band. All the twirlers of the band were sophomore girls. Margaret Noblitt scored a perfect hit in the operetta and Solo Contest.

Athletics, too, have played an important part in the class history. Bill Colohan, Bill Bolitho, and George Jump earned their letters in football. In basketball both Bill Colohan and Bill Bolitho received letters; Donald Patch and Jamie Baker earned service letters.

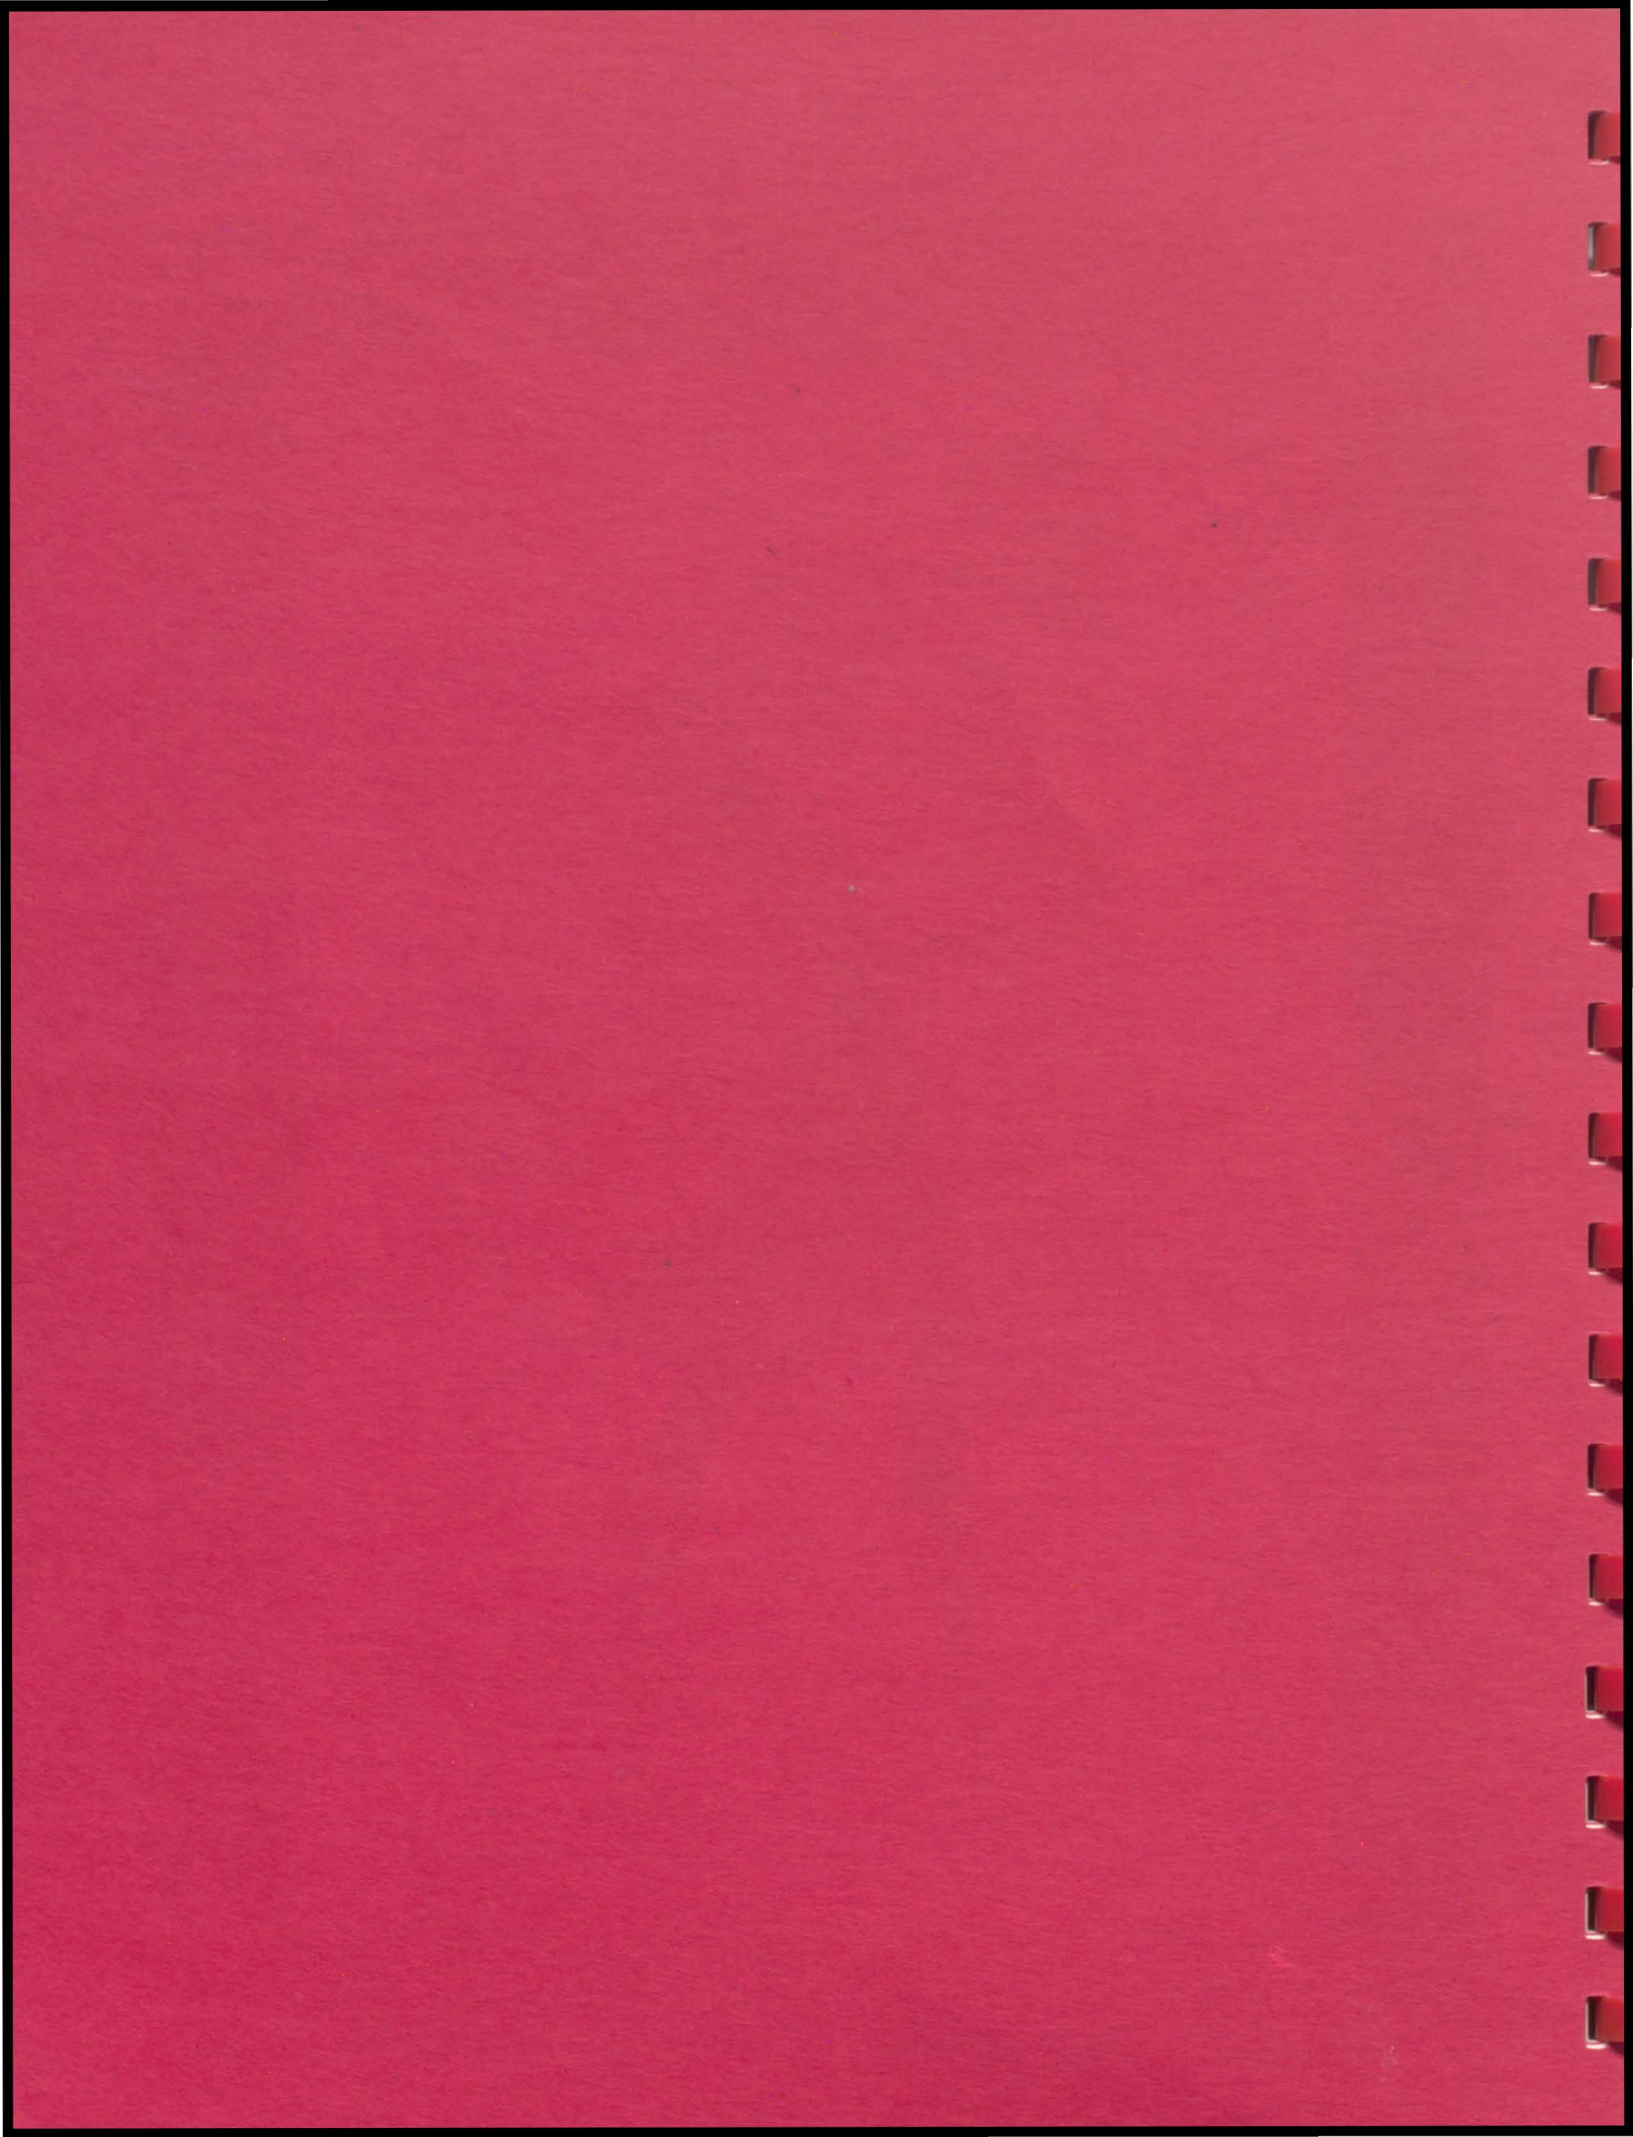

Several members of the class who are ski enthusiasts won recognition for themselves in this sport. These were Harvey Gardner, Pete Lamkin, and Joe Juhan.

Special notice should go to Jewel Hoeme, whose artistic ability was displayed in canteen posters and to Berta Lee Smith and Margaret Noblitt who designed and made cuts for the division pages of the Yampah. Berta Lee Smith served efficiently as secretary of the Canteen Committee.

In November, "Swing and Swirl the Sophomore Way", a program consisting of musical numbers and a manners skit was presented by the class in a school assembly.

Freshman Class Highlights

Fifty freshman hopefuls started their school year by winning the Frosh-Soph Struggle 5-4 after a valiant fight. That night the slightly bruised victors were led by Norman Cook and Sandra Wilmot in the Grand March at the annual Skirt and Sweater Dance.

In December, with the help of their sponsor, Mr. Baillie, the talented freshmen took part in a traditional Christmas assembly. In March they were commended for putting on one of the most successful parties of the year with music by the G.C.H.S. Dance Band.

The boys who turned out for the year's football season were Kenneth Hubbard, Dan Cretti, David Brown, Norman Cook, Victor Rosa, James Phares. Those who went out for basketball were Dan Cretti, David Brown, Norman Cook and "Little Doc" Nutting.

A number of freshman were ski enthusiasts, as evidenced by their participation in meets. James Phares, La Beth Summers, Dona Lough, and Nadra Benedeck all won places.

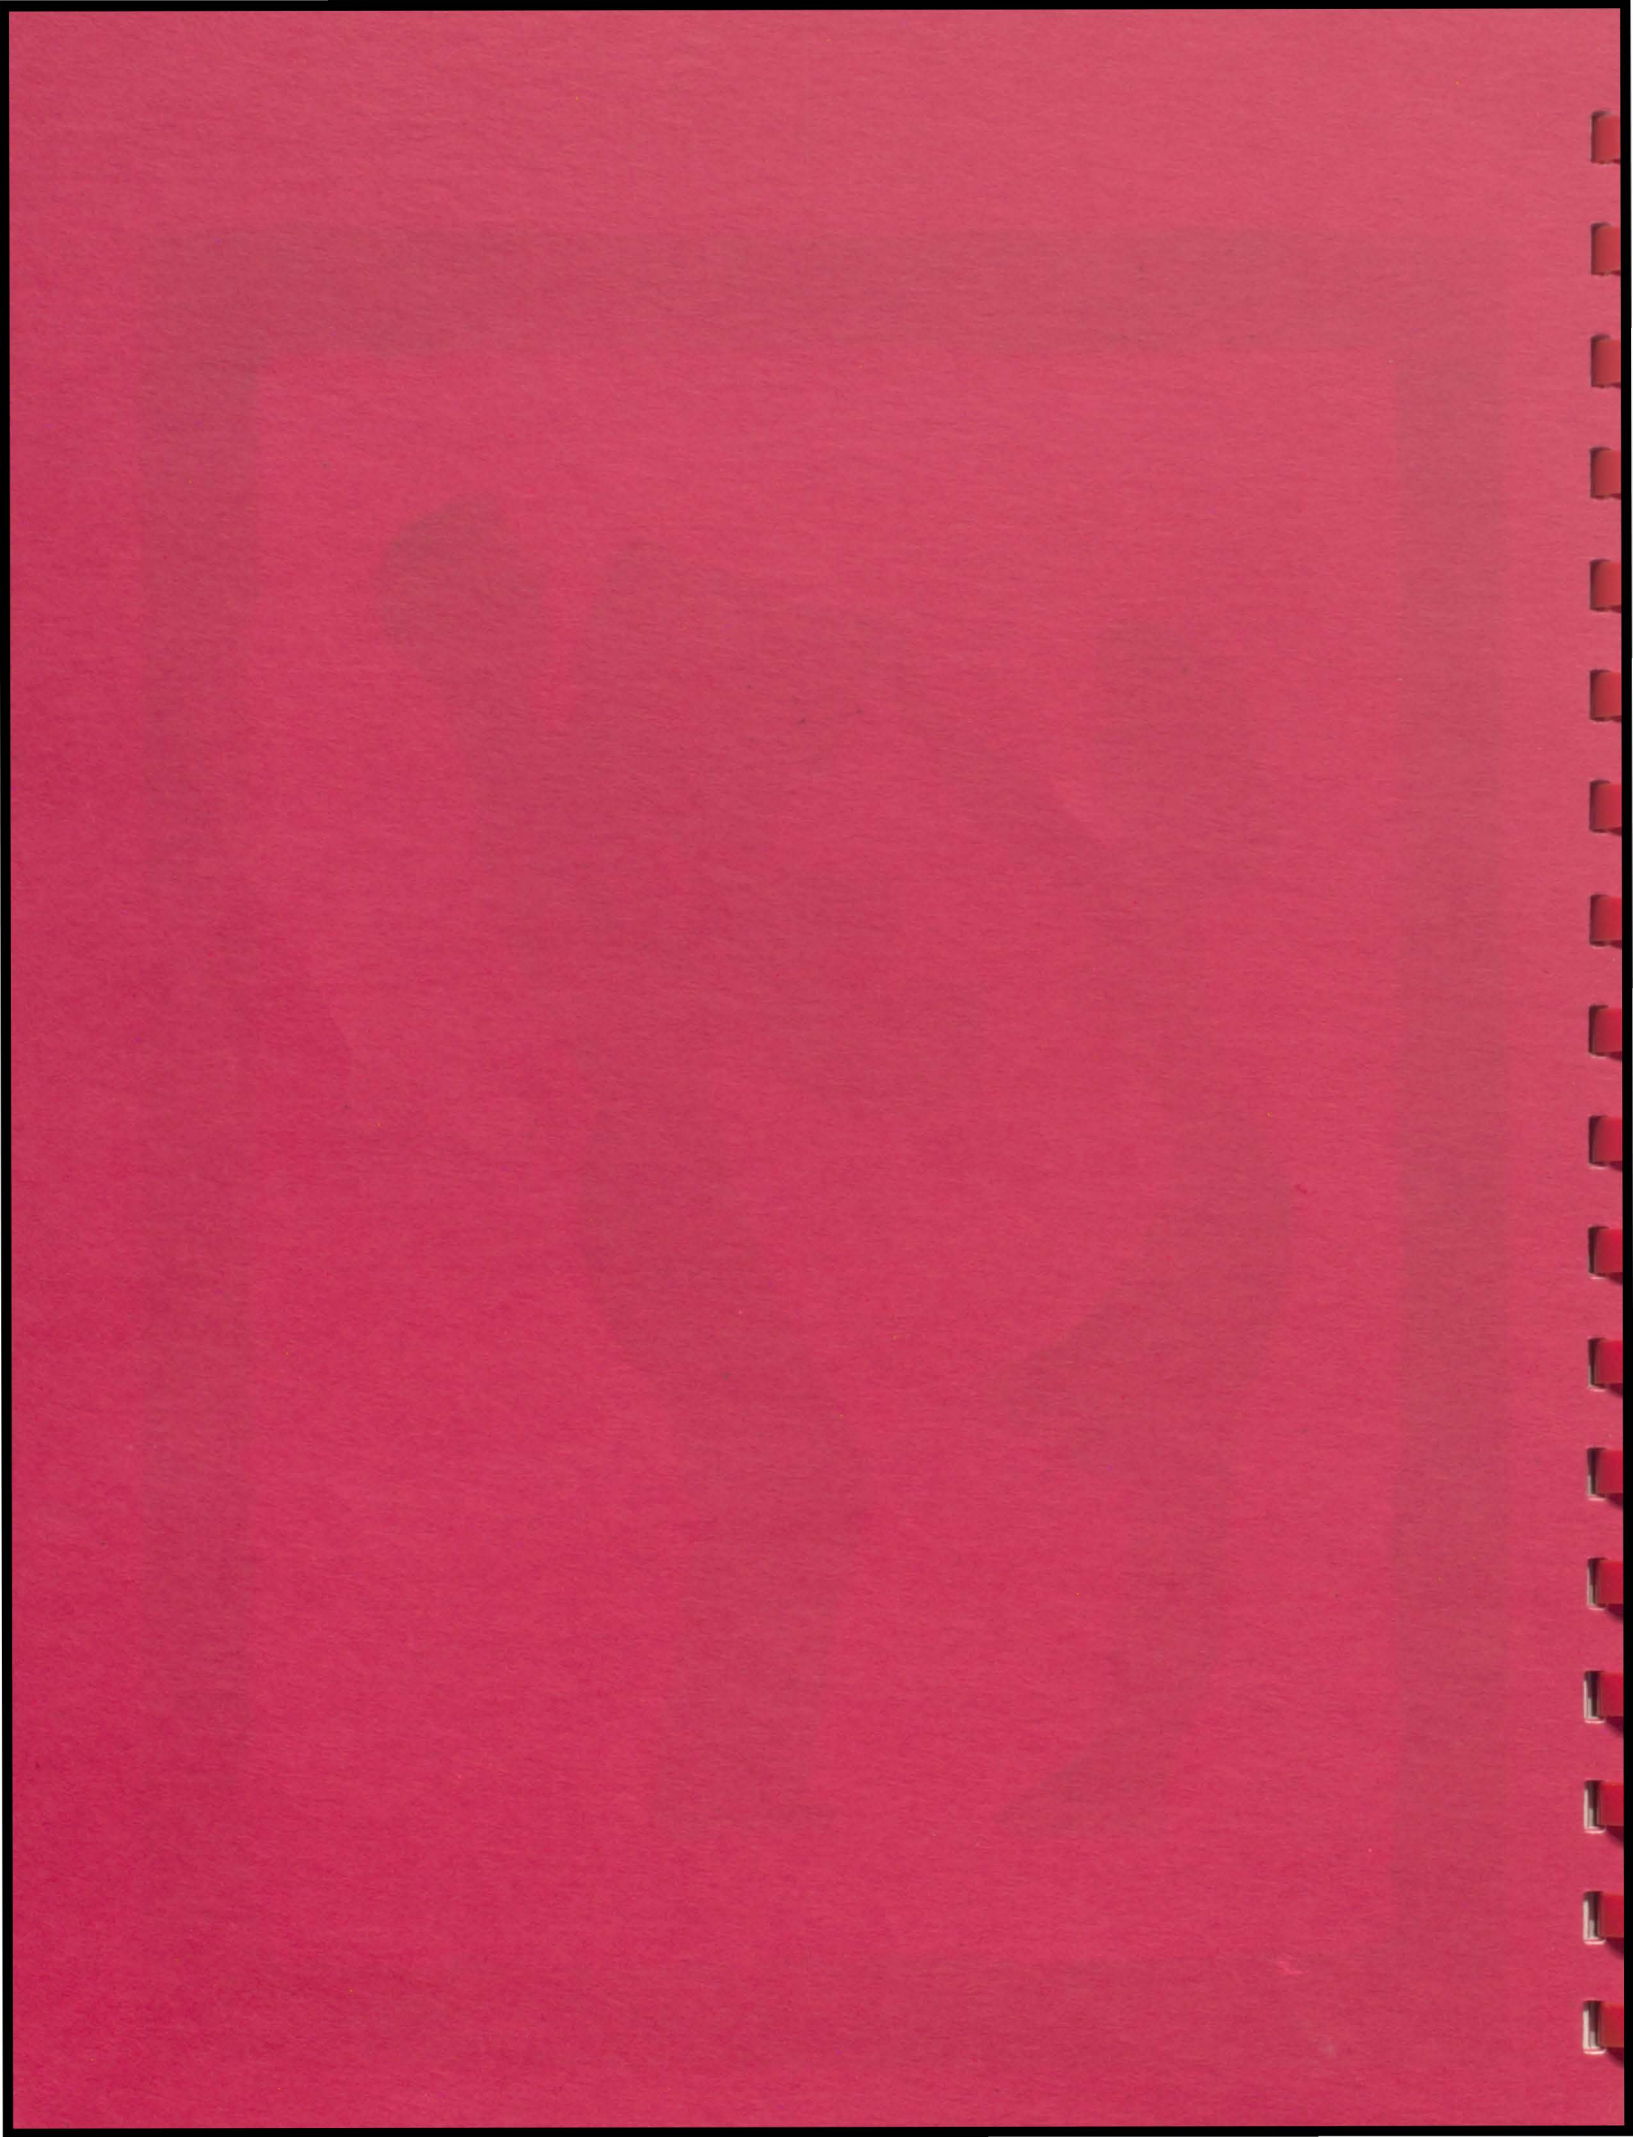

Sally Schwyhart was chosen accompanist for the Boys' Glee Club.

Kenneth Hubbard and Nadra Benedeck were members of the boys' and girls' sextettes

The three freshmen who consistently made the honor roll were Kenneth Hubbard, Frances Baillie, and Anita Huntley.

Activities

A student's school life is depicted in this section in which action shots have caught the fun and spirit of club work, extra-curricular activities such as proms, plays, and the operetta, and different phases of classroom life. The hours spent here will never be wasted, for through these pictures we will relive the fun we had in decorating for a Canteen, covering news as a "reporter", or caroling at Christmas time.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Joyce Johnson, Sally Lamkin, Marcus Nordberg, Twylla Read, Joyce Barz

After an impressive ceremony conducted by members of the junior class, five carefully selected seniors solemnly took an oath to uphold the high traditions and ideals of the National Honor Society before Mrs. Almgren presented them with their pins.

To be elected to this position is one of the highest honors a senior can receive. He works diligently through four years of high school for this recognition. The four basic principles on which the faculty chooses each student are character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Members must each have eleven credits in the fields of mathematics, languages, English, and science. The students chosen this year were Joyce Barz, Joyce Johnson, Sally Lamkin, Marcus Nordberg, and Twylla Read.

SCHOLASTIC TEAM

Back Row: Igo, Hubbard, Nordberg, Duffy, G.
Second Row: Koenig, Templin, Reid, T., Schutte, Heuberger.
First Row: Thurston, Johnson, Baillie, Huntley, Almgren, Barz.

Each year Western State scholastic exams are held in schools all over the state. Aspen, Rifle, Carbondale, New Castle, and Glenwood represented this district, Glenwood being a potential candidate for state awards with fifteen scholastic-minded students to represent her.

The Operetta

LOVE PIRATES OF HAWAII

A fearless pirate crew in conquest of love and a delightful Hawaiian atmosphere made an effective and highly entertaining operetta, "Love Pirates of Hawaii." This colorful pageantry was presented to a large audience by the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs under the able direction of Miss Patricia Guadnola on March 1, 1949. The exceptionally fine cast was headed by Margaret Noblitt and Henry Coll in the romantic roles and Bud Donegan and Annette Heuberger in the comic roles. The four girls who very capably portrayed Hawaiian singers were Norma Lee Barnes, Barbara Waterman, Sylvia Brown, and Carolyn Unger. Cast as the adventurous pirate crew were Ronnie Call, Wayne Halliburton, Strat Saunders, and Kenneth Hubbard. The operetta was again successfully presented in Rifle on April 5, 1949.

As a riotous collection of characters, sane and otherwise, "One Mad Night" took no peer. The Cutter mansion became a haven for a local insane asylum when their institution was burned. The arrival of Don Cutter, a young playwright, and owner of the house, only added to the confusion. His ingenious method of rescuing Lucille Marcy, falsely judged insane, provided the tense climax to the play.

Junior Class Play

Ready Made Family

After several weeks of intense rehearsal, the Junior Class of G.C.H.S. presented their class play, Ready Made Family. This delightful farce-comedy in three acts proved to be a fast moving crowd-pleaser and successfully lived up to advance notices. The cast was exceptionally well chosen, and the men-behind-the-scenes carried their work out to perfection.

Jerome Tonso and Virginia Baker portrayed a widower and a widow who were secretly married while on a vacation. Five step-brothers and sisters at first found this development much to their dislike and proceeded to "disintegrate" the happy couple. Tom Igo and Patty Henry played the parts of the widower's two children; Joyce Owen, Bertie Cator, and Kenny Anderson capably portrayed the offspring of the new bride. Aunt Lydia, played by Alice Mae Schutte, also represented the remarriage of her sister-in-law. Two darky servants, Caroline Unger and Severen Pedersen, added to the hilarity of the complex developments. After a wild and complicated final act, all matters, financial, personal, and romantic, were straightened out; and the action came to a close.

Mrs. Almgren, her staff, and the cast are to be complimented on a polished performance.

LATIN BANQUET

"Great Caesar's ghost! And Cleopatra, too! Is that Crassus?" So some noble Roman might remark if he could have seen himself and his cronies come to life again November 30. The occasion was the annual Latin Banquet, an affair which is becoming more elaborate each year. Garbed in flowing sheets and uncomfortable wreaths, the Latin II class haughtily reclined on the banquet floor, coolly ordering the personal slaves, the Latin I class, to fan them, to bring them innumerable drinks, food (spaghetti and meat balls), and provide entertainment in Latin. After stuffing themselves, the noble Romans departed, leaving their sponsor, Mrs. Stapp, and their slaves the job of cleaning up.

SADIE HAWKINS' DAY

Al Capp didn't know what he was starting when he created Sadie Hawkins Day! This year GCHS man hunters gleefully escorted their catches to a highly successful dance which is fast becoming traditional. Corsages of onions, carrots, marshmallows or what-have-you were the order of the evening while costumes ranged from scanty Daisy Mae outfits to torn, patched, and tattered jeans complete with corn-cob pipes. Helen Noblitt, reigning as Sadie, and her man, George Rowe alias Lil Abner, led the grand march. Marryin' Sam, otherwise known as Wayne Halliburton, hitched the couples "willin' or not" to climax an evening of fun.

CANTEENS

The Canteen Committee, which is elected from volunteers by the student body, sponsored many canteens after all home football and basketball games and many special dances such as the ever popular leap-year dance, a Hallowe'en party, and a Valentine dance. On these special occasions the committee worked hard on appropriate decorations, publicity, and entertainment. The chairman of the committee for the first semester was Sally Lamkin; Severen Pedersen was elected for the second semester and the following summer. The Canteen is becoming a permanent institution; many possibilities lie before it in future years.

Football Recapitulation

Coach Stubler's charges enjoyed a fairly successful season during 1948, winning five and losing four games in a very tough schedule. Injuries plagued the Demons throughout the season.

The first game of the season was a non-league tilt with the "B" squad from Grand Junction. The local gridders won this scrap easily and gained valuable experience. Don Vanderhoof, quarterback of the Red-and-White eleven, scored three T. D.'s for individual honors in the 24-0 rout.

The Demons travelled to Meeker to engaged the Cowboys in a non-conference game and came out victorious, 27-13. The Meeker passing attack confused the visitors during the first half as the Cowboys cornered two quick touchdowns through the air. In the second half, Henry Coll's quick-opening off-tackle slants spelled defeat for the fighting gridders from Meeker.

The third game of the season was a tragic one for the Demons. Alamosa's Maroons, considerably out of Glenwood's class, soundly spanked their visitors 41-0. A trio of swift and hefty backs, Hurly, Starbuck, and Salazar, ran circles around and through the befuddled Demons. Vanderhoof, Red and White quarterback, was injured early in the first period, a demoralizing blow to the usually high Demon spirits. "Bud" Donegan's terrific defensive play and Bill Colohan's passing helped to keep down the rampaging spud-pickers from the San Luis Valley.

The first conference game of the year put another victory on the Demon slate. Central's Warriors fell 12-0 before a slow but well-oiled Glenwood grid machine. Jack Fitzgerald, classy Demon half, was the outstanding player in this game.

A big fast team from the Eastern Slope, Westminster's Warriors, were the next victims of the now clicking Demon eleven. The visitors showed a powerful offense and a strong but somewhat temperamental defense. Henry Coll scored the only touchdown of the day as the Demons triumphed 6-0.

Another conference victory was notched in the Demon pitch-fork as they journeyed to Fruita to trim the Wildcats 25-0. This game was all Colohan for the Glenwood crew. Bountiful Bill ran for three touchdowns and pitched a long aerial to Simillion for the fourth. Jump and Donegan led the Demon defense.

Injuries and a rusty defense lost the conference championship for the Demons as Rifle's Bears capitalized on two long runs to defeat their hosts 13-0. Mikkelson, speedy Bear half, spelled the difference between the teams as he ran for two touchdowns on runs of 40 and 60 yards.

Fitzgerald was the big wheel for the Demons on offensive with Lewis, Call, and Rowe sharing defensive honors.

A wild, free-scoring game with Hotchkiss put another dent in the Demon record. The visiting Bulldogs eked out a hectic 31-26 victory. The center of the Demon line collapsed in the last half as the Bulldogs rolled again and again right down the middle. A Demon lead of 19-6 quickly fell apart as the visitors showed power and a will to win during a third quarter spree for 19 points.

The final game of the season was a fitting climax to an exciting season. Craig, Yampah Valley Champs, narrowly defeated the Demons 13-7. The home-town boys took a lead of 7 points in the first half, but the Bulldogs roared back for 2 touchdowns in the last half to gain a well-earned victory.

FOOTBALL PERSONALITIES

STUBLER, COACH N. J. - A truly great coach, "Nick" singlehandedly has led the Demons through three successful seasons at G. C. H. S. He is a clever strategist on both offensive plays and defensive formations; his ability gives opposing coaches very little confidence when their teams play the Demons. Much of his success comes from his facility of making friends of his players and helping them individually.

NUTTING, MANAGER JIMMY - Dependable, industrious "Little Doc" was always ready with tape or scissors when a player called him. Sometimes harassed, and also harassing, he was always genial and pleasant, with the biggest and friendliest grin on the squad.

BELLM, HARVEY - "Harv" was an immovable object in the left guard spot and a capable offensive center in the T-formation. This senior's specialty was submarining under opposing linemen and tackling the ball-carrier by his ankles.

BRAMBLE, MAX - Max capably filled in at the halfback post. The determination and willingness of this junior served him after size and experience left off.

HEUSCHKEL, DON - "Husk", hefty right tackle of the Demon eleven, was always a hard man to move or even hold in the line. Don always moved fast enough to be a menace to opposing ball-carriers. His weight will bolster next season's Red-and-White forward wall.

FOOTBALL PERSONALITIES

ROWE, GEORGE - A deadly tackler, dependable blocker, field quarterback and All-Conference Center all applied to "Gorgeous George", the Lou Groza of Glenwood's gridiron. This junior boy's play in the backer-up spot on defense was equaled only by his superb play as offensive center and by his ability to call the right plays in the right spots.

TONSO, JEROME - "Feather" Tonso, the steam-roller of the Demon line, was practically impossible to move by opposing linemen. Many were the runners who suddenly found themselves in Jerome's bear hug. This heavyweight guard will be back next season to hold down the forward wall.

MITCHELL, RAY - Stocky Ray, a Junior, always played a bang-up game as left guard on the Demon second string.

IGO, TOMMY - Tom's constant rough and tumble brand of football will gain him a berth on next year's eleven. Always dependable and ready for action, this junior should make a great guard.

BOLITHO, BILL - A clever ball handler and a superb pass-catcher, Billy will make an A-1 quarterback next year.

FOOTBALL PERSONALITIES

MONTOVER, SHERMAN- "Monty" displayed the perseverance which could put him on top during the next two seasons with the Demons.

NORDBERG, MARCUS - Injury caught this wing man of the Demon line before the season even got under way. A broken arm suffered in a practice scrimmage ended the season for "Oscar".

CALL, RONNIE - A senior who transferred from North High in Denver, "Poopie" had no peer as a blocking back. His savage tackles and swift analysis of opponents' plays made him an ideal backer-up on defense. He was also a danger to foes as the receiving end of screen passes.

COLL, HENRY - "Hank" was one of the reasons that the Demons' T-formation clicked throughout the year. This swift tailback was dangerous as a breakaway runner and a line plunger. Although he was hampered by an injured knee, Henry played almost every game on offense.

FOOTBALL PERSONALITIES

DONEGAN, ERNEST - "Bud", the big, bruising bulwark of the Demon line, truly deserved his honors of team captain and All-Conference tackle. Opposing runners found "Bud" where a hole was supposed to be. Jarring tackles, bruising blocks, and just plain beef were this senior's trademarks.

FITZGERALD, JACK - In just one year of football, "Fitz" developed so much that he became very possibly the outstanding back in the conference. If he could have combined experience with his speed, drive, and natural ability, there would have been no limit to his success. As it was, All-Conference Halfback was a moderate term applied to Jack.

HEISLER, DON - "Heis" was mainly a defensive player during the Demon grid wars. He was a savage tackler when playing backer-up and because of his height was very difficult to block. This junior will see much action next season.

JUMP, GEORGE - Starting the year at end, George was soon shifted into the offensive right guard position in the Demon "T". Toward the end of the season, he was again playing end, but only on defense. Breaking up enemy interference was this sophomore's chief habit, but he also was in on his share of tackles.

LEWIS, THOMAS - "Lewie" was probably the steadiest man on the field for the Demons. A rugged tackler and good blocker, he played his best when the going was the roughest. He was no spectacular pass receiver but could always be counted on to snare a forward aerial when it was needed.

FOOTBALL PERSONALITIES

SIMILLION, NORMAN - The glue-fingered left wing of the Demon line, "Buzz" was the receiving end of most of the aerals. Besides being an ace pass-catcher he was also an effective blocker and a vicious tackler. Smooth, tricky, and fast, this junior may be the key to an undefeated Demon season in 1949.

VANDERHOOF, DON - "Vandy", the deceptive, quarterback of the Demons in their first two games was shelved by a broken collar-bone at Alamosa. A rugged defensive player and a classy quarterback, he could have been the difference to give the Demons the conference crown.

BAKER, JAMIE - Jamie's aggressiveness and know how made him a capable reserve. A good pass-receiver and a hard-driving defensive end, he will help the future squads.

LETEY, JOHN - Johnny's aggressive tackling and blocking make an outstanding tackle prospect for the '49 squad.

PATCH, DONALD - A hard-running ball carrier and good open-field tackler, Don will fit into any type of offense at almost any backfield spot.

Basketball Recapitulation

The Glenwood Demons wound up the '48 - '49 season with a 15 - 8 win - loss record, the runnerup position in the conference, and the consolation championship at Delta.

CONFERENCE GAMES

Fruita: In their first encounter with Fruita the Demons swamped the Wildcats 46-27. Unable to find the range in the first two periods, the Demons led only 18-15 at the half. The Glenwood Demons however, came back very strong, pouring in 27 points in the last two quarters and holding the Wildcats to 12 points. Colohan and Simillion shared high point honors with 11 points apiece.

The Demons completely routed the Wildcats in their second game 70-16, scoring almost at will against the hapless Wildcats.

At the end of the first quarter, the Glenwood boys led 16-1; from there on it was a question of how many points the Demons would rack up. Coach Stubler let the alternates finish the game. Nordberg's 22 points were high for the night.

Rifle: The Red and White tromped over the visiting Bears 53-30 in their first encounter. Colohan paced the Demons to their victory with a 19 point output. The Demons led all the way and were never threatened by Rifle's ineffective offense.

In the second game with Rifle, a very cold Glenwood team lost to the Bears in Rifle in an overtime period 43-42. The Demons failed to hit a large percentage of their shots but still managed to keep a slim lead until the fourth quarter when the Bears put through fifteen points. A mixup made the clock go off with still fifteen seconds left, Rifle leading 34-32. The players who had left the floor were called back to finish the game. Simillion's hit for two points threw the game into an overtime period in which the Demons were outscored 9-8. Colohan was high for the Demons with 16 points.

Central: A strong Central team was edged out 37-35 in their first encounter with the Red and White in Glenwood. The Warriors led 31-25 going into the fourth stanza, but the Demons rallied and poured in 12 points, holding the Warriors to 4. A great help to the Glenwood victory was the fouling out of Harvey Elrod, Central's classy forward. Colohan again topped the scorers, this time with 13 points.

In the second encounter, a tired but fighting Glenwood team lost the Colorado A Valley League Championship to Central 26-19. In the game played on the Warriors' floor, the Demons failed to muster a semblance of a scoring threat, even though they outscored the Warriors 11-16 in the first two periods. Harvey Elrod took charge of Central's offense in the last two periods and swished through 18 points for Central's victory. Colohan led the Red and White with 6 points.

THE FRUITA TOURNAMENT

By virtue of their two narrow victories over Fruita and Central, the Glenwood Demons were crowned champions of the basketball tournament held in Fruita.

A very determined and surprisingly strong Fruita squad nearly scored the biggest upset of the season, but were edged out 20-19 by the Red and White. The Fruita Wildcats, whom the Demons had beaten twice previously, both times by large scores, led throughout the third period and midway through the fourth stanza, but they were finally overhauled by the Demons. An eight point output in this period gave the Demons their slim margin of victory.

"Oscar" Nordberg and "Buzz" Simillion showed high point honors for the Demons, both netting 6 points.

In the championship contest the Demons nosed out the Central Warriors 26-25. The Demons led most of the way through the first three quarters, however. At the end of the third quarter the score stood 17-12 in favor of the Demons. The fourth period was nearly fatal for the Red and White as the Warriors doubled the Demons' output of four points but couldn't seem to collect their badly needed 2 points for victory. Marcus Nordberg led the Demon pointmakers, this time with ten points.

DELTA TOURNAMENT

The favored Glenwood team dropped their first game of the tournament to the tall Montrose Indians, 30-28. Unable to find the range in the first two quarters, the nervous Red and Whites finally began to hit consistently in the last two quarters but were unable to put through the badly needed two points. This defeat dropped the Demons into the consolation bracket where they met Rifle.

The Rifle-Glenwood game was close all the way; the lead changed hands several times during the first three periods, but Simillion and Nordberg began to find the range early in the fourth stanza and their combined efforts built up a lead that was never relinquished. The final score was Glenwood 35, Rifle 28.

Glenwood captured the Consolation trophy by defeating Craig 35-29. The game, almost a replica of the Demon-Rifle contest, was close all the way, and the lead was reversed many times. The score was tied 23-23 at the end of the third quarter when Glenwood went on a fourth period scoring spree. Simillion was high point man for the Red and White with 10 points.

BASKETBALL PERSONALITIES

COACH STUBLER

Under the tutelage of Coach Stubler the team had another successful season. His patience and skill plus his love of sportsmanship molded this year's team.

DAVID WERKING . . . Manager

David was a great help to the team. He worked hard, and his loyalty and devotion were unflagging.

MARCUS NORDBERG . . . Forward . . . Senior
Although slowed down by an injured wrist, "Oscar" played excellent ball. His fancy ball handling, his accurate passing, and his scoring ability were valuable assets to the squad and won him a position on the second ALL-WESTERN-SLOPE team.

BILL COLOHAN . . . Center . . . Sophomore
"Reboundin' Bill" was the leader in the Demon offense and a stalwart in the Demon defense. His ability to shoot from any angle and his uncanny work under the backboards won him a position on the second ALL-WESTERN-SLOPE team.

BASKETBALL PERSONALITIES

GEORGE ROWE . . . Guard . . . Junior
"Gorgeous" was very capable on both offense and defense. This Junior was a fine passer whose two-handed set shots registered many a point for the Demons. George will be looked upon as a starter again next year.

JACK FITZGERALD . . . Guard . . . Senior
A flashy guard, Fitz's speed was an asset to the team this year. His shooting and his ability to anticipate passes were his main contributions to this year's squad.

"BUZZ" SIMILION . . . Forward . . . Junior
Buzz's coolness in any situation had a steadying influence on the Demons. His clutch shooting and fine passing were valuable to the Demons. Buzz will be with the Red and White next year.

DON VANDERHOOF . . . Guard . . . Senior
Don's two-handed set shots and his coolness plus his accurate passing and his basketball "savvy" were a great help to the Demons.

BASKETBALL PERSONALITIES

BILL BOLITHO . . . Guard . . . Sophomore
A very fine dribbler and ball handler, Bill could shoot accurately from almost any angle. What Bill lacked in size, he made up in speed and "know how".

MAX BRAMBLE . . . Guard . . . Junior
Max was a very dependable player. He was a good playmaker and an accurate shot.

DON PATCH . . . Guard . . . Sophomore
A good dribbler and a steady consistent player, Don's hustle and his one handed push shot made him a very dangerous opponent.

JAMIE BAKER . . . Forward . . . Sophomore
A leader in the "B" squad this year, Jamie's aggressiveness will mean much to the Demon squad next year.

BASKETBALL PERSONALITIES

BOB ROOT . . . Center . . . Junior
Bob was probably the hardest working player on the Demon squad. His knowledge of the game and his height will be valued next season.

RODNEY LEWIS . . . Center . . . Sophomore
Hard-working and dependable, "Louie" has the makings of a good player.

NORMAN COOK . . . Forward . . . Freshman
This freshman substitute's ability to tip in shots plus his height will make him a feared opponent next year.

DAN CRETTI . . . Guard . . . Freshman
Cretti's speed and accurate shooting matched with his ability to clear the boards will make him a valuable player next year.

The Junior-Senior prom given on May 23, 1942, was very successful. Shannon Gallagher and Leonard Rule led the Grand March amid a local theme of the Glenwood pool, beach, Maroon Lake, and other distinctive scenes under a star-studded ceiling.

The luncheon following the prom ranked among the loveliest affairs of the season. Leonard Rule, who presided as toastmaster, welcomed the seniors; Gene Coulter gave the response. Many entertainers provided a delightful program.
